Union Fight for Dues Ties Up Detroit

TRANSIT STRIKE VIOLATES STATE 'COOL OFF' LAW

All City Employes May Leave Jobs.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Mayor E. J. Jeffries.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 20.—This, the fourth largest city of the United States and the world's motor capital, was a transportation-paralyzed metropolis tonight as city officials strove without success to settle a labor tieup of all street car and bus service.

A fight between the CIO and the AFL over who is to collect union dues was held responsible for the tieup of a city with more national rearmament contracts than any other in the country.

No wage issue and no argument over working conditions is involved in the strike called suddenly this morning by the AFL union. Workmen are not seeking a single individual benefit. The whole argument is whether the AFL or the CIO treasuries will collect dues from employés of the municipal transit system.

1,600,000 Are Discommoded.

In the union leaders' determination to obtain these dues, they already have discommoded the city's 1,600,000 residents; forced 400,000 workers to find other means of getting to their jobs; disregarded the state law and labor board rulings, and caused a loss of $100,000 in fares and the wages of 7,000 men thrown out of work.

The strikers' attitude was evidenced by an interchange of ultimatums between Mayor Edward J. Jeffries and AFL leaders. When the mayor declared the strikers "couldn't get away with it" and that he wouldn't let them "run Detroit," their reply was that they would call a general strike among all city workers.

Three Peace Plans Rejected.

After the union had rejected three proposals by the mayor for immediate resumption of service while the issues are mediated, the conferees apparently were stalemated tonight with the prospect that the strike would continue for at least another working day.

Possibility that a city-wide strike of AFL workers may be called in support of the walkout appeared tonight with the statement of AFL leaders that full aid in the trouble had been pledged by their building trades council and their unions of hotel and restaurant workers, teamsters, and electrical workers.

CIO representatives offered Mayor Jeffries three suggestions for ending the tieup, but he gave no indication he would accept them. He promptly turned down a proposal that the CIO take over operation of the street cars and buses under police protection. The other proposals were that an election be held at once to determine the bargaining agent for the railway workers and that the CIO would postpone its demands for exclusive bargaining rights until the transit system's contract with the AFL expires.

Vote at 12; Strike at 4.

The strike was voted by AFL members at midnight last night. The deadline for the walkout was set at 4 a. m. today. State labor laws require a five day "cooling off" period after notice of intent to strike and a 30 day wait in disputes involving public utilities. These laws were ignored by the striking union, the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric, Railway and Motor Coach Employés.

Approximately 1,000 street cars and 1,650 coaches remained in terminals as 4,000 operators of the Detroit Street Railway company were made idle by the walkout. Thousands of workers in armament industries were late in getting to work and some industries were greatly inconvenienced.

Both state and federal governments expressed an interest in the strike negotiations. Thomas J. Donahue, chairman of the state labor mediation board, announced that Gov. Murray Van Wagoner had ordered him to offer his services. He refused to state whether the state labor media-

President Off Again to Meet a Royal Briton

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 [Special].—President Roosevelt, who has been in Washington five days since his sea conference with England's Prime Minister Winston Churchill, will leave the capital tomorrow for his Hyde Park estate where on Saturday he will greet the Duke of Kent, 39 year old brother of King George VI. of England.

The duke's visit will be the first paid to the United States by a member of the British royal family since King George and Queen Elizabeth were here shortly before the start of the war. In between, however, there has been a steady procession of titled foreigners to the White House and to the ancestral acres of the Roosevelt family.

Crosses Sea in Bomber.

The duke recently flew from England to Canada in an American built bomber and has been inspecting the empire air training program in the dominion. The state department announced the following itinerary of his visit here:

He will arrive by airplane in New York Saturday afternoon and will go immediately to Hyde Park, expecting to reach there in time for dinner. Sunday will be spent as a guest of the Roosevelts, and on Monday he will accompany the President to Washington on the presidential train.

On Monday the duke will visit the military and naval reservations in the area of Norfolk, Va. Later in the day he will return to the White House for a small informal dinner that evening. On Tuesday he will visit the Glenn L. Martin airplane plant at Baltimore and then return to Washington.

Windsors May Be Next.

The Duke and Duchess of Windsor are planning to visit the United States next month on the way to their ranch in Calgary, Canada. It was thought likely in some official circles that President Roosevelt might see fit to receive the couple, since he and the duke are old acquaintances. The duke, former King Edward VIII. of England, is now governor general of the Bahamas.

Sir Gerald Campbell, British minister and chargé d'affaires during the absence from this country of Viscount Halifax, called upon the President at the White House today.

ROOSEVELT SAID:

In a speech at Cleveland last Nov. 2, three days before his reelection, President Roosevelt said:

"There is nothing secret about our foreign policy. . . . I have stated it many times before, not only in words, but in action. I now restate it.

"The first purpose of our foreign policy is to keep our country out of war. At the same time we seek to keep foreign conceptions of government out of the United States.

"The second purpose of this policy is to keep war as far away as possible from the shores of the entire western hemisphere."

27 A. W. O. L. FROM ONE COMPANY; 10 JAILED IN HARLAN

Harlan, Ky., Aug. 20 (AP).—Two Harlan county youths, held for military police to face army charges of being absent without leave, today blamed their action on bad meals, lack of medical attention, and the attitude of their officers.

They gave these explanations at a hearing before Acting Judge Ed Hill who arraigned the men "to find out just what is causing so much desertion."

Sheriff Herbert C. Cawood recently was requested by Camp Shelby, Miss., officers to watch for 27 members of Company A, 149th infantry, who were AWOL. Six men, including three from Camp Shelby, were arrested here yesterday. Four others were arrested today.

Declares Red Secret Police Executed Gen. Bluecher

[Copyright: 1941: By the New York Time.]

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—Gen. Vassily Bluecher, former commander in chief of the soviet far eastern army, again is reported to have been shot by the GPU [Russian secret police], according to Der Angriff, organ of the German labor front. The current report is made by Ernst Cavotta, who wrote a series of articles for the Angriff about the soviet union. Cavotta claims to have met Gen. Bluecher in a Russian internment camp in Khabarovsk while he himself was imprisoned there in 1938.

Tanks Capture Snoozing Units in 33d Division

BY CLAY GOWRAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Second Army Field Headquarters, Prescott, Ark., Aug. 20.—Illinois 33d division, now engaged in large scale war games, lost all of its service units —the entire 108th engineer, 108th quartermaster, and 108th medical regiments — to enemy armored car forces in a 48 hour battle problem which ended at noon today. The tanks managed to penetrate the division's line of battle and fight their way to areas nine miles beyond, where the service units were stationed.

Officers of the armored cars said they found the three regiments unprepared, their commanders completely unaware that enemy units were in the vicinity.

Troops Catch Up on Sleep.

Soldiers were lolling in the shade, many catching up on the sleep missed in night marches earlier this week. Their capture was child's play.

High officers, in condoning the failure, said the service units would not have been such easy prey had the battle been real and not theoretical.

In this "war" each three enemy armored cars simulated a platoon of 21 such vehicles, thus greatly increasing their theoretical fire power. However, the carelessness of the service troops in not protecting their assembly areas from possible attack was inexcusable, it was said.

The 33d, a National Guard division, was inducted into federal service last March 5 and sent to Camp Forrest, Tenn., for training. Shortly before the present maneuvers began the division completed its mobilization training period and was adjudged ready.

Three Divisions Involved.

The battle just ended was the first of the current maneuvers of the 2d army in this southwestern section of Arkansas. In the battle, the 33d, 35th, and 27th divisions plus attached units, a total of about 60,000 troops, were arrayed against the reinforced 107th cavalry regiment which represented a much larger enemy force.

The 75,000 soldiers in the maneuver area will rest today and tomorrow.

RUSSIA OFFERED AMERICAN LOAN, JONES REVEALS

Reds Have Only to Ask, He Says.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Jesse Jones.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20.—The United States tonight invited Russia to ask for a loan of American dollars.

Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, whose multiplicity of jobs includes the administratorship of the federal loan agency, said at a press conference that the United States would be willing to lend money to Russia to pay for war materials purchased here. No security would be asked.

Heretofore administration spokesmen, headed by President Roosevelt, have asserted the soviets are well able to pay for what aid they need.

Jones, who is expected to confer soon with Constantine Oumansky, soviet ambassador, indicated that the United States is about to ask Russia to request American dollars.

Have Only to Ask for It.

Jones said that so far there have been no definite talks about money in American-soviet conferences regarding war aid to the communists, but said that if the Russians ask for money they will get it.

"If it becomes a matter of administration policy to help Russia and if she is unable to pay for the things she needs from this country, I imagine some way will be found to help her," Jones said.

He was asked what security this government might ask for a loan.

"O, I guess a promissory note," he replied.

Jones said there was no present indication of when Russia would ask or need to ask for a loan.

May Buy from Russia.

Jones said he was still interested in purchasing any strategic materials available from Russia, such as manganese, but that difficulties hampering such shipments had not abated.

Before Jones made his announcement there had been expressions in congress against any use of lend-lease funds to aid Russia. Senator Bennett C. Clark [D., Mo.], a noninterventionist, warned that an effort would be made to include in the next lend-lease appropriation a clause barring use of the funds to help the soviets. Senator Claude Pepper [D., Fla.] then suggested that RFC funds would serve the purpose.

U. S. NOT BOMBED SO OUTPUT LAGS, SAYS OPM HEAD

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—William S. Knudsen, director of the Office of Production Management, told his press conference today that "nobody on earth can outproduce the United States" provided "we all get into the spirit and go after this job."

Then, he added: "We haven't that spirit yet."

Asked why inspiration was lacking, he replied:

"Nobody has dropped any bombs on us yet."

CANADIAN TROOPS IN BRITAIN STUDY INVASION TACTICS

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES SOMEWHERE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM, Aug. 20 (AP).—In a week-long invasion exercise, several thousand Canadian troops have been given secret training in sea landings and coastal assault tactics for the day when Britain launches an offensive against the continent. The troops—infantry, engineer, gunner, signal, machine-gun and medical units—were brought here by train and boat to be taught to disembark quickly into bobbing boats and make assault landings on beaches and jetties. They also were shown the initial principles of combined operations with the navy.

TELLS HOW U. S. NAVAL PATROL GUARDS CONVOY

[Tom Horgan, Associated Press staff writer, has been on a voyage with vessels of the United States neutrality patrol. Following is the first account of his experiences. At the request of the navy the place from which the story was sent and certain other details are not disclosed.]

BY TOM HORGAN.

A RECENTLY OCCUPIED UNITED STATES OUTPOST, Aug. 6 [Delayed] (AP).—One of the most important naval operations since the World war was completed today when a sizable convoy was brought safely to its destination here.

The number of men and vessels involved and the identities of the ships and their commanders are withheld as a military secret, as well as the nature of the materials and equipment transported. The force taking part, however, was probably stronger than the entire navies of many secondary powers.

Full wartime precautions were enforced thruout the zigzag voyage, which was conducted under secret orders. Ships moving in the darkness of the night did not have even their running lights showing.

Push Thru "Thick" Weather.

The fact that the various units of the convoy were able to keep their positions and avoid collision in the difficult circumstances and in thick weather was a tribute to naval seamanship, and brought the compliment "well done" from the convoy commander to the officers and men engaged in the spectacular operation.

Ship radios were silenced to prevent betrayal of the whereabouts of the large number of vessels to possible listening devices. Individual receivers were locked up as a precaution against regenerative signals.

Thruout the daylight hours planes patroled a wide area around the convoy. As the turn of each aircraft came for launching into the sky, alert young officers ran out upon the flight deck of the carrier like members of a football team taking the field.

Catapults Launch Some.

Some of the planes roared over the precipice at the edge of the deck and soared into the sky. Others hurtled from catapults. The takeoffs were only seconds apart, and navy planes landed with similar rapidity to report on their observations.

There were only two aerial mishaps thruout the voyage, two planes being forced down by mechanical failures. Their crews were promptly rescued and the planes salvaged.

Gunners' Vigil Never Ends.

To impress the crew of the carrier with the importance of alertness, a chart was posted showing the reported positions of sinkings, the supposed areas in which submarines might be operating, and other possible hazards.

The convoy received another incentive for vigilance when it traversed an area dotted with flotsam, including an unoccupied life raft, bales of cotton or wool, timbers, and the drifting body of a man with a black beard.

Gray, sleek, speedy destroyers guarded the outskirts of the convoy. No blubber hunter from a New England fishing village ever kept a sharper watch. Not a whale nor a porpoise, nor a scrap of wreckage went unreported.

Ship Rams a Whale.

Amusement swept thru the convoy when one ship signaled that it wished to slow down in order to shake off a whale that had been struck and impaled on its bow.

A brilliant exhibition of naval seamanship was the transfer, in the middle of the voyage, of four correspondents from the aircraft carrier to a destroyer, by use of the breeches-buoy while the vessels were in motion.

HOSPITAL BEDS FILL INNS; CURB NAZI VACATIONS

BERLIN, Aug. 20 (AP).—Germans today were urged to postpone their vacations until winter with the explanation that "several hundred thousand hospital beds have been installed in numerous hotels and are not available for transients."

The Frankfurter Zeitung said the war has eliminated the favorite North sea bathing resorts as a vacation area and, as a result, more vacationers have gone to other parts of Germany than can find accommodations. Children and mothers evacuated from war-exposed cities also are absorbing many accommodations.

LAND FAR BACK OF LINES; TURN TIDE OF BATTLE

Reds Launch Series of Counterattacks.

Hitler Claims Victory

A special communique by Hitler's headquarters claimed the smashing of 25 Russian divisions in a gigantic battle around Gomel, with capture of 78,000 prisoners. It tended to confirm the Russian flying tank story, saying two brigades of air borne troops were defeated or captured. Story and map on page 2.

BULLETIN.

MOSCOW, Aug. 21 (Thursday) (AP).—Marshal Klementi Voroshilov, commander of the soviet northern army, today issued an appeal to all inhabitants of the Leningrad district to defend the city to the last.

MOSCOW, Aug. 21 [Thursday] (AP).—The Russians reported today that air-borne tanks laden with Red army infantrymen landed deep within the German lines and dealt a slashing blow in a continuing series of counterattacks while a similar Nazi stratagem was crushed by soviet "exterminator" squads.

Red Star, the soviet army newspaper, said these Russian counterattacks on the central front already had broken three German defense lines and recaptured five population centers, the flying tank troopers and foot soldiers sailing down to decide the issue at the third German line.

Germans Use 'Chute Troops.

The soviet information bureau said the Germans landed large parachute forces and three "tankettes" behind the Russian lines at an undisclosed place but that the whole party was smashed.

[Military experts have said it is entirely possible to land small tanks suspended between the wheels of big transport planes.]

The communique listed the major battle areas as Novgorod, Kingisepp, and Staraya Russa, all in the Leningrad defense zone from the Estonian border to the Lake Ilmen region, about 100 miles south of Leningrad; Gomel, in the central zone where Red Star told of success; and around Odessa, the big Ukraine port on the Black sea in the sector where the Germans have plunged deepest.

In the central area, not otherwise identified by the Russians, the forces of Gen. Konev have been advancing for three days, Red Star said.

Strong Forces in Battle.

First the Russians threw tanks, planes, artillery and infantry into a titanic assault which drove the Germans out of front lines and routed them a second time when they tried to entrench farther west, it said. Then the Russians pushed across a river and challenged the Germans' third line atop a hill.

At this juncture, the Red air force dropped tanks deep behind the Nazi defenses, infantrymen leaped from the tanks, and this combination of men and machines decided the issue.

The German objective in the Gomel sector, 350 miles southwest of Moscow, appeared to be to thrust a new salient thru the Red lines which could turn either toward Moscow or southward thru the Ukraine, where the Germans have made their biggest gains.

Reds Hold On to Hango.

The soviet navy news organ, Red Fleet, reported that sailors of the Baltic fleet, holding the Hango naval base at the southwest tip of Finland, had repulsed several enemy assaults and occupied a series of nearby islands with counterattacks.

This news came as Red armies took their stand about Novgorod, 100 miles south of Leningrad, 'n a supreme effort to break one of three German and allied drives upon Leningrad.

Novgorod, the capital of a province of that name, is by terrain well adapted to an effective stand. The province is half-covered with forests and holds about 1,200 lakes and the town itself stands high on a hill over the Volkhov river, is surrounded by swamps and lowlands and has a fortified Kremlin within stone walls.

The two other drives toward Leningrad are from Kingisepp, 75 miles to the southwest and the Karelian isthmus, 75 miles to the north.

For the second time in as many nights, German attempts to raid Moscow before midnight were reported frustrated by the capital's air defenses.

TELL NEW DEVICE OF NEW DEAL TO HUSH FREE PRESS

Newsmen Hired to Help Advance Policies.

A third method thru which the New Deal utilizes the public purse to advance Roosevelt policies, including intervention in the European war, to the American public is revealed herewith by THE TRIBUNE as a result of investigations completed by its Washington bureau.

This method is the wholesale employment of former newspaper men and a few newspaper publishers as press agents for federal officials. All are paid salaries and expenses from public funds.

In two earlier accounts THE TRIBUNE disclosed how New Dealers juggled funds of a federally controled banking agency to assist tottering pro-New Deal newspapers, and how the public purse was used to prevent a Tennessee newspaper from falling into the hands of an anti-Roosevelt editor. This third story makes public a practice that has spread thru virtually every department, bureau, and agency in Washington.

Part of a Far Flung Effort.

Employment of the expert propagandists is regarded as another phase of the New Deal's far flung and intensive efforts to control the free newspapers of the nation. In spite of nine years of pressure, however, not a single publisher of any important newspaper has yielded either to blandishments or threats, altho a number of publishers of unimportant papers have allowed themselves and their newspapers to fall under Washington's influence.

A dual purpose is achieved by getting former newspaper men or publishers on the public pay rolls or into honorary posts. They serve as outlets for information and many of the former newspaper men thus employed are of real service to the working correspondents in Washington. But secondarily they serve to sway their friends, former employers, and in the cases of publishers, their existing papers to a friendly attitude toward the Roosevelt régime.

No publisher who becomes an ambassador—there is one at this time—or the governor of a territory can attack the administration's internal or foreign policies in his newspaper back home.

Fully Staffed Departments.

Specifically THE TRIBUNE'S investigation in Washington disclosed that every major governmental department today, including war, navy, agriculture, labor, interior, etc., has a functioning press department. Usually it is headed by a former editor or news service writer who understands news and the newspaper system.

Not only the permanent departments of government, but also almost every one of the multitudinous New Deal agencies, bureaus, and committees existing in the main only by executive decree also have their press departments. These too are fully staffed. Usually they are headed by some former newspaper man who is friendly to the chief of the agency or bureau. The press heads are the "behind the scenes" strategists who advise their bureau chiefs on matters of public policy, write their speeches, and prime them for their press conferences.

The ranking publisher in Washington today is Vice President Henry A. Wallace, whose family still publishes Wallace's Farmer and Iowa Homestead, an agricultural journal of Des Moines, Ia. Wallace's associate publisher, Clifford Gregory, also is "in" the administration as a member of the federal advisory committee on problems of production and distribution of farm products arising from the war. The committee was formed thru the department of agriculture.

Daniels Is Ambassador.

The newspaper ambassador is the kindly professional southern gentleman, Josephus Daniels, American diplomatic chief in Mexico. Daniels publishes the Raleigh News Observer of Raleigh, N. C., long a staunch Democratic organ. For the last nine years it has been a Roosevelt "yes" publication and now is strong for intervention in Europe.

Other publishers in governmental posts are:

Jesse H. Jones, owner and publisher of the Houston, Tex., Chronicle. Jones is secretary of commerce and federal loan administrator. He is renowned as a banker and is among the few publishers in Washington whose abilities are declared to be commensurate with his governmental job.

Mrs. William P. Hobby, vice president of the Houston Post, who recently became the women's editor of the war department's bureau of public relations.

Governor of Alaska.

Dr. Ernest N. Gruening, founder of the Portland [Me.] Evening News and former New York and Boston editor, now governor of Alaska. He was appointed Oct. 15, 1939.

A few examples of the many press departments among the government departments must suffice. For instance, there is Michael W. Straus, former managing editor of the now defunct Chicago Evening Post, who is information director of the interior department. Then there is Max Stern, former Scripps-Howard editor, who now directs information for the Social Security board.

Francis A. Jamieson, former Associated Press writer and editor, just has been appointed head of the information division of the Rockefeller Inter-American Affairs group. Harry W. Frantz, United Press editor and writer, has taken leave from that organization to head the group's press section.

They Get Fancy Titles.

Most of the former newspaper men who are working in Washington as government press agents have their true jobs camouflaged under a shower of fancy titles. These are intended to disguise their real functions, but all, of course, are known to hundreds of working correspondents who constantly are bombarded by the propaganda "releases" and mimeographed bulletins from their offices.

One definitely pro-New Deal newspaper in the country that has no editor or publisher on the public pay rolls in Washington is the Daily Worker, which for years was the subsidized official organ of the communist party. That relationship officially ceased to exist on July 31, 1940, when the paper was said to have been sold to three women.

According to the record, the new publishers are Mr. Caro Lloyd Strobell, Mrs. Ferdinanda W. Reed, and Mrs. Susan H. Woodruff. The paper's editorial policies have not changed, however, and the old editors were kept in their jobs. The source of the financial backing for the paper today remains a mystery. But while it was openly the communist party's publication, it was supported by soviet gold said to have been sent to the United States directly from Moscow.

The Day's War Developments

Yesterday's developments in the war between Germany and Russia, based on the reports of both combatants.

ENGLAND BEGINS TO TELL SOLDIERS WHY THEY FIGHT

LONDON, Aug. 20 (AP).—The British war office launched a project today to tell the Tommies what they are fighting for. The scheme, providing for talks by officers, movies, and radio programs, embraces Oliver Cromwell's definition of a good soldier as "one who must know what he fights for and loves what he knows."

It deflates the attitude of commanders towards soldiers embodied in Tennyson's "Charge of the Light Brigade"—"Theirs not to Reason Why; Theirs but to Do and Die."

In a pamphlet introducing the plan, Sir John Greer Dill, chief of the imperial general staff, wrote that "If the illinformed or indifferent citizen is a menace to our national safety, so too is the soldier who neither knows nor cares why he is in arms."

GERMANS CLAIM SMASHING OF 25 SOVIET DIVISIONS

78,000 Prisoners Taken in Gomel Battle.

BERLIN, Aug. 20 (AP).—A crushing defeat of the Russians around Gomel on the central front with the destruction or capture of parts of 25 Red army divisions and two brigades of air-borne troops, running to a total of 78,000 prisoners, was reported late tonight in a special communique from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters.

While earlier accounts from the front pictured the Red army as near catastrophe in a bitter battle in the Ukraine for the bridgeheads of the lower Dnieper river, the spotlight suddenly was shifted to the previously ignored central sector with this brief announcement:

"In the area around and north of Gomel, a battle has taken place which ended in a crushing defeat for the soviet army. Part of 17 infantry divisions, one motorized, two tank, and five cavalry divisions as well as two brigades of troops landed from the air were defeated, destroyed or taken prisoner. Seventy-eight thousand prisoners, 144 tanks, 700 guns and 2 armored trains fell into our hands."

Between Smolensk and Kiev.

Gomel is about 170 miles south of Smolensk and 140 miles north of Kiev, capital of the Ukraine.

Twenty-five Russian divisions would total 375,000 or more men, while the two air-borne brigades would number possibly 5,000 or more.

[Mention of air-borne troops left little doubt that this was a Russian counterattack and was the same which the soviet army newspaper Red Star a few hours earlier reported had thrown the Nazi invaders out of three defense lines and five towns and still was continuing after three days.]

In addition to the 78,000 captives claimed at Gomel, German military quarters said 330,000 Russians had been taken prisoner thus far in the Ukraine.

Counterattack with Tanks.

In that southern sector of deepest German penetration, the Russians were said to have counterattacked with large tank formations to relieve the German pressure so that sizable soviet units could withdraw to the east bank of the broad Dnieper river.

The high command reported successful attacks on the bridgeheads, with destruction of 65 tanks.

The dispatches from the front described the Red army bridgeheads as few and far between, and the high command has said as much. Dive bomber attacks on boatloads of fleeing Russian troops, moreover, were said to have splotched the river with countless dead.

The German strategy was believed to be not only to chase the Russians to the eastern bank but also to keep them from taking new positions there.

Sea at Their Backs.

To the southeast of the big bend in the river the Sea of Azov is less than 100 miles away. German forces already have driven 600 miles thru the Ukraine.

Russian troops, it was believed, would not stay long between the Dnieper and the Azov because they would run the risk of being jammed against the shore without the prospect of adequate ships for continued withdrawal.

German military commentators, meanwhile, were regarding Odessa as a closed chapter, its capture inevitable. Under a full siege, Odessa was cut off completely from the rest of Russia both by land and by sea.

Harbor Littered with Hulks.

German aerial observers reported Odessa harbor littered with the burned wreckage of ships, warehouses, and wharves. An official statement said that more than 30 ships, totaling over 170,000 tons, had been destroyed in the Black sea near Odessa.

A sea-borne German assault on Batum, soviet oil port at the eastern end of the Black sea near the Turkish frontier, was envisioned as a possibility. If successful such an assault would relieve the Germans of the necessity of a long overland offensive and provide a gateway for attack on the vital Caucasus oil region.

The German strategy has created three "Dunkirk" situations for the Russians, it was observed, the outstanding one at Odessa. The second was at Tallinn, Estonia, where Russians cut off from Leningrad were being pushed toward the Baltic. The third was along the eastern shore of Lake Ladoga, where the Russians were said to have been crowded into a narrow strip.

Advance on Karelian Isthmus.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Aug. 20 (AP).—Finnish forces driving down the Karelian isthmus toward Leningrad were reported today to have reached the shores of the Vuoksi river, which formed the backbone of the Mannerheim line in the 1939-'40 Finnish-Russian war. Capture of two cities on the river, Vuoksenranta and Raisala, was announced.

PETAIN WILL SPLIT FRANCE IN PROVINCES ON MEDIEVAL LINES

VICHY, France, Aug. 20 (AP).—Chief of State Petain today ordered reorganization of France along medieval provincial lines.

He instructed the national council to create virtually autonomous provincial régimes ruled by governors whose authority would be incontestable and subject to the central government only in general policies.

Petain told the council the governor will represent the chief of state. The provincial council, he added, will be an advisory body and "in no case shall it be transformed into a political assembly."

British Union Demands Equal Pay for Women

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Equal pay for women doing men's work in industry and civil defense services was demanded in a resolution adopted today by the Transport and General Workers union. It also urged equal compensation for air raid injuries. A year ago British unions fought the introduction of women into factory jobs.

FOSTER ATTACKS THE TRIBUNE AT REDS' WAR RALLY

Denounces John L. Lewis, Norman Thomas.

William Z. Foster, national chairman of the communist party, made a speech here last night in which he attacked THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE. Other communist speakers in unrestrained fashion criticized the noninterventionist stand of THE TRIBUNE and urged that it be boycotted.

William Z. Foster.

Among those on Foster's list of "fifth column appeasers" were John L. Lewis, CIO labor leader, and Norman Thomas, Socialist party head.

Before an estimated 4.500 in the arena adjoining the Chicago Stadium Foster declared that Great Britain, the United States and Russia would have to maintain an alliance to prevent the destruction of the soviets.

Makes Demand for War.

"Hitler must be caught in the vise of a two-front war," Foster declared. "The people of the United States want convoys and they know that President Roosevelt has said that convoys mean shooting war. Appeasers are only sowing dissension. We must liquidate the notion of 'all means short of war.'"

At the beginning of the program the flags of the United States, the hammer and sickle of the soviets, the British union jack, and Spanish, Chinese and Czecho-Slovakian were paraded across the stage. Only American flags were left during the speaking.

Among the musical selections played for the crowd were the national anthems of Great Britain and the United States and the "Internationale," the tune to which Red revolution has marched for decades. The assembled communists cheered for the music and hissed every mention of THE TRIBUNE. They were urged to buy the Daily Worker, a communist daily, because it "answers the lies of THE TRIBUNE."

Calls Tower a "Curse."

Morris Childs, district secretary of the communist party, said that "America's Quislings and Lavals" are former President Hoover, Norman Thomas, Charles A. Lindbergh, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, and Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of THE TRIBUNE.

"Chicago is cursed with a landmark, Tribune Tower, built to disseminate lies," Childs declaimed. "The boycott is assuming momentum."

He declared that this newspaper was the "patron saint" of Al Capone, that it echoes Goebbels, the German propaganda minister, and "reeks with espionage and defeat." He added that Senator Wayland Brooks would have to be taught that he "cannot represent both Hitler and the people of Illinois."

Parted by Illness

Hollywood, Cal., Aug. 20 (AP).—William Holden, film actor, entered a hospital today for an appendicitis operation which may give him a chance to get acquainted with his bride, Brenda Marshall. The actress said she would have her appendix removed as soon as she finishes work in a picture. After their wedding trip a month ago Miss Marshall went on a studio location trip. When she returned three days later Holden was in Nevada making a picture. When he got home his physician sent him to the hospital.

BRITONS SELLING ANTIQUES IN U. S. TO FINANCE WAR

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—Rare English antiques make up a sizeable part of the flood of goods Britain is sending to this country in an effort to build up credits of American dollars, customs brokers and art dealers reported today.

Heirloom furniture, silver, china and tapestries from English town mansions and country estates are being sold to Americans by their English owners, who would rather part with the goods than see them destroyed by bombs, the dealers said.

These sources said the antiques are of types which usually become available only when a great estate is being broken up. Because of the increasing export of such goods, it was reported, some English firms are preparing to move their offices to the United States.

In addition to the antiques, England is shipping increased quantities of woolen and cotton goods, leather articles, chinaware, and Scotch whiskies.

5 RUSSIAN SHIPS SUNK IN BATTLE BY FINNISH FLEET

Try to Reach Hango Base with Supplies.

BY DONALD DAY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Aug. 20. – Finland's two pocket battleships, supported by a fleet of speedy motor torpedo boats, fought a battle with the soviet naval forces in the Gulf of Finland, sinking five Russian ships and damaging a sixth, it was disclosed today.

Four of the ships were transports carrying cargoes of provisions, motor fuel, ammunition, and other supplies to the besieged soviet forces at Hango, on the southwest tip of Finland.

Hear Cannonading.

The communique was vague about when the sea fight took place, but residents in Helsingfors on Sunday evening heard heavy cannonading off the coast and it is believed the soviet ships were destroyed when they attempted to seek shelter within the extensive mine fields the Russians have laid near the mouth of the gulf.

The Finns estimate the ships sunk were of 4,000, 3,000, 2,000 tons, and 500 tons. A minesweeper of 500 tons was the fifth ship sunk.

Account for Two More.

Monday morning Finnish bombers accounted for another ship of 1,500 tons, while the Finnish heavy guns on the Hango front sank a soviet transport in the Hango harbor.

Finnish observation planes spotted the convoy when it left Kronstadt [the Russian naval base near Leningrad]. The little Finnish fleet was ordered to leave its hiding places among the many islands on the coast and intercepted the convoy before it reached the mine fields surrounding Hango.

67.1% OF POLLED VOTERS TELL OF HOPE FOR PEACE

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 20 [Special].—John E. Lister, compiler of an America First committee poll of Philadelphia, announced results tonight as follows:

To the question: When you voted for Roosevelt or Willkie in the 1940 election did you expect your candidate to keep us out of foreign wars? 67.1 per cent answered yes; 10.5 per cent answered no; 22.4 per cent held no view.

To the question: Do you think the President's moves since his election are apt to take us into a foreign war? 72 per cent answered yes; 8 per cent answered no; 20 per cent held no views.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—While the Russians still hold the industrial city of Dnepropetrovsk in the Ukraine's Dnieper river bend, the huge hydroelectric plant, a few miles below the city, today was understood to be in German hands. The plant and the Dnieper dam which supplies its energy are the largest in Europe. The dam has been reported partly dynamited by the Russians, but even so, it seems to provide possibilities for crossing the river.

SUPERVISED BY AMERICAN.

The Dnieper dam was completed in 1932. An American, Col. Hugh L. Cooper, the builder of Muscle Shoals dam, directed the construction, the machinery was built by an American concern, and E. E. Robinson of Kewanee, Ill., directed the first year of operation.

The dam is 200 feet high and 2,300 feet long and at the time of its completion was the largest power plant in the world. It has been surpassed, however, by the 726 foot high Boulder dam, Grand Coulee dam, and others in America. The Dnieper dam has a water storage capacity about one-third that of Boulder dam. Its 750,000 horse power was designed to supply heavy industries at Dnepropetrovsk, coal mines in the Donetz basin, east of the Dnieper, and serve 16,000,000 population in an area of 70,000 square miles.

COMMUNISTS HIT IN WRIT AGAINST N. Y. EDUCATORS

New York, Aug. 20 [Special].—In a sweeping denunciation of the communist party and its activities here, trial committees of the board of higher education today recommended dismssal of two more teachers of the tax supported College of the City of New York.

Found guilty of "conduct unbecoming a teacher" were Seymour A. Copstein, $2,400 a year English tutor, and Dr. Walter Scott Neff, $2,616 a year psychology instructor.

Dr. Neff is executive secretary of the American People's Mobilization, a leading communist "Fellow Traveler" group which, after Russia was invaded, changed its name from American Peace Mobilization and reversed its policy to advocate all out aid to Britain, Russia, and China.

Both men were found to be active members of the communist party and guilty of giving false and evasive testimony in an attempt to obstruct the joint legislative committee investigating subversive activities in New York schools and colleges.

British Say Dakar Expects Occupation by Germans

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—The British radio said tonight every one at Dakar, French West African port, expected Germany to take control at any moment. The broadcast, heard by Columbia Broadcasting system, said: "In Dakar, the German mission, now several hundred strong, has spread its tentacles thruout the interior, where a German now shadows each French official.

HOPKINS STIRS OPTIMISM OVER RUSSIA'S CHANCE

Hope of Stopping Nazis Based on 3 Reasons.

LONDON, Aug. 20 (AP).—Official optimism in Washington and London over Russia's chances in the struggle with Germany is based on three assurances given to President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill by Harry L. Hopkins during their Atlantic conference, it was reliably reported tonight.

The assurances which emerged from Hopkins' conference with Russia's premier, Josef Stalin, and the lease-lend administrator's personal observations on his recent visit to Russia, were these:

1. Nazi efforts to raise a fifth column within Russia have failed, the Russian secret police having executed such elements.

Communications Intact.

2. Despite the terrific blows of the German armies, Moscow has been able to maintain unbroken communications between general headquarters and the three field army groups.

3. Soviet industrial expansion in the last five years has been on such a scale that, even if the Germans hold the western Ukraine, the Russians will be able, with some American and British help for immediate needs, to equip new armies and organize new air formations for the duration of a long war.

Stalin Directs Strategy.

An informant said that Stalin was "working in the Kremlin with his eyes open. He is neither over-optimistic nor fearful. The whole outlook of the Russian leader and his lieutenants is one of hard headed practicality."

"Stalin, like Adolf Hitler, is the real war leader of his nation," this source said. "He maps the grand strategy and leaves it to the army commanders to carry out."

Thus, he said, Stalin may personally have directed the withdrawal of Marshal Semeon Budenny's southern armies in the Ukraine east of the Dnieper river.

Hopkins is believed to have impressed Stalin with Britain's concern over the rising Nazi influence in Iran. The Russians replied by disclosing the extent of Russian troop concentrations in Armenia and by pointing out that soviet naval units in the Caspian sea could bring considerable pressure to bear on Iran.

Moscow, at first hesitant about British promises of aid, is said now to be giving a British mission much information about equipment, tactics, and plans.

GINGER ROGERS.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 20 (AP).—Capt. William Sullenberger, chief of detectives, announced today that Charles Robert Parson, 23 year old farmhand, had signed a statement that he sent a letter to Movie Actress Ginger Rogers demanding $25,000.

The admission was made, Sullenberger said, while the farmhand was being questioned about threatening notes asking $5,000 from Mayor Dale E. Cary and Ald. J. Edward Wetzel.

Sullenberger quoted Parson as saying he expected to use the money collected here to finance a trip to Hollywood. Parson was held without bail on a charge of attempted blackmail.

BRITON INSISTS U. S. SUPPLIES BE SENT RUSSIA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Frank Owen, editor of Minister of Supply Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard, in a signed article tonight warned his readers that "the Russians are in trouble." It is Britain's business, he insisted, to replace Russia's losses of munitions and war materials.

"We must divert to Russia now the airplanes, guns, and tanks flowing to Britain and her armies from the United States, or we must make one of the present termini of these supplies [the near east] a junction from which they are switched onward to Russia," Owen said. "This can be done," he suggested, "thru Iran [Persia], which at present is neutral and chockful of Nazis."

Finally, Owen urged that Britain "must create a second front and not only in the air. We must haul off the tiger from the body of our friend not by biting his tail but by dealing violent and vicious blows against his body. Now is the time to do it."

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Altho the government index indicates that price control has achieved its aim—today's figure being identical with that of last month—there is abundant evidence to show controled goods are available in black [illegal] markets. These goods disappear from the public markets to reappear in illicit shops where the dealers risk heavy jail sentences and fines to make illegal profits.

Illustrating to what a fine point magistrates are imposing penalties on profiteering was a case today in which a druggist was fined $9.50 for having sold a package of razor blades for 31 cents instead of 25 cents.

Heavy Fines Imposed.

Other court penalties for overcharging today included: A $93 fine on Phyllis Jones of Canvey island for selling two bottles of disinfectant for 15 cents instead of 10 cents each; a $41 fine on David Williams, Canvey island butchers, for overcharging on bacon, and fines of $80 and $40 on Abraham Krayer and Moss Ruffell respectively for selling oranges without a license and failing to exhibit the maximum price order. Krayer also was accused of overcharging.

Commenting on a six months jail sentence imposed on a dealer for overcharging on onions, the Evening News tonight demanded that food racketeers "must be treated as what they are—traitors." The time has come, it said, when "every racketeer must be sent to prison brusquely and without mercy."

Tons of Onions Seized.

In addition to black markets and profiteering, the food ministry also is confronted with the problem of producers attempting to interpret the price fixing regulations to their own advantage.

Food ministry officials have seized about 100 tons of onions daily this week in a Covent Garden market. The growers sent the onions to market with green leaves still attached for sale as "green onions" at the controlled price of 12 cents a pound, but official investigators decided they were fully grown onions, for which the controlled price is only 7 cents a pound.

VICHY ENVOY DENIES GERMANS WILL GET FLEET OR SEA BASES

Gaston Henry-Haye.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—Contending that the Vichy government had been unjustly accused of planning to surrender the Atlantic naval bases to Germany, Gaston Henry-Haye, French ambassador, today sought to repair the strained relations with the United States resulting from new evidence of Franco-German collaboration.

What success he had was not immediately apparent, for Secretary of State Cordell Hull declined to comment on their conference. It is believed, however, that Henry-Haye was told that future Franco-American relations depend upon acts of the Vichy government in carrying out its collaboration decisions.

The ambassador said that since his arrival here a year ago, the French government has "been accused of doing many things which have not been done," citing as examples the surrender of the fleet and naval bases.

"A whole year has passed and we have not done anything of the sort, but we still are being accused of having the intention of doing so tomorrow," he said.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

LETUP ON DRAFT HAILED AS STAB TO WAR BUBBLE

Foes of Army Extension Claim Vindication.

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20.—The war department's announced plan to release some 200,000 draftees and National Guardsmen by Christmas and to retain others in service for a total of only 14 to 18 months was acclaimed today by antiwar senators and representatives. The noninterventionists said the war department's action vindicated their opposition to the law authorizing President Roosevelt to extend the service of all army personnel by 18 months.

Various motives, chiefly political in nature, were ascribed to the administration's announcement of a program that does not differ substantially from the alternatives proposed by the noninterventionists to the army service bill.

Three Factors Mentioned.

Anti-war senators and representatives said the action was prompted by the sensationally close vote of the house—203 to 202—on the draft extension legislation, by reports of bad morale in army camps, and by tremendous opposition from the people to the 18 month extension.

Noninterventionists generally said the President had "failed to sell the war to the people." They cited the President's lament at his press conference yesterday that the people are not taking the war seriously enough.

On the question of morale some members of congress said they had received reports that army commanders feared wholesale desertions by draftees after the expiration of the one year term of service for which they were inducted.

Sees Claim Exploded.

Senator Bennett Champ Clark [D., Mo.], a leading noninterventionist, said the war department's action "explodes the false and fraudulent claim that the army would melt away and disintegrate if the draftees were released after one year of service." He recalled that the noninterventionists opposed any extension of the service of conscripts, but were willing to keep the National Guardsmen on active duty for a total of 18 months, or even longer.

Under this plan, draftees would have been released and replaced with new ones in monthly increments, beginning with 19,327 in November and December, and reaching a maximum of 153,437 next March.

The war department program will require the release of a greater number of men in the next few months, Senator Clark said.

Djibouti Menaced

VICHY, France, Aug. 20 (AP).—Two British warships have arrived at Djibouti, strategic French Somaliland port, following the shelling of a French ship outside the blockaded African harbor on Monday, the Djibouti intercolonial radio station said today.

The announcer described the situation at Djibouti as serious, but did not give many details.

France lost its sway over Djibouti, which is linked by rail with Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, under the 1940 armistice with Italy. However, the harbor has lost its value to Italy as Rome's African empire has been cut down by the British. Seizure of Djibouti, however, would give the British control over the narrow Bab el Mandeb straits, the bottleneck between the Red sea and the Gulf of Aden.

DRAFT OFFICIALS TO PUT ALL AIDS IN CIVIL SERVICE

Plans for putting local draft board clerks and assistants under civil service will be discussed here tomorrow and Saturday by state draft board officials and Lieut. Col. George A. Bonnet, chief of personnel for the national selective service system.

Since July 1 all new local draft board employés have been hired from federal civil service rolls in compliance with the Ramspeck act. Those hired previously must be given civil service rating by Jan. 1, according to Paul G. Armstrong, state selective service director.

Employés who were hired before July 1 may take noncompetitive civil service examinations. Armstrong proposed as an alternative special "lesson tests" which are now being taken by employés, subject to federal approval.

Envoys in Costa Rica Quit Vichy, Join 'Free French'

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Aug. 20.—The French chargé d'affaires, Paul Fisseux, and the secretary of the legation here, Pierre Ducuron, have notified Costa Rica they have ceased to represent Vichy and have assumed the representation of "Free France" under Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

STRIKES CAUSING UNREST IN ARMY, OFFICER WARNS

Pressure for Law to Stop Interruptions Seen.

New York, Aug. 20 [Special].—Strikes in preparedness industries are causing so much dissatisfaction among drafted men that some form of positive pressure may be placed upon congress to stop these interruptions in the nation's arming, Col. Ernest K. Coulter said today after a survey of morale in army camps from Florida to Massachusetts.

Col. Coulter would not indicate what form the pressure might take, but pointed out that the dissatisfaction is being transmitted to families and friends of soldiers at a rate that soon will make itself felt.

Col. Coulter, founder of the Big Brother movement, was an AEF personnel officer during the World war.

Angry Over Time Extension

The next most important item on the morale debit side was the extension of service, he said. The men do not object so much to serving another 18 months, but are angry over the broken promise that the draft was for only one year.

The soldier "would like to believe his government," said Col. Coulter, "but he finds it difficult in the face of what he considers deception."

Another factor which contributes considerably to the soldiers' dissatisfaction is the lack of equipment in many camps.

"No man can drill with broomsticks sticking out of old trucks to represent armed tanks and feel proud of himself," Col. Coulter explained. "These men would like to be proud of their army.

Disturbed by Flaws.

"In camps which have equipment the morale is high. The men feel that their tanks are the best in the world and that nothing can defeat the American army.

"Now don't misunderstand me," he added. "I found morale in the army better than it is among the civilian population. If these men were not concerned they would not be disturbed by flaws in our defense."

Draft Boards Get an Order: Post Names Conspicuously

All local draft boards were notified yesterday to post conspicuously in their headquarters the names of registrants and their present classifications. This was done in compliance with the law effective Aug. 18 providing for deferment of men 28 years old or older.

BRITONS DECLARE JAP TRADE PLAN NO APPEASEMENT

Insist Government Stands with U. S. and Dutch.

LONDON, Aug. 20 (AP).—Newspaper warnings that Britain's newly disclosed arrangements for possible trade with Japan might be considered appeasement brought hurried insistence from authoritative quarters tonight that the government was not retreating in the least from its stand against aggression in the far east.

Recalling Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's recent declaration that kid glove diplomacy was in the discard, these sources said Britain was "standing absolutely in line with the United States and Netherlands governments and not receding a single inch from the stand taken when Japanese assets were frozen."

These sources also said that while Britain had given Thailand [Siam] no specific assurances of military aid if her independence should be threatened, "that does not mean we are not ready to take strong steps against aggression."

Thailand Requests No Pledge.

They intimated that the absence of specific guarantees to Thailand, where Japan is reported seeking military and economic advantages, was due mainly to Thailand's failure to request such pledges.

They said any further moves by Japan would be regarded as "extremely serious" and that Britain already had taken adequate defense measures in the far east.

Sharp-eyed critics, however, seemed unlikely to be contented by efforts to minimize yesterday's announcement of arrangements for "clearing accounts" to handle possible future trade with Japan.

Authoritative quarters insisted that no trade licenses had been issued and that any which might be granted would provide for sending to Japan goods unrelated to war.

Barter Plan Denied.

Reports that the arrangement contemplated a barter agreement with Japan, they said, emanated from a Japanese source in Singapore and evidenced "some wishful thinking on the part of the Japanese."

The London News Chronicle, however, said it was "nonsense" to contend that Japan would get only materials not essential to war.

"The trouble is," it said, "that those who make agreements such as the proposed Japanese agreement do not recognize that Japan, like Germany, is an enemy of the cause for which we are fighting. Ten years of naked aggression have not opened their eyes to this fact."

RECALL OF NAZI ENVOY HINTED IN ARGENTINA

Edmund Von Thermann.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Aug. 20 (AP).—The German embassy denied reports tonight that Ambassador Edmund von Thermann would be recalled to Berlin but Argentine foreign office sources intimated they expected some change in the German diplomatic setup here.

The reports had circulated among many diplomats and congressmen. Von Thermann has been under the fire of a number of congressmen in connection with an investigation of anti-Argentine activities.

The government ordered that German language courses be ended at the Goethe school, a big German operated school here. It charged the school exalted "everything German, even to our own detriment."

U. S. TO LET YANKS IN JAPAN DRAW $500 PER MONTH

TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 20—Americans in Japan who have been worrying about funds as a result of the freezing of their assets in the United States were cheered today. The American embassy announced that they will be permitted to draw up to $500 a month. They must now find a bank that will accept their dollar checks, then wait for a Japanese license to draw upon the funds thus deposited.

No such license has been issued and "designated foreigners" face the prospect of making ends meet on the 500 yen that Japan permits them to draw for living expenses each month.

Berlin Orders Consulates of Cuba Closed Sept. 15

BERLIN, Aug. 21 (AP).—The government announced today it had ordered closing of Cuban consulates in Germany effective Sept. 15.

Claimed by Japan

TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 20.—Considerable interest has been aroused in diplomatic quarters here by new Japanese maps being sold in public book stores which show as a new Japanese possession a whole group of islands and coral reefs extending from the Spratly islands in the west to Half Moon in east, and from the North Danger reef in the north to just north of Swallow reef in the south. They lie just west of the Philippines and north of Borneo.

The islands and reefs, which in old maps bear English names, have been given Japanese names and all have been grouped under the new name of Shinnan Gunto or New Southern islands.

The Spratly islands were annexed formally by Japan some time ago, but the extent of annexation was only vaguely realized until the new maps came out.

CANADA PREMIER FLIES TO BRITAIN IN A U. S. BOMBER

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Prime Minister King.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King, who reportedly had vowed never to leave Canada except in a grave emergency, arrived in Britain today in an American made, four engined bomber. It was said here he would discuss with the war cabinet closer coordination of Canada's war effort with that of the rest of the empire.

In announcing his arrival, the dominions office disclosed he had made his first air trip at Britain's request. He was accompanied by Norman Robertson, undersecretary for external affairs; Lieut. Col. G. P. Vanier, commander of the 5th military district; four members of his staff, and three newspapermen.

He is expected to stay here several weeks to confer with Prime Minister Winston Churchill, cabinet ministers, members of the Canadian services, and leaders of the allied governments here.

King's arrival coincided with an official statement announcing that another contingent of the Canadian army, including ordinance service.

Peru Takes Over Village in Disputed Frontier Area

QUITO, Ecuador, Aug. 20 (AP). — Belated reports from the Peruvian frontier today said Peruvian troops had occupied the village of Piedras on Aug. 10 after air reconnaissance. Piedras is in the disputed territory at the end of the interior railroad to Puerto Bolivar, Ecuador. No violence was reported in the occupation, which came after a truce in border warfare between Peru and Ecuador.

OPM RESHUFFLES ORDERS TO AVERT PLANT CLOSINGS

Alarmed by Spectacle of More Unemployed.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20.—Alarmed by the imminent shutdown of hundreds of factories, the Office of Production Management today took drastic action intended to avert the spectacle of unemployed millions in a nation spending 1,000 million dollars a month.

The OPM approved a sweeping revision of army and navy purchasing policies designed to spread armaments orders into industries where shortages of materials threaten to close plants.

[Civilian orders for steel were at a standstill yesterday, with production tied up by confusion caused by the government steel priorities order. Story on page 23.]

This step highlighted a situation rapidly building up to a crisis in the industrial field. The capital is filled with delegations protesting the system of choking off civilian industries by the priorities system. There are other factors which have helped to build up resentment among business men, and principal among them are the sharp practices of the British, who are benefiting from the lend-lease program.

British Turn Competitors.

Numerous reports here indicate that Britain is competing with the United States in the Latin-American field with the assistance of products given them free under the British aid program. Meanwhile, small industries in the United States face ruin because they have been unable to get raw materials for civilian products under the priorities system and are incapable of manufacturing war weapons.

The OPM council, composed of William S. Knudsen, Sidney Hillman, Secretaries of War and Navy Stimson and Knox, ordered "special treatment" designed to spread armament work wherever practicable into communities or industries faced with unemployment because they cannot obtain materials for civilian production. A new bureau was set up to provide regional advisory services for plant owners, especially for smaller enterprises seeking arms contracts or subcontracts.

Both administration officials and the British themselves were said to be concerned over certain British practices which, they feel, have damaged Britain's cause in this country.

British "Business as Usual."

The situation which has attracted the most attention thus far involves Britain's use of its oil tankers in normal commercial trade at the same time that rationing of gasoline is in prospect for the eastern seaboard because of the diversion of American tankers to the British.

The American navy has been unable to obtain a detailed statement on where and how British tankers are operating, and Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes has thus far refused to state whether the transfer of 80 American tankers to the British, with 70 more promised, was accomplished under conditions of actual shortage of British tankers for war purposes.

British Start Inquiry.

But evidence has been gathered concerning other British practices which have angered the hampered business men of the United States. So serious is the problem regarded that Britain has sent Sir Kenneth Lee of its industrial and export council to this country to investigate the complaints.

Products sent by the United States under the lend-lease program are either being sold in South America, it is evident, or are being used to replace British products sold there.

Britain operates a North Atlantic ferry service between the British Isles and Montreal. The understanding was that this service would carry only military or government passengers and diplomatic mail.

But recently Britain placed in this service the three latest trans-ocean Clippers produced in the United States at a time when American air lines were anxious to obtain these planes for expanding services. They used to compete with the American trans-Atlantic air line.

Private passage can be obtained on this line for $600. Pan American's mail portage has dropped 10 per cent and it has encountered difficulty in getting air passengers in Europe.

JAP PAPER SAYS U. S. IS SEEKING BRITISH COLONIES

TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 20 (AP).—The newspaper Hochi charged today that the purpose of United States intervention in Europe and Asia is to take control of British colonies and establish leadership over China.

United States policy, the newspaper said, is in the hands of plutocrats who "judge aid for England and Chungking [China] as a legal, honest means to take over the colonies and China after the fall of England. The Americans believe a German landing in England will take place in October."

Matasune Ogura, new finance minister, warned a convention of bankers that normal commercial dealings must give way to loans for wartime industries. Military expenditures, he added, will be increased.

AUSTRALIAN LABOR VOTE HALTS MENZIES' PLAN TO VISIT LONDON

CANBERRA, Australia, Aug. 21 [Thursday] (AP).—Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies' proposed trip to London to consult with British leaders on the far eastern tension was objected to today by the Australian labor party and thus there was little chance that Menzies would leave.

John Curtin, labor party leader, announced that his party formally had voted against Menzies' trip at this critical time.

The prime minister yesterday told a special session of the house of representatives that Japan had created the present tension and "Japan has the means of relief in her own hands."

SHAH CALLS ON IRAN'S ARMY TO BE 'READY'

TEHERAN, Iran [Persia], Aug. 20 (AP).—Riza Khan Pahlevi, shah [king] of Iran, today called on the army to "be ready for every sacrifice."

The shah, who addressed the graduating class of the military academy, announced that the cadets would not have their annual leave this year.

[Authoritative quarters in London said yesterday Britain had given Iran about a week in which to answer a British-Russian request to oust 3,000 Germans.]

WARNS OF DOOM IF U. S. JOINS TO WIPE OUT NAZIS

Vassar Head Tells Peril in Roosevelt Pledge.

New York, Aug. 20 [Special].—Dr. Henry Noble MacCracken, president of Vassar college, tonight warned that the United States would be plunged into war if it actually should adopt the Roosevelt-Churchill pledge for "destruction of Nazi tyranny." Even in victory, he added, loss of lives, bankruptcy, and loss of freedom would outweigh any gains from such a war.

Speaking before a cheering crowd at an American First rally in Carnegie hall, Dr. MacCracken deplored the "apparent attempt to commit this country to what is in effect a treaty, without the constitutional provision of a two-thirds concurrence by the United States senate."

When the crowd in the hall passed its normal capacity of 3,700 firemen closed the doors.

Others Share Rostrum.

Dr. MacCracken shared the rostrum with Philip F. La Follette, former Wisconsin governor; Michael Strange, author, and John T. Flynn, economist, writer, and chairman of the New York chapter of America First.

"These are great words," said Dr. MacCracken, of the Roosevelt-Churchill peace aims statement. "How are the ideals they express to be obtained? It is the final destruction of Nazi tyranny and the permanent disarmament of Germany.

"How are the tyrannies in other countries to be overthrown, the tyranny of the communist party in Russia, for instance? It is implied that the United States and Britain will accomplish it, by wishing to see it."

Foresees Idealism's Doom.

Referring to democracy and total war as incompatible terms, Dr. McCracken questioned how much democracy, private enterprise, financial stability, and freedom of labor would remain after such a war.

"I do not see how such a victory could leave us with any idealism to carry out the points of the sea treaty," he said. "Instead, we should be an empire, either a part of the British empire, as some would have us be, or an American world empire, the old independent United States forever gone.

"We should have garrisons in Germany, Japan, and Italy, commissars of raw materials all over the world imposing an Anglo-American peace, with one indispensable condition as its basis, the integrity of the British empire.

Makes Final Plea.

"So let us hope that the treaty of the sea, this melodrama of Churchill on the coast of Maine, was written in water. Let us forget it, so far as it means commitment of our country to war or the imperialist dream.

"Let us aid Britain so far as is reasonable, without putting ourselves into bankruptcy. And let us work for peace, remembering that the way to make peace is to keep peace."

La Follette predicted the outcome of the war would be a united Europe, on the theory that both Germany and Great Britain would be economically exhausted and forced to coöperate.

He expressed belief that if the United States remained out of the war she would emerge "absolute mistress of the seas and the greatest industrial power of the world."

"The British do not only want to cut down Stalin and Hitler, but do not want the United States to come out of it [war] too strong," he said.

Italy Orders Wooden Soles for Shoes to Save Leather

ROME, Aug. 20.—Manufacture of shoes with wooden soles was authorized by decree today in order to save still more leather. Some months ago it was forbidden to make soles entirely of leather and as a result women's shoes have been soled primarily with cork. There has also been some experimenting with glass for evening shoes. However even glass is getting scarce, for another decree set up control over the sales of bottles by factories.

GERMANS BOMB BRITISH TARGETS OVER WIDE RANGE

BERLIN, Aug. 20 (AP).—German airmen bombed British objectives at scattered points between Alexandria, Egypt, and the English east coast in the night while only a small number of hostile aircraft penetrated the northwestern German coastal region and caused immaterial damage, the German high command said today.

[The British air ministry said bombers, flying despite bad weather, blasted the naval base at Kiel and attacked other points in northwestern Germany and Holland.]

British attacks against Nazi-held territory yesteday cost the RAF 30 planes and last night's foray two more bombers, the high command said. German operations last night included attacks on armament plants, port facilities, and airports along England's east and south coast. German speed boats invaded English channel waters and sank a 5,000 ton British freighter and a 4,000 ton tanker.

On the African air front, a 1,500 ton British transport and a 500 ton tug were sunk near Tobruk, Libya, and a 3,000 ton vessel was damaged in Sollum, Egypt.

Hard Blows to Hamburg.

LONDON, Aug. 20 (AP).—A neutral diplomat said today the important German port of Hamburg which he left a fortnight ago had taken "such a smashing from the RAF that its people were consoling themselves by saying 'well, it's not as bad here as it is in Bremen.'"

GERMAN BOMBER SCOUTS ICELAND, DROPS NO BOMBS

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 20 (AP).—A single German bomber flew low today over Reykjavik, capital of Iceland, and was chased out to sea immediately by fighter planes and anti-aircraft fire. It dropped no bombs.

Iceland is occupied by United States and British troops.

[This is the first such reported incident over strategic Iceland since President Roosevelt on July 7 announced United States naval forces had occupied the far northern Atlantic island in agreement with Iceland and Britain. Previously there had been Nazi reconnaissance flights and occasional attacks.]

ALUMINUM DRIVE OVER LONG AGO; OLD POTS REMAIN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20.—Householders' pots and pans, which were collected in Wisconsin cities nearly a month ago to relieve a much advertised national shortage of aluminum, still are heaped in piles about the state while city officials and chairmen of aluminum drive committees are waiting for some one to signify that they want the metal.

In some cities the pots and pans still are in the unsightly piles where they were dumped on the night of Aug. 26, the climax of a week's drive to the accompaniment of martial band music and patriotic speeches.

In other cities they have been hauled off to public warehouses. Pots and pans gathered in smaller places were trucked to concentration centers where they remain heaped in greater piles.

Thousands Work for Days.

Milwaukee enlisted the aid of 10,000 patriotic women, who spent five days calling on every housewife in the county, and 10,000 truck drivers and Boy Scouts who gave a day to picking up the scrap aluminum. It was dumped at the courthouse square, while bands played and Mayor Carl Zeidler delivered a speech.

The Milwaukee contribution was augmented by collections from cities and villages as far away as Fond du Lac and Sheboygan. Altogether, Milwaukee has pots and pans on hand estimated to total 167,000 pounds in weight. This accumulation has been hauled to storage warehouses at the Municipal harbor.

Two piles of wash boilers, tea kettles, and coffee pots, topped with a confiscated slot machine, adorned Monument square at Racine until today, when a representative of the United States Reduction company at East Chicago, Ind., appeared with an order from the OPM at Washington and trucked them away.

Praise Work of Tribune.

Racine people were inclined to give credit to THE TRIBUNE for getting the obstructions removed. An enterprising thief was observed one night trying to remove the slot machine from the pile.

Kenosha gathered what was estimated at 19,000 pounds of scrap aluminum, which was piled in the civic center for a few days and then hauled to a warehouse. Warehouse officials today said they had received no orders for its disposal.

Manitowoc, which calls itself the aluminum capital of the country because of the great quantity of aluminum products manufactured there, contributed several thousand pounds of scrap in the hope that some of it might get back to the local factories and remove some of the uncertainty about their continued operation. They are threatened constantly with having to close some department for lack of material.

DEMAND TERROR AGAINST NEGRO SOLDIERS STOP

Letters to Roosevelt Ask Immediate Action.

Demands for investigation and protection sped to President Roosevelt yesterday as more and more complaints were received here of organized brutality directed against Negro soldiers in Arkansas. At the last report, 52 men of the 94th engineers were AWOL as a result of morale destroying incidents.

Euclid Louis Taylor. [Moffett studio.]

The Chicago Urban league and Euclid Louis Taylor, president of the National Bar association with a membership of 1,400 colored attorneys, wrote letters to President Roosevelt stating that action must be taken at once.

Ordered Off Road Into Ditch.

Arkansas state police officers acting in concert last week ordered colored troopers off the road into a ditch while they were marching to a new bivouac area at Prescott, Ark. A white officer in a letter told how a white lieutenant with these troops was struck in the face by one state policeman while the others covered unarmed military police with guns.

Yesterday parents of soldiers from Chicago brought other letters to Howard Gould, who is in charge of the Urban league office.

"Some state police drove out into our camp area at 11 p. m., slipped up on several of our soldiers, and beat them with blackjacks," one letter read.

Names Those Beaten.

"Those beaten were Corporals Ross Stanford and W. W. Sales, and Privates Ira T. Brantly and Fred Gaston. The officers also beat a white officer, Lieut. Currie.

"They fired on Ace Tillis, Albert Anderson, and Robert McFarlaine. Some of the boys got disgusted and went AWOL."

Gould said the plea of the Negro soldiers from the Chicago area now in Arkansas was to give them ammunition that they might defend themselves, or return them to Fort Custer in Michigan.

"They are not going to be willing victims of southern atrocities," he said.

His letter to the President requested that steps be taken immediately to halt the outrages and to punish those who are to blame.

Most Serious Problem.

Attorney Taylor's letter to President Roosevelt read in part:

"Disaffection among draftees and the clash of group against group is the most serious problem in national defense today.

"As president of the National Bar association, I call upon you to exercise your plenary powers to suppress the violence and brutality against defenseless draftees.

"If we are to defeat tyranny abroad, we must defeat it at home. Jews, Gentiles, Negroes, Catholics, and Protestants all make up our army. They are entitled to equal treatment under the law and they must get it as a matter of right.

"Clubbing, head whipping, abuse, and insults have no place in a democratic army sworn with its life to defend democracy."

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 [Special].—Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, today gave the White House an elongated hexagonal table of his own design. It is so constructed that the President can sit in the middle and see and hear each member of his cabinet and will not have to raise his voice to be heard. It will be used for the first time tomorrow.

TRANSIT UNIONS' BATTLE FOR DUES TIES UP DETROIT

State's 'Cooling Off' Law Violated.

tion act could be used to force an election where the 30 day notice clause was ignored.

The federal conciliation service in Washington announced it had assigned John Q. Jennings, Detroit representative, to coöperate with Donahue.

Union Raiding Charged.

The strike, resulting from AFL charges that the CIO was raiding its Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Operators' union, flared over the seemingly trivial point of exclusive use by the AFL of the city owned bulletin boards in eight street car and bus barns.

Mayor Jeffries refused yesterday to rescind permission recently granted the CIO to use the boards.

The strike was voted by a reported 750 members of the AFL local which has a total membership of 3,500. Union officials said they were unable to persuade the men to observe the state 30 day notice law. However, they had previously predicted that they would be unable to do so. The law provides that violation shall be punished as a misdemeanor.

Conferences between the mayor and the AFL began early today. Jeffries, accused by the AFL of favoring the CIO and by the CIO, which picketed the hotel and city hall during the day, of being pro-AFL, refused to grant demands of Frank X. Martel, president of the Detroit and Wayne County Federation of Labor, for exclusive bargaining rights, exclusive use of the disputed bulletin boards, and exclusive application of the checkoff system.

Turn Down Election Plan.

Martel and other AFL officials likewise refused Jeffries' suggestion that the men return to work at once, that negotiations continue, and that an election be held to determine whether the AFL or CIO has a majority of the 4,000 operators and 3,000 maintenance workers. The CIO is believed to have a majority of maintenance workers and about 500 operators, but claims more. A check off system of collecting AFL dues shows 3,000 members but it is reported many of these have joined the CIO.

Mayor Jeffries also stressed a point which he has made frequently during the last six months: That the city government cannot grant sole bargaining rights to any one group. He declared such action would amount to granting a closed shop to the AFL group.

Plant Forced to Close.

The Hudson Motor Car company today was forced to close two plants employing about 9,000 workers because of the lack of transportation, and other industries, many of them in armament production, reported feeling the strike.

The hardship to the public would have been far greater except for the sudden friendliness of motorists for waiting pedestrians. Most drivers didn't wait to be hailed but swooped to the curb when a stranded person was spotted. One young woman was the object of a fight by three cars at once, and another was seen to turn down a ride in an expensive sedan to clamber into a delivery truck between two good looking young men.

Taxi drivers made the best of the golden shower, one reporting that his collections for the day already were $13 as compared with a normal $3. Many single riders stopped their cabs to offer seats to office bound workers.

10,000 at Ceremonies

Governors of three states and official representatives of 10 other states in the 9th naval district, along with 10,000 spectators, attended the Governors' day celebration at Great Lakes Naval Training station yesterday. Rear Admiral John Downes, station and district commandant, welcomed the guests.

"Your states provide more than 35 per cent of the navy's personnel, and are playing a vital part in providing material and personnel for the two-ocean navy," he said.

State Senator Arnold P. Benson, president pro tem of the senate and acting governor, represented Illinois. Also present were Governors Julius P. Heil of Wisconsin, Henry F. Schricker of Indiana, and Murray D. Van Wagoner of Michigan; Frank Knox, secretary of the navy, and Maureen O'Sullivan, film actress.

Most of the party assembled in Abbott hall on the Northwestern university Chicago campus, and proceeded to Great Lakes, where they reviewed 2,000 recruits.

Lieut. E. M. Mallory.

The course will last for two weeks during which Lieut. Mallory will fly from 25 to 35 hours in gliders and soaring planes.

Altho Lieut. Mallory is bound by regulations to make no statements concerning his training it was learned from Washington yesterday that he probably will head a new glider section of the marine aviation corps.

There were other marines in Chicago yesterday, 190 newly enlisted men from Quantico, Va., having arrived at the Chicago Vocational school. They will train 16 weeks for service in aviation ground crews. The school, at 87th and Jeffery avenue, already has several hundred navy students.

CATHOLIC GROUP RAPS PLAN FOR WOMEN'S DRAFT

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—The National Catholic Women's union today adopted a resolution opposing a proposal by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt for compulsory governmental service for women as a "hideous example" of the rising tide of burocracy in government.

The resolution said the union opposed the proposal "because it is, at best, a very rash and needless social experiment, fraught with moral, social, and political dangers."

The union met in joint session with the Catholic Central Verein of America, concluding a five day annual meeting, at which the verein adopted a resolution expressing belief in a strong national defense. The resolution also urged belligerents to heed the pope's plea "to make peace with justice and charity."

Tavern Pale

The BEER for a GOOD HEAD

Here's the Test that Tavern Pale Won by a GOOD HEAD...It's the Beer that Treats You Right!

UNDER IDENTICAL CONDITIONS, Tavern Pale was tested against 10 well-advertised beers. Glasses of each brand stood the same elapsed time after pouring. Then each glass of beer was checked. Tavern Pale showed 67% greater "head" than the average of all other beers tested. Test conducted under the strict supervision of Altschuler, Melvoin and Glasser, Certified Public Accountants, Chicago, Ill.

SO, REMEMBER to ask for Tavern Pale . . . it's the beer for a GOOD HEAD, every time! And the secret of that GOOD HEAD is that Tavern Pale is made of the finest ingredients.

Don't Let Summer Sun Kill Your Hair

Your hair-growing structure is delicate and reacts unfavorably to over exposure of hot rays of the mid-day summer sun. Such exposure may increase your hair-fall, aggravate dandruff, and start you more definitely on the road to baldness.

Call at a Thomas office today for free advice on the care of your hair during the summer months. A Thomas expert will gladly tell you how to enjoy summer sports without injury to your hair. He will tell you when and how to expose your hair to the sun; when to wear a hat; what to do about excessive perspiration on the scalp — about salt-water bathing and shower baths. He will also explain exactly how Thomas effectively ends dandruff, stops falling hair and regrows hair on the thin and bald spots. No charge is made for consultation nor for scalp examination. You are always welcome.

EXPOSE JOYRIDES OF NIGHT LIFERS ON UNION FUNDS

Airplane Trips Taken by Caldwell Pals.

Maurice Margolis.

That six prosperous Chicagoans, identified with Chicago's night life, some with police records and some with close tieups with the old Capone gang, rode airplanes at the expense of local 1248 of the Retail Clerks' International Protective association, was disclosed by the state's attorney's office last night.

The local was until recently under the dictation of Max Caldwell, a former bootlegger. Caldwell has been ousted and the members of the union are seeking to get an accounting of $910,000 he is alleged to have squandered after collecting this huge sum from them. Evidence has been found to prove that one air line company received $3,706 from the union treasury for rides taken by Caldwell, his family and friends, in 16 months.

Six Riders Exposed.

The six riders exposed by Assistant State's Attorneys William B. Crawford and Gordon Nash are:

Harry Russell, partner in the Silver Bar at 400 South State street, from whom the local union rented office space.

Peter Tremont, partner in the '30 club and 830 East 43d street, and the operator of two policy wheels popular with the colored folk on the south side.

Patrick Manno, partner of Tremont in the policy racket and an auto agency.

Milton M. Schwartz, owner of cafes at 222 North State street, 52 West Randolph street, and 165 North State street.

Maurice Margolis, 5538 Jackson boulevard, an employé of the Snow Ice company and of the Gold Seal Liquor company, controled by Joe Fusco, onetime brewery superintendent of the Capone gang.

Tremont was recently a partner of Fusco in the Mike Todd café at Lawrence avenue and Clark street, which was closed by Mayor Kelly for selling drinks to minors. Todd, the promoter, was muscled out of the place by his partners.

Tried for Manslaughter.

In 1925 Tremont was tried for manslaughter and found not guilty. Manno in 1930 was put on probation for a year on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Russell told Crawford that he took a plane trip from Miami to Jacksonville, Fla., with Caldwell and returned the same day.

Tremont said that he, De Stefano, and Manno traveled by plane from Chicago to Miami in April, 1940. They said that Margolis was given the money to pay for the fare and that he had Caldwell buy their tickets at a slight discount granted the union.

Margolis, who rode down later, was questioned last night and told to return today. He insisted that he had wanted to pay Caldwell for the tickets, but hadn't met up with him for more than 15 months; that he was willing now to pay $300.

Contends Fares Paid Back.

Schwartz said that he reimbursed Caldwell for the ticket he used between Chicago and Miami. Caldwell's own story was that the fares were "supposed to have been paid back," but that the union had never been reimbursed.

Caldwell was a witness yesterday at a hearing on the $910,000 suit before Daniel Covelli, mastery in chancery. He said it was not true that his wife owned a home in Hollywood, Fla. He has, however, admitted a contract to buy a $45,000 Miami Beach property from Frank Nitti, the Capone gang boss.

Caldwell said he was unable to identify Mrs. Kunia Sissman, 1621 Columbia avenue, a clerk, who was at the hearing. Attorney Heisler said that Mrs. Sissman would be called later and would testify that she was forcibly thrown out of the union headquarters by Caldwell when she asked him to tell her what the union was doing for its members.

ROBBED OF $14.

Nick Trbovich, 17 years old, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a magazine bundler, complained to central police last night that two men whom he met between bus stops near the depot at 170 North State street, strongarmed him and robbed him of $14, leaving him a bus ticket and 5 cents, when he refused to pitch pennies with them at Wacker drive and La Salle street.

IT ISN'T SO, SAYS DUFFY OF O'BRIEN GAMING REPORT

Capt. Tom Duffy of the 1st district city police yesterday said frankly he didn't believe the reports made by Sheriff Thomas J. O'Brien's county police about gambling in the loop district.

Chief Lester Laird of the sheriff's uniformed force, which had never before undertaken to police city precincts, several days ago declared that from 20 to 100 gambling halls had been newly discovered by the O'Brienists. In one place at 179 North Wells street, Laird said, his men found 300 persons betting on horse races. At 29 West Adams street, 2d floor, Laird said, 350 men and women were betting.

"I don't know what the sherff's men were drinking," said Capt. Duffy, "but it must have been something to make them see double many times over. The joint they say they found on Adams street is a room that wouldn't hold more than 35 persons. And I doubt that they saw any gambling at 179 North Wells street."

THE TRIBUNE'S PLATFORM FOR ILLINOIS AND CHICAGO

Save Our Republic

ROOSEVELT, BARKLEY, AND THE TRIBUNE.

Barkley of Kentucky was instructed by the White House to say in the senate that THE TRIBUNE's report of Mr. Roosevelt's undercover disclosure to certain congressional leaders of what he and Mr. Churchill discussed was "a deliberate and malicious falsehood out of whole cloth."

The WPA senator did as he was told and thereby started a discussion of the broad lines of Mr. Roosevelt's conduct. But before Mr. Barkley was off his feet his chief had deserted and betrayed him. Mr. Roosevelt had one of his irresistible ideas. At the wrong moment for him and his spokesman he gave it to the reporters.

When Mr. Roosevelt came home from the sea and from Mr. Churchill, his admirals, generals, and warships he had signed a two man war and peace treaty with the head of the British government. The text of this pledge—deceptive and inoperative so far as the United States is concerned—was given out, but Mr. Roosevelt had nothing further to communicate openly to congress or to the nation which he is so misrepresenting in his relations with the British government. What he had done might be of the most critical importance to the country, which learned nothing of it from him. He by-passed congress with his usual aplomb.

He did, however, in a manner he has made familiar, call in some of the members of congress upon whom he relies, and to them he undertook in confidence to reveal facts and prospects he is concealing from the people. Mr. Manly of The Tribune Washington bureau obtained from one of Mr. Roosevelt's confidants an outline of what the chief executive reported of his meeting with the British prime minister.

This report contained a statement that Mr. Churchill believed that if the Russians could hold out in the east it would be possible to carry the war to Hitler in continental Europe in 1942 or '43. He would need and expect an American expeditionary force. The implication was that he could rely upon it. When Barkley had denounced THE TRIBUNE's report and slandered the reporter he was asked by Senator Vandenberg if he had read the report of the White House meeting as published in the New York Times, a newspaper which supports Mr. Roosevelt and his policies. Mr. Barkley had not. Mr. Vandenberg read parts of it for him. The report in the New York Times was virtually the same as that in THE TRIBUNE.

Thereupon Mr. Barkley lost some of his assurance and fell back on confused statements that no one present would have revealed anything about the meeting and that, therefore, none of the reports was accurate. That didn't end the senator's embarrassment.

Mr. Roosevelt in the White House was talking to the reporters and he was throwing Mr. Barkley down. He knocked his spokesman over by saying that the trouble with the American people was they didn't know they were in a war. With dramatic flourish he read a statement made by Abraham Lincoln after the first year of the Civil war. He was much concerned that the nation should get the point and with impressive emphasis he quoted:

"The fact is that the people have not yet made up their minds that we are at war with the south. They have not buckled down to the determination to fight this war thru. . . . They have no idea that the war is to be carried on and put thru by hard, tough fighting, that it will hurt somebody; and no headway is going to be made while this delusion lasts."

What did Mr. Roosevelt mean by telling the people of the country in this fashion that they were deluding themselves, that they hadn't buckled down to the determination to fight this war thru, that they didn't realize it had to be carried on by hard, tough fighting, and that somebody was going to get hurt? The only time the people will suffer from hard, tough fighting and get hurt is when they are sent by the millions into the foreign war. It would seem that the statement Mr. Barkley was calling a malicious lie was in effect being repeated by Mr. Roosevelt himself as a revelation to the country of what it was to expect.

If he isn't determined to send an expeditionary force to join Mr. Churchill's expeditionary force, and if he didn't agree with Mr. Churchill that this was necessary to accomplish the war aims stated in his two-man treaty with Churchill, why did he say that the people had to make up their minds to fighting and getting hurt? Possibly Mr. Barkley can explain.

The truth of the information given THE TRIBUNE is in evidence in everything that Mr. Roosevelt is doing. It is evident in his effort to get authority to send an expeditionary force overseas, in his demand for an army four or five times larger than any needed to defend the United States, in his occupation of Greenland and Iceland and in the endeavor to get bases in northern Ireland, in his meeting with Mr. Churchill in a convoy of British and American battleships, in the joint declaration of war and peace aims with the British prime minister, and in the way he has sought to delude the people, keep them from a knowledge of his full purpose while accomplishing it, and break down their determination to avoid what he is determined to have.

Neither Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Barkley nor any of the other persons involved in the war conspiracy enhance their reputations for integrity or trustworthiness in this latest endeavor to prepare the people for tough, hard fighting and to deny that they are going to get it. Mr. Barkley's standard of ethics is pretty well known. He is in the senate as a result of the demoralizing and, according to his own colleagues' report, scandalous use of federal dollars.

Mr. Roosevelt is acting as the descendant of the revolutionary Tory, his great-grandfather, who took the oath of allegiance to King George, and in line with the principles of that southern connection, Mr. Bulloch, who as a Confederate agent in London outfitted commerce destroyers in British ports to smash the Union. Mr. Roosevelt is an odd one to quote Lincoln. Back of him as his only allies are such organizations as the Fight for Freedom interventionists and the communist party. This is the conspiracy against the United States and its people.

WHO SAID 2½ YEARS?

Now the war department says it isn't going to keep any Guardsman or conscript in the army for 2½ years, after all. Some will be released after serving only 14 months. The average service will be 18 months. Few will be held in camp as long as 22 months.

This is the same war department which only a few weeks ago was saying thru Secretary Stimson, Undersecretary Patterson, and the chief of staff, Gen. Marshall, that no limit at all could be considered. It is the same war department which fought furiously to defeat Senator Taft's proposal for 1½ years of service and Senator Burton's proposal for a 2 year limitation. Now this same war department which less than a fortnight ago reluctantly accepted the 2½ year bill and was predicting doom if the Taft or Burton plans were to be adopted, is saying that these gentlemen were right all the time.

The turnabout is not difficult to explain. The 2½ year law passed the house by a margin of only one vote, 203 to 202. That frightened the administration not only because the vote was close but more especially because there never was any doubt that the measure was thoroly unpopular not only among voters generally but more especially among the men directly concerned, the men in the camps. Congressmen had been hearing from them and from their parents. Some high ranking officers had testified that the men in uniform were eager to make the added sacrifice but congressmen knew better. The war department's change of policy indicates that at last the realities of the situation have been recognized.

When Mr. Roosevelt sent his message to congress on July 21, asking for the extension, he said:

"I am confident that the men now in the ranks of the army realize far better than does the general public the disastrous effect which would result from permitting the present army, only now approaching an acceptable state of efficiency, to melt away and set us back at least six months." The administration translated that general statement into a demand for service as long as the so-called emergency lasts. Mr. Roosevelt evidently thought that a law to that effect would be welcomed by the men in the army. That was the official doctrine until the day before yesterday.

It isn't any more and the reason is that the morale in the army has become a source of grave concern. It remains to be seen if the new promise will improve matters. Will men who feel they have been deceived now place confidence in the new promise? They expected to get modern arms and didn't. They expected to learn the art of modern war and discovered they were being taught to fight the last war. Many expected to find the outdoor life of the army enjoyable, but they were subjected to the miseries of summer in southern swamps and clearings, selected to satisfy the greed of Democratic congressmen. On top of it all, the understanding that the sacrifice would be limited to a year was broken and the men suspected that the other promise, not to send them overseas, would be broken with equal ruthlessness. Like 80 per cent of the people of the United States, the conscripts are opposed to sending another AEF to Europe. These are the reasons which account for the bad morale in the army, and explain why, as was reported in Life a few days ago, a division has adopted OHIO as its slogan, the letters standing for "Over the Hill in October."

IN RECOGNITION OF EVENTS.

Our friends, the Finns, fighting their enemies, the Reds, may soon feel the weight of American aid to Joe Stalin. The Lithuanians, caught up in the same warfare, have explained to the government in Washington that they have seized the opportunity to get rid of "the despised soviet régime based on artificially fanned class war and terror." Until Russia moved in on them with the consent of Hitler they had a government of their own choice.

Last year France was being offered all the backing of American resources and getting none. Now Vichy is threatened with the wrath of Mr. Hull and his chief. Stalin, the recent ally of the Nazis and the enemy of France, is now the ally of the United States and France is the enemy.

Might it not be proper to change the name of LaFayette square in Washington to Red square?

Editorial of the Day

HOW BADLY DO WE WANT THEM LOYAL?

[Des Moines Register.]

The papers printed pictures of the pretty American born Japanese girls who are candidates for beauty queen of the annual Nisei festival at Los Angeles. A Nisei is an American born of Japanese parents, hence an American citizen by the fourteenth amendment. American schools, movies, radio, and newspapers have Americanized them pretty thoroly, too, in spite of the solemn conviction of some Californians that they are "unassimilable."

The social discrimination against these Americans is bad enough, but the economic discrimination is worse. All but a few careers are closed to them. If a Nisei wants to be anything but a domestic servant or a truck gardener he has a hard time of it at best. It is the Negro problem all over again, with a different race—only this time the race controls a powerful nation across the Pacific.

There are thousands of Nisei in California, Hawaii, the Philippines. Yet only a few—like Adamic in his book "From Many Lands"—have even tried to look into their hearts. Wherever Adamic's Nisei went outside the narrowly prescribed bounds he was met with a blunt "Americans only," and unreasoning deafness to his agonized cry, "But I AM an American!"

Now all of a sudden, for self-defense, we desperately want them to be loyal Americans. But are we even now ready to pay the modest price in equality of opportunity? We'd better begin asking ourselves this question, and about the Negroes, too—who are here by the millions instead of thousands.

Here is a money making idea offered without charge to the manufacturers of those iron voiced nickel in the slot phonographs now common in American restaurants: Among the record selections leave one number blank for those who would gladly pay 5 cents for three minutes of quiet.—Christian Science Monitor.

MEMOIRS OF AN ESCAPIST.

One form of slang we've never cottoned to: Jazz band and jitterbug talk. It's affected and technical stuff. As a matter of fact, it does not deserve to be called slang, for it is not in general use.

* * *

According to the advertisments of fashions for gals, "culottes" will be favored this fall. The accompanying picture showed a good-looker in a pleated skirt, but the word really means knee-length breeches. It's French, of course. At the time of the French revolution the aristocrats wore "culottes," generally of silk. The revolutionary mob wore long, loose trousers; hence the word, "sans-culottes."

* * *

The word "slacks," now feminized, came out of the military vocabulary of the Other War. British officers, on furlough or office duty, could wear long trousers instead of their fighting breeches. The garment made for a considerable degree of comfort, hence the word for these uniform trousers, "slacks." The big dictionary gives it as military slang.

* * *

Lease-Lender Hopkins' Homburg hat, famous for bearing Winston Churchill's initials, reminds us that Fedora, for a soft-brimmed felt hat, is distinctively American. Oddly enough, the word, now masculine, had a feminine origin. Fedoras came into fashion because of the popularity of Sardou's play, "Fédora" [1883 in New York], which is still alive in its operatic form. It seems that the actress who first played the heroine [Fanny Davenport] wore a felt hat of this shape. The early Fedoras had a high roll on the side brim.

CIGAR AND CIGARET.

The fat cigar an' the cigaret
Upon the boondless ocean met.
Noo, o' the pair we lang hae wist
The fat cigar was the realist,
A realist that ne'er was daunted
For he aye kenned just what he wanted.
The cigaret in his holder slim
Essayed tae be guid Uncle Bim—
Bim, wha is never at a loss
Wi' guid fat bucks tae come across.

The fat cigar said tae himsel,
"The truth I wadna scarcely tell,
But, mon, it's lucky I hae met
This altruistic cigaret;
He'll dig me frae the mucky mire

Marine Hospital from the Inside.

Yes, Mister Linemaster, stories come and go every day at the United States Marine hospital [Aug. 14]. Privately owned yachts, tankers, freighters, and passenger liners contribute their cracked bones and other disabilities for specialized treatment at this medical center. The Marine, in addition to free physical corrective care for seamen, has as patients service men in the United States navy, civil service employés, and WPA workers.

A few cracked bones gave me a stretch at the Marine. The memories of companionships remain with me. Ray, who carried his right arm in an airplane splint, the nerves shattered—and his only regret was that it delayed his marriage. Jack, who had lain on boards for four months with a broken back, and finally hid the planks so that he might appreciate the feel of a mattress. Sailor Boy from the Dust Bowl of Kansas, who cracked an ankle bone in a fall from a bunk at the Naval armory. Another Jack, whose knee buckled with every step, the result of an accident during the hurricane off the eastern coast, and longing for his wife, a nurse. Frank, who divided his time between the burlesque stage and the water, entertaining with his patter and steps.

If the innards permit, patients may go back for their second and third helpings of food. Self-service is the rule for those who can negotiate a tray; otherwise, room service. There is always a glass of milk or two before lights out at 9 p. m. If there is a broadcast of a good fight, however, the 9 o'clock curfew is forgotten. J. M. S.

"Where the Woodbine Twineth": Why?

This phrase was part of a flippant answer given by James Fisk, notorious speculator, at a congressional investigation of Black Friday [September, 1869]. It was in reference to the money he had lost in an attempt to corner the gold market.

Fisk was shot to death in 1872 by Edward Stokes, following a quarrel over the affections of the actress, Josie Mansfield.

That Fella Down in Streator.

WAITING FOR A CERTAIN LADY.

Regimented robins on my lawn,
Hollows filled with ghostly fog at dawn,
Poplars frayed and willows yellowing,
Out of the north a strange wind blowing;
This is the beginning of the end!

Brilliant zinnias still are gay,
But did you see, last night, the way
The ribboned clouds were flung up in the west?
This is the beginning of the end!

My frivolous Summer soon will leave, and then
Sweet Autumn! Sophisticate woman of charms,
I am secretly waiting with open arms!

Timosius.

Regarding the pronunciation of "gladiolus" [Aug. 12]:

A national gladiolus society has adopted "gladdyohius" for both singular and plural. This may overcome the difficulty most of us have with the plural form, such as "gladeolee," "gladeoli," "gladdyolas," or, as they say back where I come from, "gladolias." Billy Mickey Dick.

How to Keep Well

HELP MAKE SURGERY SAFE.

[Copyright: 1941: By The Chicago Tribune.]

THE news that a member of the family needs a surgical operation is rarely received with joy. On the contrary, anxiety may fill our thoughts. In the hands of experts, however, there is little cause for worry. Within the last half century advances in technical and diagnostic procedures have robbed the operating room of its terror. If we are certain that the surgeon is honest, well trained, and possessed of a reasonable amount of experience—all should be well.

Fortunately less than one-fourth of all cases which require the knife are of emergency character. This means that the low mortality can be reduced still further with better preparation for the ordeal.

The very announcement that something needs to be removed, repaired, or cared for, and that a trip to the hospital is necessary, may come as a shock. The one who is nervous or inclined to be apprehensive if not given time to become reconciled to the verdict, may enter upon the adventure severely handicapped.

There are some, however, who will want the job done at once. "Out of sight, out of mind," say they or, "Let's get it over with." But there may be some advantage in waiting until a period of "getting ready" can place the patient in the best possible physical condition.

In thyroid disease, for example, if the heart is racing and the victim is unduly jittery, a period of 2 or 3 weeks of preliminary treatment will insure safety. With such persons physicians prescribe a few drops of Lugol's solution 3 or 4 times daily, increasing the quantity by 2 drops per dose, each day, until tolerance has been reached. One difficulty with this plan is that while the drug relieves the acute symptoms it does not banish the disease. The demand for the removal of the offending gland is just as insistent as ever.

Some wise physicians will administer a light anesthetic in the patient's room a few days prior to the event. In fact, this may be done on several occasions, the chief actor remaining unaware of the particular time when the sleeping compound will be pushed to the stage of unconsciousness. Such a "game" takes away all fear and lessens the danger of the shock.

Too much cannot be said on behalf of those who are weak or emaciated, or whose blood has become impoverished. It is far better to give a transfusion before the operation than afterwards. If glucose is added, we have extra assurance of a happy outcome. We must make certain, however, that the blood is perfectly matched and that there is no danger of collapse or fever. Numerous plans to restore the circulation to normal may be adopted long before the necessity for new fluid arises. At any rate, we must avoid what is called a "reaction" as such an episode may lower resistance and increase peril.

When all the facts are weighed and given due consideration, if the sufferer is in good hands, surgical interference is about as safe as walking across a busy street. The physician who possesses all the skill in the world but who is lacking in a genuine regard for human life may be a menace. Like any other group of our citizens, members of the medical profession vary in competency. Furthermore, only those of character, who will never attempt that with which they are unfamiliar, should be trusted.

SENSITIVE SKIN.

G. M. S. writes: Is there any way to toughen the skin of the nose? I wear glasses and the area where the nosepiece rests becomes red and inflamed no matter how the frames are adjusted.

REPLY.

You can apply cold cream containing 1 per cent of tannic acid. Slight browning of the cuticle may appear after a time.

SIGHING AND HICCUPING.

Mrs. G. writes: My 3 year old girl is given to sighing. Is there anything I can do to stop this habit?

2. Is it a sign of good digestion if you hiccup right after eating?

REPLY.

1. Breathing exercises will help, as will plenty of outdoor play. For some reason, she is inhaling too little air.

2. Digestion probably is O. K., but etiquet is bad. Eat politely. This means slowly, with the lips closed during mastication. Avoid irritating condiments.

Writers should confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Give full names and addresses. No manuscripts can be returned. Space for letters is obviously limited. Incoming mail far exceeds it. If a letter is not printed, attribute it to lack of room. Address letters to Voice of the People, THE TRIBUNE.

AN AMERICAN DECLARATION.

Evanston, Ill., Aug. 19.—We wonder—since the German people are fighting and giving up their lives for Hitler; the Russians doing the same for Stalin, why should we of long American lineage permit communistic goofs and aliens in Washington to force our nation into a war to establish a Roosevelt dynasty and to preserve and strengthen the British empire?

We are all for helping the British materially and to the best of our ability—while diligently building our defense to meet any emergency. We will fight to the last man to defend our homes and our United States, but cannot conceive our sending out another AEF to fight and die in Europe and Asia. S. C. MILLER.

CHURCH CONTRIBUTIONS.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—As financial secretary of a Chicago Lutheran church I suggest an alternative for government taxation of church properties.

Have the income tax bureau require every person who deducts any amount for church support furnish receipts from his church showing that the contributions were received.

You would be surprised what people actually give and what they deduct on their income tax form. Either the church or the government should receive this money and stop this low down cheating.

HERBERT BOHN.

TO TRAIN FOR A NURSE.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—In reply to Mary Wood, R. N., class of 1919: The credits to enter the field of nursing are harder than you make it sound. You must have two years of science, algebra, geometry, and they prefer it, if you have had two years of a foreign language. A four year commercial course at any high school is of no value whatsoever. I think this should be made plainer as your suggestion is timely and a good one. I have a daughter entering hospital service this October. MRS. JOSEPH H. STEPHAN.

BATTLEFIELDS ARE AVAILABLE.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—From Prof. Warner's remarks and his attitude in today's Chicago University Round Table discussion, I feel that he would like to be or possibly feels that he is "a little Joe Stalin." It is unfortunate that Prof. Warner and all other war mongers of his status do not go to Europe to fight and die. WAR VETERAN.

TELLS "OUR FIRST DUTY."

Wadena, Minn., Aug. 17.—As to your front page editorial, "Who Pays for War," let me ask who pays for slavery, invasion, bombing, etc.? Our duty is loyalty to our administration whether Republican or Democratic. There is but one problem before us now. It is the destruction of Hitlerism. After that—who knows? J. L. E.

THE FIREFLY "SPARKING."

Evanston, Ill., Aug. 18.—I was interested in Mr. Becker's recent comments on the firefly in his Day by Day on the Farm. This roving light is produced by the male and is, in fact, a signaling to the female in the grass. In other words, he is out "sparking." If one will watch closely he will observe that the glow is always at the lowest point of his undulatory flight, and if there is no response, he again ascends. He continues this course until there is a friendly glow from the grass, when he drops to the ground.

It is interesting to know that upon rare occasions one may see synchronous flashing from thousands of flies. I had the good fortune of observing once a whole hillside flash from many thousands in perfect unison. I reported the experience to the entomological department at Washington and was informed that synchronous flashing was observed at times in India. The author of "An American Doctor's Odyssey" relates having seen it in a far eastern country. That thousands of these insects, unconscious of the mass, should so flash as to completely harmonize is too deep a mystery to attempt explanation. E. ROBB ZARING.

CHILDREN MUST PLAY.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—In answer to the lady who complains about noisy children in apartment buildings, may I ask just where such small children are to play? Shall we put them out into the street to be mowed down by automobiles, trucks, etc.? Young children cannot be trusted to wander alone for blocks to the nearest park or playground, and it is not always possible for the mother to accompany them. Let us remember that we were all children at one time, and that a certain amount of noise from healthy, happy youngsters will have to be put up with during the daytime. A MOTHER.

TRANQUIL HOME UPSET.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 18.—I wish this letter to be taken as a protest for disturbing the usual tranquility of my home. My wife has acquired a mania for reading THE TRIBUNE daily, and if I come home any evening without it I have to chase four miles downtown to get it before I get my supper.

What in heck kind of a hold have you got on our news-thirsting women? I am beginning to agree with her that our local dailies only give one side of our national problems. J. D. OLSON.

ELLIOTT'S IN LONDON NOW.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Hope our CHICAGO TRIBUNE can influence our President to include Jimmy and Elliott in that mission to Russia. S. B.

GANGSTERS HURTING LABOR.

Evanston, Ill., Aug. 17.—If even a little of the information given out thru the press concerning the close connection between certain official labor organizations and gangsterism of the most brutal character is true, then the future of labor is dark indeed. That these criminals should be continued in power thru vote of the individual members and persistently okeyed by labor chiefs is past understanding. We can proclaim democracy from every hilltop and in every valley but so long as certain labor unions are in the hands of crooks and their actions sanctioned by those in power, all our preaching is vain. Communism would be a welcome change.

E. Z.

THE BOYCOTT PROCESS.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Has it come to pass in this so-called "democracy" that because a newspaper does not agree with the administration the people of Chicago should be practically "forced" to boycott it? If so, then we can not truthfully call this a free country. I believe every man has a right to his own opinion, and no one, not even the President, can take that God-given right from him.

CHANGE OF TITLE.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—There are three boys in our family.

1. Our mother died 10 years ago and our father died four years ago.

2. They left a cottage but never left a will and we neglected to do anything except to keep up the taxes in my father's name.

3. Can we go about legally having the house recorded in our names?

4. How much would it cost? One of the boys signed a bill of sale for his third to the other two. E. D.

1. You do not tell us who originally owned it nor whether the title was in joint tenancy.

2. If seven years have elapsed since the death of the owner then you could probably persuade a purchaser to accept the title without probate, in reliance on affidavits. But probate would be necessary in order to produce a title which you could force a contract purchaser to accept.

3. Probate would be necessary in order to produce a readily salable title. The first step is to employ an attorney.

4. Depends largely on the attorney whom you employ.

WAR MEDDLING WILL BE ISSUE BEFORE LEGION

Springfield Convention Opens Tomorrow.

Approximately 1,100 delegates to the Illinois American Legion convention opening tomorrow in Springfield are prepared to go to the mat concerning the organization's stand on meddling in Europe's wars.

The big battle is expected to come in the meeting of the resolutions committee before the issue reaches the floor. This body, made up of 25 members—one from each legion district in the state, will be faced with the task of sorting out and combining the hundreds of resolutions presented by posts and individual members.

Down state districts, known to be predominantly non-interventionist, will be pitted against a war-mongering minority from Democratic controled posts in Cook county. Legionnaires said yesterday that pre-convention talk indicated there would be a flood of resolutions protesting against aid to Russia.

Expect Stand for Defense.

These were expected to be augmented by resolutions criticizing the war-like activities of President Roosevelt, and others demanding that the United States stay out of Europe and build an impregnable defense. These were expected to be toned down before they reach the convention floor.

"It is not the business of the Legion to petition the President to keep American boys at home when he continually promises that he will do this," said one Legion leader yesterday. "It is likely, however, that a resolution asking that he keep his promises will be voted upon."

Cook county champion of the non-interventionist view point on the resolutions' committee will be T. W. Merryman from the 7th district, chairman of the Cook county Americanism committee. It is known that he favors a resolution asking that congress be reinstated to a position of authority in the present crisis.

One Election Contest.

Chief contested issue besides the question of war or peace will be the election of senior vice commander. The candidates are Francis E. Phelan, retiring Cook county council commander; Joseph Bernhardt, past commander of the 9th district; Gordon Quinn, past commander of the 1st district, and Russell Root, past commander of the 3d district.

Phelan, strong non-interventionist, is said to have the inside track for the position, with Quinn, city hall employé and Democrat, giving some opposition.

Some speculation was aroused yesterday by the possibility of a contest for membership on the national executive council between William F. Waugh, present department commander, and John Stelle, former governor and one of the organizers of the Legion. This issue was believed to have been settled when the boys in the back room decided that Waugh should have the job and expressed belief that Stelle was content to have it so.

Since the decision, however, Stelle is said to have resigned several committee jobs. Some legionnaires suspected Stelle was irked by the Waugh deal and might make a fight of it on the convention floor.

Cation Is Unopposed.

According to present indications, N. Curtis Cation, Peoria banker, will not be opposed for the post of state commander. The convention will open tomorrow night with a meeting of the executive committee and registration in the Leland hotel.

Senator Wayland Brooks [R., Ill.], war hero and Legionnaire, will address the first session of the convention Saturday afternoon in the state armory. Finals of the drum corps contest will be conducted Saturday night along with the 40 and 8 parade.

Gov. Dwight Green will speak at the Sunday session in the armory, Senator Scott Lucas [D., Ill.] will be heard by the Legionnaires at the final session Monday. Resolutions adopted by the state department will be reported to the national convention Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18 in Milwaukee.

Reported Doing Fine

Triplets—two boys and a girl—born Tuesday in county hospital to Mrs. Lonnie Moore, 35 years old, colored, of 3820 South La Salle street, were reported doing fine yesterday. Mrs. Moore, who is a twin herself, has five other children. Her husband, Maddix, is unemployed. Hospital attendants said triplets arrive at the hospital about once a year.

12-OUNCE LOAF OF BREAD NOW COSTS 7 CENTS

Leading Chicago baking companies yesterday disclosed they had advanced the price of the 12 ounce loaf of white bread 1 cent. This loaf formerly cost the grocer 5 cents and the consumer 6 cents. The loaf now costs the retailer 6 cents and the housewife 7 cents.

The general rise came after announcement in THE TRIBUNE Aug. 9 that chain store organizations had advanced their prices on certain size loaves and officials of the baking companies said they expected to do likewise.

The increase was made necessary, bakers said, by increased costs of ingredients and labor, and mounting taxes.

CHARGES GRAFT, WASTE IN CITY GARBAGE COSTS

Graft and inefficiency account for a million dollars of Chicago's annual 5 to 6 million garbage disposal costs, a special city council committee headed by Ald. Paul Douglas [5th] was told yesterday by Emmet J. O'Keefe, 6823 Aberdeen street, a former city garbage handler. He said contractors haul less than half of the 3 million cubic yards of garbage they are paid to handle each year.

"Garbage trucks," he said, "are piled with branches to bulk up the load. Or loose paper is used to give the appearance of a full load. I have even seen bedsprings piled on top of boxes, then thinly covered with garbage, to create the same illusion."

Ald. Douglas said that the committee would submit recommendations to the council today concerning savings to be effected in costs. He said he favored paying disposal contractors by the ton rather than by the cubic yard.

BAR VOTES AGAIN ON JUDGES; THEIR AGE IS THE ISSUE

The Chicago Bar association, which three weeks ago announced results of a poll on whether 20 sitting Superior court judges whose terms expire in November should be renominated, began a new referendum among its members yesterday to determine whether results of the previous poll should be revised in view of the age of 11 of the judges.

The association stated that a judges' retirement system enacted by the legislature has become effective since ballots for its earlier poll were distributed, and that the board of managers and committee on candidates felt that a further vote should be taken with respect to older judges who can qualify for pensions under this law.

The law provides that judges who are 60 years old or more and who have at least 12 years' service on the bench may qualify for pensions beginning at $3,750 for that length of service and increasing to $7,500 annually for judges of 18 or more years' service.

Members of the bar are asked to answer yes or no on these questions pertaining to the 11 judges: Do you approve of his judicial record? Should he retire under the provisions of the judges' retirement system law? Should he be renominated?

The 11 judges are Francis B. Allegretti, 60 years old, a judge for 17 years; James F. Fardy, 61, 13 years' judicial service; E. I. Frankhauser, 80, 12 years' service; John F. Haas, 65, 20 years; Oscar Hebel, 73, 24 years; William J. Lindsay, 62, 18 years; John P. McGoorty, 75, 27 years; Michael L. McKinley, 69, 30 years; William H. McSurely, 76, 34 years; John M. O'Connor, 70, 28 years, and Charles A. Williams, 79, 29 years.

BEGINS 50TH YEAR OF SERVICE WITH CHICAGO TRIBUNE

George E. Nells, a Chicago Tribune proofreader, yesterday began his 50th year of service in the Tribune composing room. Nells, who is 67 years old, started work Aug. 20, 1892—the year before the World's Columbian exposition opened—as a copyholder.

George E. Nells.

Nells has seen many changes in newspaper production since the days of hand-set type. He read proof on the stories which told Chicago of the sinking of the Maine, of Admiral Dewey's victory at Manila, and of the first American victories in the World war.

"The night I remember most vividly was the night of the Iroquois theater fire, Dec. 30, 1903," he said. "That night we set up one of the most unusual front pages a newspaper ever printed. It consisted entirely of the names of dead and injured."

SOUTHARD TRIAL BY VFW COURT TO OPEN TODAY

Opposition to War Policy Is Basis of Charges.

Earl Southard, Illinois state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, goes on trial before a court of VFW officials today, charged with disloyalty to the United States and violation of his oath of office, because he voiced opposition to administration war moves.

Earl Southard.

The charges were brought by comrades of his own post as a result of Southard's activities as secretary of the Citizens Keep America Out of War committee. If Southard is found guilty by the jury of past commanders from ten states, the penalty will be dishonorable discharge from the organization.

Trial Starts at 9 A. M.

The court will convene at 9 a. m. in the Roosevelt room of the Morrison hotel. Alex M. Miller, former national judge advocate general and past Iowa state commander, will preside as president of the court.

Southard's prosecutors will be John L. Sullivan of Phoenix, Ariz., present judge advocate general, and W. J. Stevens of Sterling, Whiteside county, past Illinois judge advocate. Southard will be defended by Past Illinois Commander William J. Grace, who is chairman of the Citizens Keep America Out of War committee.

Other members of the court and the states of which they are past commanders are: Ralph R. Barry, Minnesota; W. P. Chenault, Tennessee; Frank W. Stegge, Kansas; J. M. Erman, Nebraska; Fred W. Emig, Missouri; Denver C. Henson, Arizona; O. G. Johnson, South Dakota; John H. Schum, Oregon; H. T. Gustafson, California, and Charles L. Hopkins, Indiana.

Cites Charges by Post.

National Commander Joseph C. Menendez of New Orleans, La., ordered Southard's suspension from office and trial last Saturday, citing the charges preferred against Southard by Progress Post No. 2255 on June 10.

The charges, signed by William S. Dolan, post commander, and William C. Randall, post adjutant, quote a handbill issued by the Citizens Keep America Out of War committee which advocated "no obedience" to the lend-lease law.

Southard said last night his defense would be "the right of any member or official of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to freedom of speech and opinion."

Fire Sweeps Thru Asphalt Firm Building; Loss $15,000

Fire swept thru the Keystone Asphalt company building at 17th and Center streets in Chicago Heights yesterday, causing damage estimated by T. C. Ford, general manager, at $15,000 to $20,000. Firemen from South Chicago Heights, Matteson, Homewood, Harvey, Steger, and Crete aided the Chicago Heights fire department.

PURSE STRINGS OPEN IN DRIVE FOR AUDITORIUM

Building to Become Center of Music Culture.

Contributions are pouring in to the Auditorium Music Foundation which is directing the drive to raise $400,000 thru public subscription to make possible the reopening of the cultural landmark this fall. This announcement was made yesterday by Robert Hall McCormick, president of the foundation, a nonprofit organization which will operate the Auditorium as a music center.

The Auditorium theater, hotel and office building were closed July 31 because of tax and other financial complications. The foundation was formed to save it in response to public appeal. The fund drive was launched last Saturday.

Want Every One to Help.

"This is an all out campaign," Mr. McCormick said. "We want men and women from all walks of life and in all income brackets to have a share in saving this renowned structure and making it the nucleus for musical pursuits in the United States.

"We are receiving contributions from many cities besides Chicago, showing that the interest in this historic building and what it stands for is indeed widespread."

Names of all donors, Mr. McCormick announced, will be placed on a tablet in the lobby of the Auditorium theater there to remain for the life of the structure.

Certificates, which will serve as mementoes, are being prepared for distribution among donors. These will bear the signatures of Mayor Kelly, honorary chairman and Mr. McCormick.

Certificates for All.

Gold certificates will go to founder members who contribute $1,000 or more; green certificates to charter life members, $500 to $1,000; blue to life members, $100 to $500; white to associate members, $25 to $100. Junior certificates will go to all other donors who will become patrons.

The advisory committee of 101 civic leaders is to be augmented by hundreds of others representing religious, fraternal, and various other organizations, Mr. McCormick said. These committee members will try to enlist the interest of associates, friends, and neighbors.

All wishing to volunteer their services have been invited to send their names or of the groups they represent to the Auditorium Music Foundation headquarters, 332 South Michigan avenue. Checks should be made payable to the Auditorium Music Foundation.

VISITOR THINKS OF EVERYTHING; THEN GETS LOST

When Mrs. Josephine Martin, 45 years old, of Trinidad, Colo., came to Chicago two days ago to visit a married son, Joseph, she wrote Joseph's address on a slip of paper in order to be sure she could find her way back home in the big city.

Last night Mrs. Martin and her daughter, Patricia Marie, 2, went for a stroll. After walking a few blocks, Mrs. Martin realized she was lost. Confidently she opened her purse and fumbled for the slip of paper. Then, panicky, she remembered she had left it on the dining room table.

She was directed to the North avenue police station, where she and Patricia Marie waited several hours, expecting Joseph to report them missing. Finally police, certain that Joseph will put in an appearance sooner or later, took the two to the women's quarters of the Racine avenue station to spend the night.

RETIRED FARMER STRUCK BY TRUCK DIES OF INJURIES

Charles Newberg, 80 years old, of Minneapolis, Minn., died yesterday in Jackson Park hospital of injuries suffered Tuesday when he was struck by a truck at South Chicago avenue and 79th street. Newberg, a retired farmer, was visiting his nephew, William Grund, at 6253 South Wolcott avenue. The driver was Harold Brackangast, 22, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mrs. Lulu Jamieson, 75, was killed near her home at 236 North Hickory street, Joliet, by a car driven by Frank Musich, 16, of 722 Nicholson street, Joliet.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday, 589 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these, 412 were killed in Chicago, where 15,656 were injured in the same period.

DELAY HEARING ON EXTRADITION OF BANK ROBBER

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 20 [Special].—Hearing on a habeas corpus petition to prevent the extradition of Magnus Olson, alias Big Jim Morton, to Illinois was adjourned today until Sept. 5.

Olson, former western bank robber, escaped from the reformatory at Pontiac, Ill., 37 years ago. He recently was scheduled for release from the federal reformatory at Milan, Mich., where he was sentenced after a postoffice robbery in South Bend, Ind., in 1937.

Assistant Attorney General Roland V. Remington said that if the subject had shown any desire to reform, leniency would be expected to be shown in the case of a warrant 37 years old, adding: "But this man has such a bad record."

Rapist Is Hunted After Attack on N. Side Girl

Rogers Park police last night were seeking a young man who raped a 19 year old north side girl in a prairie near Devon avenue and Richmond street. The girl, who was apparently unhurt, said the man had been drinking, and that she believed he had followed her out of a motion picture theater and on a street car to the intersection.

YI!
MAYBE YOU LIKE LEAVE WHITE HIDE HANGING ON BUSH WHILE YOU RUN VERY FAST—FOR A LITTLE WAY—
NIX! HA! HA! TAKE IT EASY! I WAS ONLY FOOLIN'—HONEST. NOW—WHAT DID HAPPEN TO THAT DEPUTY?
YOU LIKE LOOK FOR-UM? YOU LIKE ME HELP YOU FIND-UM?

Virginia Payne. [George Nelidov Photo.]

Virginia Payne, radio actress, will join the cast of "The Great Gunns" on W-G-N and Mutual at 9:30 this evening. Miss Payne, who is starred in Ma Perkins and was formerly on W-G-N in the Carters of Elm Street, will play the part of Ada, a former stage star who becomes the new Mrs. Pop Gunn. Pop Gunn is the father of Chris and Buster and the father-in-law of Veronica Gunn who plays the other leading part in this comedy serial about the adventures of America's No. 1 theatrical family. Bret Morrison plays Chris; Barbara Luddy, Veronica, and Bob Jellison, Buster. William A. Bacher is the producer.

RODEO TO APPEAR IN STADIUM FROM OCT. 17 TO NOV. 2

Cowboys will ride again in a competitive rodeo at the Chicago stadium Oct. 17 thru Nov. 2, Arthur M. Wirtz, executive vice president of the stadium, announced yesterday. Wirtz said that $18,000 in prizes will be offered in the contests, which will be sponsored by the Rodeo Association of America. Entries already have been received from stars of the Calgary Stempede, Cheyenne Frontier Days Celebration, Pendleton Round-up, Oregon Stampede and the Reno and Salinas championship rodeos. Wirtz said that the rodeo will be the first in the stadium since 1939.

DELAY EFFORT TO REMOVE PIN IN GIRL'S LUNG

Surgeons at St. Luke's hospital said last night that an operation to remove a pin lodged in the lung of Jean Knoy, 9 years old, would be delayed a few days. They said the child was not in a critical condition.

She was brought here from her home in Indianapolis, Ind., Tuesday night because surgeons there believed her only chance for a successful operation lay in the use of a $40,000 biplane fluoroscope, with which the pin can be accurately located.

The machine is not available in Indianapolis.

[ADVERTISMENT]

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

WCTU WILL HOLD 67TH CONVENTION IN GRAND RAPIDS

Officers of the National Woman's Temperance union yesterday announced the organization's 67th annual convention will be held Aug. 28 thru Sept. 3 in Grand Rapids, Mich. The convention will consider American foreign policy and problems of vice near military camps.

In its last convention in Chicago the WCTU approved hemispheric defense, but urged international peace thru arbitration.

Since January the organization has urged the abolition of prostitution and the sale of all alcoholic beverages in military camp areas.

Brooklyn Pier Fire Toll Is Increased to 12 Dead

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—A police launch took the bodies of seven persons, five of them Negroes, from the Brooklyn waterfront at the foot of Congress street today, raising to 12 the known dead in the fire Monday which destroyed a Brooklyn pier, the Cuba Mail Line freighter Panuco and numerous small craft.

CAROLINE SMITH FUNERAL TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Funeral services for Mrs. Caroline Smith, a Chicago resident since 1866 and mother of Clayton F. Smith, president of the county board, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the chapel at 2118 Lawrence avenue. She died Tuesday night at the age of 93 in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Benham, 6330 North Merrimac avenue. Mrs. Smith was born in St. Joseph, Mich., and came here with her family at the age of 18, settling on a small farm on what is now Rush street, north of Chicago avenue. Her family was routed by the fire in 1871. Her husband, George O. Smith, was a restaurant owner. She leaves a second son, George H. Smith, a former state representative and now superintendent of construction for the forest preserve district.

RETIRED POLICEMAN DIES.

Keokuk, Ia., Aug. 20 [Special].—John Tigue, a police officer here for 27 years, collapsed and died while walking on the street yesterday. He had suffered a heart attack earlier in the day and it is believed a second attack caused his death. He had retired 9 years ago. His wife and two children survive

REV. E. N. WARE, EX-CHAPLAIN OF HOSPITAL, DIES

The Rev. Edward Newell Ware, for 26 years chaplain of the Presbyterian hospital until his retirement three years ago, died in the hospital yesterday. His home was at 1430 Howard street. He was born July 2, 1860, at Richmond, Ky., and during the Civil war, two years later, was hidden in the fireplace for safety while a battle raged around the family home.

The Rev. Mr. Ware was educated at Illinois Wesleyan, Chicago Theological seminary, and at Princeton Theological seminary. He held pastorates in Wisconsin and Iowa before coming here as pastor of Endeavor Presbyterian church. During the World war he was chaplain of base hospital unit 13 at Limoges, France. He was a former secretary of the Church Federation of Chicago and director of the board of Presbyterian College of Christian Education.

He leaves his widow, Cora; two daughters, Mrs. Shelton Wright of Birmingham, Mich., and Mrs. Walter P. Wing of Evanston, and a son, Willis C. Ware. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the chapel at 1569 Maple avenue, Evanston.

SURFACE LINES, 'L' FACE FIGHT ON FARE BOOST

The city council local transportation committee today will submit a resolution to the council embodying its decision of a month ago to oppose the plans of the Chicago Surface Lines and Chicago Rapid Transit company to ask for an increase in fares. The resolution also will oppose hearings by the Illinois Commerce commission on the petitions of the lines for the increases.

"With the inadequate service they offer," said Ald. James R. Quinn [50th], chairman, "the lines aren't even entitled to a hearing."

The committee agreed to appoint a subcommittee to draft an agreement for leasing the subway to the elevated lines on a monthly basis if the traction ordinance is not accepted by the transportation companies. It also authorized Philip Harrington, subway commissioner, to proceed on plans for extension of the Lake and Congress street subways.

STUDY REDUCED COST PLAN FOR HOSPITAL CARE

Dr. C. Rufus Rorem, director of the hospital service plan commission of the American Hospital association, said last night that a "plan for hospital care" making available ward facilities may soon be offered Chicagoans. The present plan in Chicago offers semiprivate facilities.

By placing patients in wards instead of semiprivate rooms, Dr. Rorem said, the cost of the plan to each member will be cut to about $1 a month from the present $2 average.

Dr. Rorem said the plan now has 5,000 member groups and 300,000 individual members in Chicago. He spoke at the University of Chicago before the ninth Chicago institute for hospital administrators.

KAL ATTRIBUTES ATTACK TO 13TH WARD POLITICS

Charles P. Kal, 42 years old, an assistant corporation counsel who was slugged last Thursday near his home at 6721 South Maplewood avenue, yesterday attributed the attack to political enmities in the 13th ward.

Kal announced that he would ask for a "John Doe" warrant today against the slugger, whom he could identify only as being an attendant at Democratic ward meetings. He said a telephone call after the attack warned him he had better move out of the district.

Kal, author of a book on citizenship, said he was returning from a meeting in which he advised a class of aliens on citizenship when the slugging took place.

REPORT GLORIA VANDERBILT AND MOTHER MAKE UP

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—Indication that a reconciliation had been effected between Mrs. Gloria Vanderbilt and her mother, estranged by a bitter court fight six years ago, was contained in an announcement by Mrs. Vanderbilt today. She said:

"I am happy to state that my mother, Mrs. Harry Hays Morgan, is enjoying very good health."

The statement followed reports that both Mrs. Vanderbilt and her 16 year old daughter, Gloria, had flown here from California because Mrs. Morgan was ill here.

Friends felt that Mrs. Vanderbilt's statement indicated more interest in her mother than she has shown since the court battle over the custody of little Gloria in which Mrs. Morgan sided with Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney in the latter's successful suit to gain custody of Gloria, charging Mrs. Vanderbilt was not fit to rear the child.

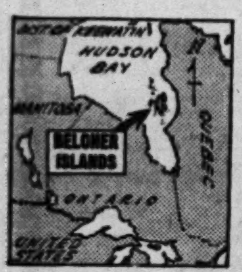
TENT COURT FINDS 2 ESKIMOS GUILTY IN SLAYINGS OF 9

2 Freed; Deaths Laid to Religious Row.

BELCHER ISLANDS, Hudson Bay, Canada, Aug. 20 (AP).—A white man's court sitting in a tent in this remote north country convicted two Eskimos of manslaughter charges today and acquitted two others in the murder trials of seven tribesmen for deaths of nine persons last spring during a religious dispute.



Map locates Belcher Islands.

Those convicted were Peter Sala and an Eskimo known as Ablaykok. The jury recommended mercy for Ablaykok, accused with Sala of slaying a fellow Eskimo.

Woman Is Acquitted.

Alec Apawkok and a woman, Akeenik, accused of clubbing to death Alec's sister, Sarah, 15 years old, were acquitted on grounds of temporary insanity. Witnesses said they believed Sarah's death had driven Satan from their camp.

All the testimony was heard thru interpreters by Justice C. P. Plaxton of the Ontario Superior court, who spent 13 days traveling here for the trials.

Tribesmen Claim Divinity.

Sala and Charles Ouerack, one of the three still to be tried, were represented as having made claims to divinity that led to murderous dissent among the normally peaceful Eskimos thru the long night of last winter.

Some of the nine victims were killed by gunshot, some by beatings, and others by being driven into a blizzard to freeze. Four were children.

Dry Weather in Alaska Prevents Salmon Spawning

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Aug. 20 (AP).—A fisheries agent said today that southeastern Alaska's longest dry spell in years had left streams so low that no salmon were escaping up streams to spawn. This threatens to destroy one life cycle of the fish.

FORMER STATE POLICEMAN GETS YEAR PROBATION

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20 [Special].—Leonard A. Meyer, former state policeman from Waukegan, today pleaded guilty in Sangamon County court to a violation of state employment laws. He was given a year's probation on condition he restore to Frank Toney of Springfield $25 which Meyer admits taking as consideration for an attempt to get Toney a job with a trucking concern in St. Louis, Mo. Meyer also agreed to pay court costs for a previous charge made in police magistrate's court.

Meyer was brought here Monday from his Waukegan home on a warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretense. Meyer, with tears in his eyes, told the state's attorney he would plead guilty if it would get him out of jail and give him a chance to work and pay his debts in Springfield. He served on the state police force for six years, and for a time drove the governor's car.

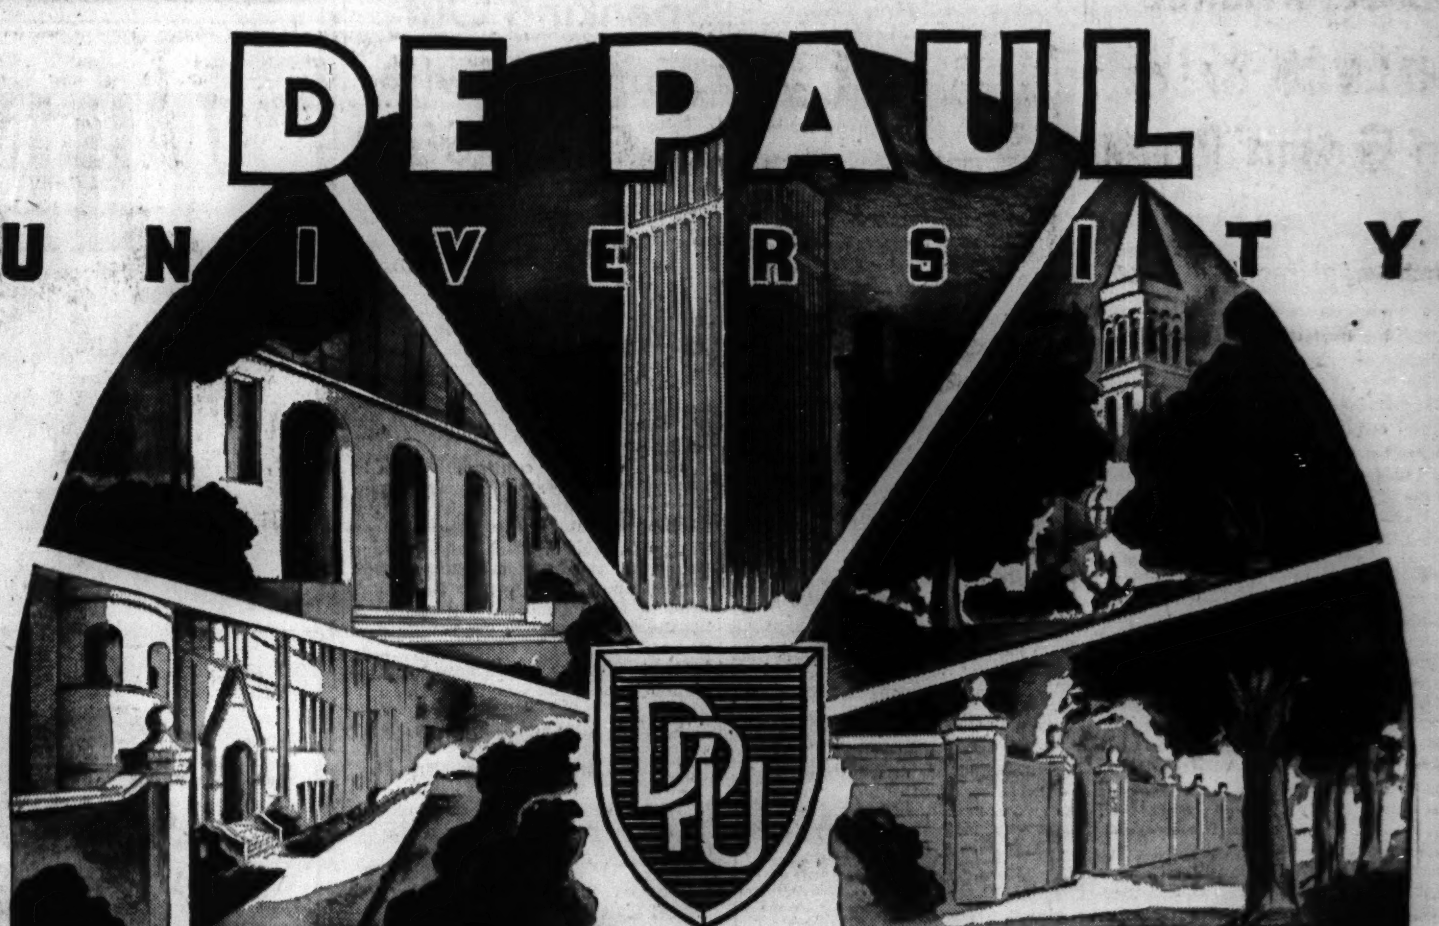
DE PAUL UNIVERSITY



Getting an Education Is Your Contribution To National Defense!

Do not make the mistake of postponing your education, waiting to see what's going to happen. Because every month you let your education wait . . . every year you let go by, is time lost forever.

You can best do your part for your country and yourself by continuing your education. More and more, experience has shown that for full achievement in government service or private endeavor, high school education is only a foundation. You should continue your education and build a super-structure that will qualify you for leadership where rewards are highest.

De Paul University can help you to obtain, without undue financial sacrifice, the rich background of a cultural education and the specialized training that will help you to the attainment you seek.

Great Crowd Hails Dr. Stock in Grant Park

BY EDWARD BARRY.

Frederick Stock last night made his only Grant park appearance of the summer as conductor of the Chicago Symphony orchestra. He presented his own concertmaster, John Weicher, as violin soloist.

The lure of two such notable musical personages and the pleasure of being outdoors on so mild and fragrant a night accounted for one of the big crowds of the season. Acres of people welcomed the conductor and the violinist. Their applause punctuated the entire evening.

The program held one of the pieces for which Stock is famous—the Schubert C Major Symphony. His performance of it had line, continuity and a wonderful songfulness. The second theme of the andante—one of Schubert's greatest inspirations—stole in with a melting loveliness and grace. Another big moment was the introduction of the theme in A major in the scherzo. It seemed magnificently broad and carefree and and almost lilting after the nervous music which preceded it.

Weicher is a calm, businesslike musician who habitually achieves effects calculated to make a hair tossing virtuoso of the old school turn green with envy. Examples of his power in this respect came frequently.

He had chosen the rarely performed Fifth Concerto of Vieuxtemps for his vehicle, and in his quiet, matter-of-fact way he did things to the second movement, especially, which you would have to hear in order to believe. The sharpest ear could detect no admixture of dross in his tone. Whole phrases were spun out with a purity and a genuinely ethereal quality that suggested that the music was forming in air rather than being wrung from an instrument.

Officers of High Rank Transferred by Salvation Army

Commissioner Ernest I. Pugmire, commander of the Salvation Army in Chicago and the middle west, yesterday announced transfers of several high ranking officers effective early in September.

Col. William H. Barrett, chief secretary of the midwest territory since 1939, has been promoted to the post of assistant national secretary in the United States. He will be stationed in New York. Col. A. E. Chesham, who has been field secretary here, will become chief secretary. Col. Chesham's present position will be filled by Lieut. Col. Bertram Rodda, who is now divisional commander of the Army's Indiana division.

Another important transfer is that of Lieut. Col. Edwin Clayton, principal of the William Booth Memorial Training college, 700 Brompton avenue, who is going to New York City to become principal of the Army training college there. Col. Clayton has been principal here since 1933.

Salvation Army majors who have been promoted to the rank of brigadier include T. Herbert Martin, John C. Marshall, and Margaret Ferguson.

Tea for Club Women.

Literature chairmen of Third district clubs in the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs will be guests of Mrs. R. H. Hodgman, district chairman, at a tea tomorrow at her home in Oak Forest.

WEDDINGS

Miss Estelle Proctor, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Proctor of Ingleside avenue, and George B. Steele, son of Mrs. George Steele of Rushville, Ill., will be married on Saturday in the First Presbyterian church, with a reception following in the Windermere East hotel. After an eastern wedding trip Mr. Steele and his bride will be at home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John William Hodowal of South Hermitage avenue announce the marriage on Aug. 16 of their niece, Lorayne Young of Chicago, to Stanley Roger Zwergel of Edgerton, Wis. The ceremony took place in the Sacred Heart cathedral in Dallas, Tex. After a wedding trip to California and Mexico Mr. and Mrs. Zwergel will be at home in Dallas. The bride, a fourth generation Chicagoan, attended the Art institute of Chicago. Mr. Zwergel was graduated from Lawrence college.

LOOKING AT HOLLYWOOD

By Ed Sullivan

Celebs of the Cinema.

Tyrone Power, engaged in a summer theater presentation of Molnar's "Liliom," at Westport, Conn., had to interrupt the engagement when he was called back to the coast to film a new ending for "A Yank in the RAF." . . . He flew 3,000 miles to the coast and then back again to Westport. . . . I liked his curtain speech the night he returned to the Westport stage: "I'm sorry if I inconvenienced any of you," he told the audience. "I had to fly 6,000 miles to find out how nice it was to get back to Westport." . . . The country audience was tremendously flattered at this gracious coinage.

Tyrone Power.

Annabella.

Annabella, Ty's blonde French wife, finally finds herself again in "Liliom." . . . The French actress, a fine star in Europe, was brought over to this country after she had been seen on American screens in "Wings of the Morning," opposite Henry Fonda. . . . Her first picture in Hollywood was the inferior "The Baroness and the Butler," which not only reduced her stature but almost ruined the career of William Powell. . . . In "Liliom," finally, Annabella gets a part that she plays to the hilt. . . . It should give her a new lease on professional life.

While I was in Hollywood in 1939 Director Howard Hawks made a picture called "Only Angels Have Wings," which was a rehash of other aviation thrillers, in the main, but had one nerve tingling "switch." . . . The dramatic highlight arrived when the plane, flying thru a mountain pass, was wrecked by a huge bird, a condor, which crashed thru the windshield. . . . Immediately your correspondent wired Eddie Rickenbacker to ask if such an accident could happen in commercial aviation. . . . Rick sent back an amused negative. . . . But this week there were two U. P. dispatches from Managua, Nicaragua, that change the picture: [1] A United States army DC-2 was forced down after crashing into a buzzard, and [2] Pilot Floyd Wright of the Taca Airways, flying a 14 passenger Lockheed, made a miracle landing after a buzzard attacked the plane in a savage dive that sent the bird crashing thru the metal nose of the plane. . . . In other words, Hawks knows his buzzards, and should not have been given the bird.

Spanking Out of Place with Child of 12

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.

"I get no respect from my son, altho I used to when he was younger. Also, he is not pleasant as he used to be. He does whatever he does do with an ill will. He is 13 now, and his father and I have continued to control him by punishment as we did when he was young. Perhaps that is the trouble. Can you give me any advice?"

When a mother continually gets in a jam with her small children over her requests and demands, it's unfortunate; but still it may not go very deep and there's lots of time ahead to correct her management and her children's response to her. But when a son or daughter gets to be 12, the matter is not so simple and should be regarded differently. This probably is truer where boys are concerned than girls.

It is no wonder that a boy of 12 cannot be governed thru sternness and actual punishment, whether that punishment takes the form of depriving him of privileges, or confining him to the house, giving him extra work to do, or actually whipping him.

Grudges and sullenness are the logical fruit of such treatment, rather than respect and good will. The fact that a parent is doing it for a "child's own good" makes no difference to him, because he cannot see the conscientious purpose behind it all. Why, even the criminologists and penologists admit that punishment is no deterrent of crime and that it teaches the criminal just nothing at all.

No, punishment is not the key to obtaining obedience from any child, but especially not from a 12 year old. That's that.

It is bad for serious friction to develop between a boy of this age and his parents. The reason is that, at 12, a boy is approaching his adolescence, a time not easy for him or his family, either, and a time when sympathy and understanding and a good working friendship are essential between a son and his mother and father. If punishment, followed by resentment and ill will, are the order of the day at 12, it doesn't augur well for the teen years. There must be a change, and a pretty quick right-about-face it must be, to clear the air for the more trying time ahead, a time which often is foreshadowed at around 12 or 13 when adolescence begins.

Fred Sargent II. and N. Y. Girl Are Betrothed

BY JUDITH CASS.

INTERESTING romantic news comes from Mr. and Mrs. William Comings White of Schenectady, N. Y., who are announcing today the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Jane, to Frederick Sargent II., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sargent of Chicago. Young Mr. Sargent is a grandson of the late Frederick Sargent, Chicago engineer, and of Mrs. Sargent.

Miss White, a graduate of Nott Terrace High school in Schenectady, attended Oberlin college, and was graduated from Simmons college last June. She was introduced to society in December, 1937. She and Mr. Sargent had met that summer in Germany where they were members of a group of American students on one of the experiments in international living.

Mr. Sargent prepared at Phillips Exeter academy for Massachusetts Institute of Technology, from which he will be graduated in February. He then plans to enter Harvard university for postgraduate work.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent made their home in Winnetka until a few years ago when Ralph Jr. and Frederick entered Exeter. Miss Jane Sargent, who entered the Girls' Latin school when the family moved to the city, was graduated there last June. She will attend Stuart school in Boston and study voice at the New England Conservatory of Music this year.

Mrs. Paul Blatchford Co-author of Child History.

The fact that it is Mrs. Paul Blatchford and not Mrs. Frank W. Blatchford who is co-author of that delightful children's history of Illinois, "Illinois Grows Up," brings to light a curious sequence of coincidences. Each Mrs. Blatchford is Frances L. Blatchford, Mrs. Frank being the former Frances Larned and Mrs. Paul the former Frances Lord, and each has a daughter, Mrs. Fowler. Dr. Frank Blatchford and the late Paul Blatchford were cousins, but Mrs. Frank Blatchford is not a member of the Colonial Dames of America, whereas Mrs. Paul Blatchford long has been active in the national society as well as a former president of the group in Illinois.

Mrs. Paul Blatchford, whose husband was the eldest son in the E. W. Blatchford family, makes her home in River Forest. Dr. Blatchford is a son of the late Nathaniel Hopkins Blatchford, and makes his home in Winnetka. Mrs. Paul Blatchford's daughter is Mrs. Earle B. Fowler. She and Dr. Fowler are on a holiday in Maine and the White mountains.

Mrs. Paul Blatchford and her son, John, and his wife and their young son, just have returned from a visit with another daughter, Mrs. Roswell T. Pettit, and Dr. Pettit, at their home in Ottawa, Ill. Mrs. Blatchford's other son, Charles, who is governor of the Illinois Society of Mayflower Descendants, as was his father before him, has just arrived at home from a holiday in Wisconsin with his wife and their daughter.

Mrs. Blatchford's co-author of "Illinois Grows Up" is Mrs. Howell B. Erminger Jr. Mrs. Francis R. Stanton illustrated the book.

Miss Beatrice Gaidzik to Be Wed in Alexandria, Va.

After trousseau shopping all the way from Guatemala, thru Mexico, New Orleans, Hollywood, and San Francisco to Chicago and New York, Mrs. George W. Gaidzik and her daughter, Beatrice, arrived in town this week to pack up and ship to Washington, D. C., the furniture

★ THRU THE LOOKING GLASS ★

[Charmante Photo.]

To counteract the midsummer sense of slump, try a change of perfume, switching from your airy summer favorites to something more exotic. A daytime perfume, in a woodsy scent with sophisticated undertones, will give your spirits the lift they need.

There ought to be midsummer as well as spring tonics. And since no one has come forth with an official suggestion, we nominate a change of fragrance as the best of all pickups in these dull days. If you can't have a change of scene, or a bangup new wardrobe, try a new perfume—an exciting one, quite unlike any you've ever used before.

Now that the weather is a little cooler your switch of scents can be from the airy to the more exotic. A perfect choice, not only for this season but for harmony with the kind of clothes we're wearing, is one of our special pets. On first sniff it's a woodsy fragrance, but on further acquaintance you discover that it's not so simple as all that. It's got character and distinction AND oomph.

As a matter of fact, we think it's one of the most provocative perfumes you can find. It's that first bland note of woodsiness that gets it off on one key; then as it rounds out to its full complexity it hits quite another. And that's what makes it so fascinating.

The scent is available in a straight perfume, highly concentrated. But—and this is special news for working women—it's also available in a daytime perfume form, more concentrated than cologne, but not so strong as the straight perfume. It scents the skin well, but not overpoweringly, and the fragrance lingers for as long as a day.

The daytime perfume form is our favorite right now. It gives you a lift in the way of heightened, more attractive sense of freshness — and that's what you want when you feel that midsummer slump.

4,300 Satiated in Food, Fun at Orphans' Picnic

BY RITA FITZPATRICK.

Three thousand grinning, chocolate spattered faces. One thousand venerable old men and women taking their ease beneath giant shade trees. A score of big business men turned into hard working refreshment venders. A dozen white faced clowns coaxing laughter from pinched little faces with twisted bodies. And tons and tons of ice cream, carloads of toys, and six hours of continuous entertainment.

That was the 37th annual outing sponsored by the Orphans' Automobile association for nearly 4,300 orphans, crippled children, and old people in the picnic grove at Riverview park yesterday.

Gathered from 28 institutions and scores of private homes thruout the Chicago area, this unique army of picnickers was driven to the grove in a stream of comfortable private cars donated for the event by members of Chicago Lions' clubs and hundreds of generous citizens.

Once there, they were settled in chairs under a bower of shade trees for six hours of entertaiment by topnotch radio, stage, and screen stars.

And for the children there was never such a feast. Four thousand five hundred box lunches, containing barbecued beef sandwiches, bananas, plums, pie, and fig bars were consumed along with 1,000 gallons of orangeade and 6,000 chocolate ice cream bars.

Five thousand boxes of Cracker Jack disappeared like magic and 4,200 boxes of candy were tucked under little arms before they left the grove. Three thousand seven hundred fifty individual packages of toys containing horns, balls, caps, balloons, and tooters were broken open.

Every one received as much as they could eat and drink and for those whose eyes were bigger than their little stomachs there was a first aid hospital under the direction of Dr. Peter H. Furno, chairman of the medical committee, where tummy-aches had a way of disappearing.

Thunderous applause greeted Uncle Harry and Aunt Agnes and their juvenile cast from W-G-N who gave an hour's performance. Enthusiasm did not let up thru the acts of Judy Talbott, radio singer; Kadet Kozak, zylophone player; the Bennett Singers, Dolly Arden, dancer; the St. Mary's Training School band, and scores more of professional entertainers.

All acts were donated to the association and typical of the spirit in which they were performed was that of Dolly Kay, night-club and stage singer, who sang encore after encore despite the fact that an hour before she had an operation for an impacted tooth.

Grinning and in their shirt sleeves, leaders of the association stood behind counters and dispensed refreshments and toys with the eagerness of venders doing a profitable business. They were headed by Charles J. Retterer, president; Edward L. Cleary, vice president and secretary; Nate Jacobs, treasurer.

Feathered Fall Hats Melange of High Colors

BY REA SEEGER.

Usually the Audubon societies frown on feathered hats. This year they've approved every feather except four to be used for headline adornment, and the results . . . the most unusual feather toppers for fall and inbetween make the current collection look like a paint card showing.

Fine goura feathers trim taupe colored and off-black hats, curls of ostrich feathers make entire hats or wave beguilingly in vertical plumes. Ordinary chicken feathers have been glorified with dye until they virtually are paradise affairs in delicacy and subtle colorings.

Coq feathers, still sensationally dramatic, are used for small hats and as for swirling trim on brimmed and larger models. Daring combines of color are featured, and some exciting new shades of beige, tobacco brown and several varying tones of gray are star attractions.

Ostrich feathers make one very distinctive small hat in dull green, a wide frond smoothed over the headline looking like hair parted in the middle down to the nape of the neck. The trim is directly in front and consists of four large triangular scoops.

Another beauty is of fine narrow curling feathers that wave unceasingly in any breeze and with every motion. It is of beautifully dyed feathers called sea water green, a most unusual green and blue effect, with a drift of chenille dotted veiling of the identical sea green shade.

There are dashing red and green feathered hats, iridescent browns, orange and lemon combines, all kinds of different tints of blue, and some ravishing blacks with shell pink contrast . . . some of the most flattering feathered creations ever fashioned.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Glatt of Oglesby avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Rosalie, to Arthur R. True Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. True of Amesbury, Mass. Miss Glatt, a graduate of the Faulkner School for Girls, is a student at Principia, to which she will return in the fall. Her fiancé also attended Principia.

Mrs. Crystal A. Reese of North Latrobe avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Phyllis Josephine, to Robert D. Moss of Cincinnati, O., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Moss of West End avenue. The wedding will take place on Sept. 13, and Mr. Moss and his bride will reside in Cincinnati. Miss Reese attended the Art Institute of Chicago, and Mr. Moss studied at Northwestern university.

Being True to One's Type Is Safest Route to Charm

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.

If you are a violet, don't try to be a rose. You'll give a pretty poor imitation and lose all your violet charm. Nor should an orchid struggle to be a dandelion. A woman should be as true to her own type as she can, if she wants to make the most of her personality and her looks.

Haven't you seen a stall, stately girl act kittenish? She succeeds in being pretty silly. She would be lovely if she made the most of her stateliness.

The chubby, round faced girl seems equally ridiculous when she strives to be exotic and dignified. Yet she would be delightful if she accented her wholesome, companionable qualities. She need not fluff out her hair until her face looks like a moon, but at least she could use a natural make-up and not indulge in violet eye shadow suitable to a more sophisticated type.

The tall girl only grows stoop shouldered in an attempt to appear small. The small girl can increase her inches by high heels. Yet she may be missing an opportunity in not featuring the appeal of her tininess.

The woman who takes pride in being herself will be much more successful than the woman who vainly struggles to be something she is not.

Flower Show at Zion.

The Illinois Dunesland Garden club will hold its fourth annual flower and vegetable show tomorrow and Saturday at Zion. A children's exhibit will be included in the show, which is sponsored also by the Zion chamber of commerce. Mrs. J. N. "A Debt Is Paid"

SYNOPSIS.

Kathleen Murray inherits an income and a home in an actors' colony in California and goes there to live. She and Hugo Lang, whose play is being produced in the local summer theater, fall in love but Hugo does not want to marry until his play is a success as he is unwilling to have Kathleen support him. Carol Keyes is backing the production and has the lead rôle, altho Jeanie Payson, who is given a minor rôle is more talented. Other members of the cast are Maurice Reed, whom Carol is in love with, Ellen Mount, Hugo's foster mother, who gave up a chance to play on Broadway to care for Hugo when he was young, and Toby Allen, Kathleen's 16 year old protégé. The theme of the drama is murder and tho the play promises to be a hit, Kathleen has an uncomfortable presentiment when Wilkie Stokes, another member of the colony, discusses the fascinations of killing. One evening Jeanie asks Hugo to take her for a drive. The next morning Jeanie is found murdered in the woods and Hugo traced to a mountain hideout. He refuses to talk and is tried and convicted of murder and is sentenced to life imprisonment. Carol and Maurice elope the day after the murder but return to the theater and the show goes on. Kathleen, still believing Hugo innocent hires Detective William Greer, to try to find evidence to free him. Greer finds a money box hidden under the floor of the mountain hideout and all finger prints turn out to be Jeanie's. Kathleen remembers odd remarks about murder Wilkie Stokes had made and is convinced he is the guilty one. She arranges to have him invite her to his home for dinner and tries out a word association game Greer has used in psychoanalyzing criminals. His answers seem to prove his guilt and he begins to act queerly. Finally he admits the killing and suggests a plan of murdering her and killing himself. She faints and when she comes to, his housekeeper is with them.

INSTALMENT XXXIV.

CONFESSION.

It was not necessary for Kathleen to insist on Mrs. More's company. Wilkie Stokes suggested his housekeeper should take care of Kathleen in the back of the car and see her safely into Susan's hands. Kathleen thanked them both as if nothing strange had happened in the library. Neither did she tell Susan of her ghastly experience. She called Bill Greer on the phone when the old servant had returned to bed.

"Toby's started for home, Miss Murray," he said to her, "sorry I kept him so late."

"It isn't that. Mr. Greer, do you suppose exchange could be listening? I mean ought I to speak? You see I've just discovered the murderer!"

"You've what?"

"Yes, I mean it. I've had an awful night and I nearly died of fright."

"Don't say any more." His voice was curt and crisp. "Be ready when Toby arrives with the car and ask him to bring you to me."

Kathleen refused to satisfy Toby's curiosity till they got back to Bill. Now that she was safely out of the predicament she had got herself into, her shock was forgotten in the starry hope of freedom for Hugo.

Bill Greer quickly dashed her high expectations.

"No matter what he said, Miss Murray, it wasn't him. I told you in the first place he wasn't the type. But I checked on his alibi for that night and found it flawless. I don't take any chances."

Reaction from hope and terror filled her with a deep depression, assisted by the florid pseudo-Spanish cheap hotel furnishings. She wrung her slim nervous hands together.

"But he admitted it."

"If he really did it, he'd be too smart to tell anybody. I've got him typed, from what Toby's told me. He's a queer duck—even a little touched, but neither homicidal nor crazy."

Kathleen described the experience she had endured that evening. For the first time Greer's placid face showed her a strong emotion. He could be swept by anger.

"Then he is crazy, and he ought to be locked up. But you're crazy, too. You'd no right in that man's house taking such terrible chances."

"Don't scold me. I'm so wildly disappointed."

"But what a nitwit thing to do, Miss Murray! Did you stop to think for a minute if you got a murderer by the tail what was the next thing to do with him?"

"No. I'm afraid I didn't."

Bill Greer put his head in his hands and rocked to and fro as if women were beyond all understanding.

"Why, a strong man wouldn't put himself in a jam like that without a gun to shoot his way out, if necessary. And you sitting there asking for it!"

"You don't have to tell me I'm a born fool. I know it now. I never did such a childish thing in my life. I've paid for it. And I'm apologizing. I'm sorry."

But Greer was still angry, whether with Stokes or with Kathleen was not apparent.

"One expert on this job is enough. If you're going to investigate in your own way, say so, and I'll get out. If you want me to do it, leave it in my hands and trust me. Otherwise it's too complicated."

"I'd rather trust you," said Kathleen humbly. "Please stay with us."

He relented and smiled the gentle smile which Kathleen had considered such damning proof that he was no good as a detective, but was now such welcome evidence of his restored approval.

"Very well," he said, "but you see my difficulty. You've stirred this loon to a point where some one ought to lodge a complaint against him, but I can't help you because the moment I come out in the open I'm no more use to you. Even the innocent don't confide in a detective."

"I understand, Mr. Greer. Do you think I'd better keep quiet and do nothing?"

"Keep quiet and keep out of jams. Take her home Toby and keep an eye on her."

Toby looked serious and responsible and this time Kathleen did not smile at him. He had been right and on the way home she pleased him by admitting it.

"It's Bill who thinks of everything," he disclaimed. "He's wonderful. Can you beat it—Mrs. Thornley's so taken with him she's invited him to stay in the house to see if he likes it. And while he's making up his mind if he likes it enough to buy it and live in it, they're going to look after him."

"So his gentle exterior can be a help in his profession!"

"It sure can. He says Mrs. Thornley's hair is almost white, but Miss Jessel's is chestnut brown altho her face is older. He says it has a metallic look as if she dyes it."

Nervous and exhausted, Kathleen broke down. She surprised herself and Toby equally with a sudden storm of tears. He stopped the car by the side of the road and patted her awkwardly.

"What's the matter, Kathy? Don't cry. Please don't cry."

Toby produced a big clean handkerchief. "Here, Kathleen! I told you that all along. It sure does."

Kathleen slept at last and woke late next day, the events of the previous night seeming very unreal as they flowed into her memory. Early in the afternoon a special messenger arrived with a package and a letter which altered their values while underlining their reality.

The letter read——

"Dear Miss Murray:

"Please accept this painting as a souvenir of the more charming part of our first evening together, and as a token that you also accept my sincere apology for my reprehensible—but I hope not unforgivable—behavior to you.

"Stung by your insult to me, I could not resist punishing you for it.

"I was not insulted by your suspicion of me as a murderer, altho I do not care to be suspected of such an unsubtle and commonplace performance. Rather I was insulted by your assumption of such a lack of erudition on my favorite subject that I would be ignorant of the rudiments of psychoanalysis. It roused the worst in me. I thought the least I could do would be to give you what you were hoping for and let you handle it as best you could.

"I would not have gone so far had not your courage and resourcefulness been a challenge. It was very wicked of me and I am really abject in my apologies. Now it is I who am suffering. Please let me know without delay where I now stand with you. What a fool I am. I had hoped last night would be the beginning of a charming friendship. May I still hope so?

"I admit I have as little hope of it as you have of catching a white unicorn, but this is a world in which anything is possible.

"Yours regretfully—
"Wilkie Stokes."

Having read the letter twice, Kathleen turned her attention to the painting. It was a white unicorn reaching to eat the fruit of a tree never before seen in any land. She said aloud—"this is indeed a world in which anything is possible."

Girl Doubts Faithfulness of Her Fiance

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.

How can a girl be sure the man she loves will be faithful to her after marriage?

Hilda, aged 21, has lived a very protected life. She is idealistic. It was a deep shock to her when her fiancé confessed affairs with other women before meeting her. She always believed that only wicked men had such experiences. Much as she loves him, she is troubled for fear his past might make him unfaithful to her in the future.

She cannot judge him by his past, but she can judge him and her chances for happiness by his present character, and her own.

Is he honest?

Is he responsible?

How mature is he?

Is he kind?

If she can answer these questions favorably she might check on herself to be sure she isn't the kind of woman who would drive a good husband to seek sympathy elsewhere. She might ask herself—

Am I charitable and generous?

Would I ever be a nagging, critical, fault-finding wife?

Am I willing to make him more important than myself?

Do I have a sense of humor?

If he is an honorable man and she makes him happy she won't have anything to fear.

If your family finds a weekly fish day monotonous, perhaps the reason is that they've been having too much of one or several kinds of fish, or maybe the fish has been served in the same way too frequently.

A casserole dish composed of canned salmon, tuna, or crabmeat may occasionally relieve the sameness of the broiled, baked, or fried fish dinner. These are some mixtures I hope you'll like.

Savory Salmon Pie.

[Serves Six.]

¼ cup butter
2 tablespoons minced onion
1 teaspoon salt
2½ cups milk and salmon liquid
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon paprika
1 cup diced cooked celery
1 cup cooked peas
1 pound can salmon

Melt butter and cook onion in it for 2 minutes. Stir in flour and add liquid gradually. Water in which peas and celery were cooked may be used as part of the liquid. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is smooth and has thickened. Add seasonings, vegetables, and salmon, broken into large pieces. Place in a casserole and top with small baking powder biscuits or buttered bread strips. Bake at 400 degrees about 20 to 30 minutes, or until biscuits or bread strips are browned.

QUICK TUNAFISH CASSEROLE.

Place a layer of flaked tuna in the bottom of a greased casserole, cover with a layer of sliced hard cooked egg, then with a layer of sliced stuffed olives. Pour a well seasoned medium white sauce over the combination, top with buttered crumbs, and bake at 375 degrees until hot and well browned.

Creole Crabmeat Rabbit.

[Serves Six.]

2 tablespoons butter
1 large onion, minced
½ green pepper, chopped
1 cup canned tomatoes
1 pound sharp American cheese, cut in pieces
½ teaspoon salt [more if needed]
¼ teaspoon pepper
Sprinkle of cayenne pepper
2 or 3 drops tabasco sauce
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
¾ cup flaked crabmeat
2 eggs

Melt butter into top part of double boiler, add onion and pepper, and cook covered over direct heat for 3 minutes. Add tomatoes and cook 5 minutes longer. Place over boiling water in the bottom part of the double boiler. Add cheese and seasonings, and heat gently until cheese melts, stirring occasionally. Add crabmeat. Beat eggs slightly with a fork, add half a cup of the cheese mixture, and beat well. Pour back into the rest of the rabbit, cook, and stir for 2 minutes longer. Serve at once on buttered toast.

Universal day—How is your judgment? Today is the day it pays to be just and fair.

September—Those who are in a 1 year this year [your personal chart will give you the year you are in] should be ready now to make that wonderful new start on a long trek of nine years. This month is the starting point and whatever you begin now should be important enough to be an essential part of your growth for many years. Don't let this month go by without at least making some change in the direction of your life towards a new goal or towards an improvement of the old one. Now is the time and more than any other of the groups you have your important moment this month. It is the 1 month in a 1 year. This is the moment when the starting gun will go off and you should be on your toes at the starting line, ready to leap forward when that "GO" is given.

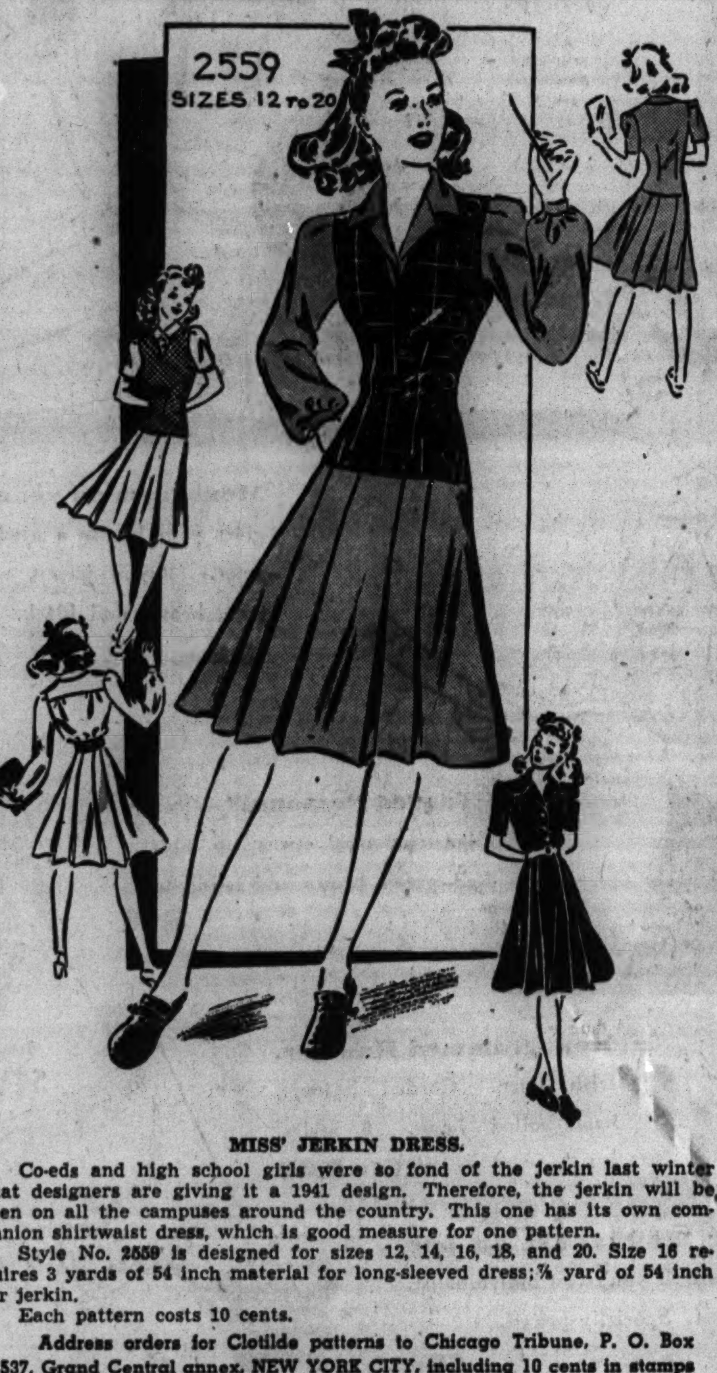
Shirtwaist with Jerkin



MISS' JERKIN DRESS.

Co-eds and high school girls were so fond of the jerkin last winter that designers are giving it a 1941 design. Therefore, the jerkin will be seen on all the campuses around the country. This one has its own companion shirtwaist dress, which is good measure for one pattern.

Style No. 2559 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, and 20. Size 16 requires 3 yards of 54 inch material for long-sleeved dress; ⅞ yard of 54 inch for jerkin.

Each pattern costs 10 cents.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central annex, NEW YORK CITY, including 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired, and write your name and address plainly. The summer pattern book costs 15 cents, 10 cents if ordered with a pattern.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1941: By Ely Culbertson.]

It always has been a source of amazement to me that players who have the experience and knowledge to initiate the correct line of play, lack the thoroness to follow the plan thru to its logical conclusion. The hand shown below is taken from a recent team-of-four match. The contracts reached at the two tables were identical, and the declarers' play started out the same, but an important variation led to a decided difference in outcome.

West, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
3 spades	Pass	4 spades	5 hearts
Pass	Pass	Double	Pass
Pass	Pass

At both tables West opened the king of spades, which declarer ruffed. At the second trick both declarers led a low club to dummy's jack, their obvious intention being to create an entry in the club queen, so that the heart finesse could be taken. East won with the club king and returned a spade, declarer ruffing again. Now another low club was led to the queen, and the heart finesse was successfully negotiated. At this point the two declarers parted company.

One of them, after the heart queen held, banged down the heart ace with an air of triumph which, unfortunately, was short lived. The club suit failed to break, and the defender's final total was two club tricks and the diamond ace.

The other declarer did not allow his enthusiasm to rob him of his foresight. When the heart queen held the trick on a lead from dummy, this more thoro player saw that there was no reason to suppose that clubs would break 3-3. The heart king was located and was, of course, now blank. If clubs broke 3-3, it would be perfectly safe to lay down the ace and verify that point. If they did not break 3-3, and East ruffed the third round, that simply meant that declarer could not have made the hand in any event. But there was a very likely distribution of the clubs that could be guarded against, namely, the distribution that actually existed. Thus, before drawing dummy's second trump along with East's king, this declarer cashed the club ace and, when West failed to follow, the fourth club was safely ruffed with dummy's remaining trump. It was a clear case of nothing to lose and everything to gain!

Mr. Culbertson will discuss this hand in tomorrow's column.

Grocers Show New Foods and New Packages

The housewife may expect to find mint tea, nonfattening spaghetti, packaged dried apples, and several dozen other innovations in the field of food products on the nation's grocery counters in the near future.

This was revealed last night as several thousand grocery retailers and chain store buyers attended a preview of more than 225 exhibits set up at the Hotel Sherman for the 14th annual convention of the National Food Distributors' association. The convention opens today and continues thru Saturday, with nearly 5,000 members expected to attend.

The mint tea, a mixture of mint and tea, will be distributed in small bags. The nonfattening spaghetti, which has had starch removed, is expected to appeal to those seeking to reduce their weight. The dehydrated apples, in convenient packages, are expected to catch the fancy of housewives for apple pies and apple sauce.

Another innovation is salted soy nuts, from the familiar soy beans. The nuts are said to have a high vitamin content. Potato meal, previously used in the institutional field for cooking, now is to be put up in convenient package form for the housewife. Dried California figs are to be offered on a nation-wide scale for the first time as a year-around item.

◆

A frosted food package of cellophane, which enables the housewife to see the frozen food she is about to buy, is shown. It has been used in a few eastern centers on a test basis, and now is to be introduced for nation-wide consumption.

Elimination of waste in merchandising and distribution will be a keynote of the convention, which attracts food distributors and manufacturers from all parts of the nation.

Deficiencies in nutrition, discovered under the selective service program, will play an important part in convention discussions. Another topic of interest will be frosted foods. Consumption in this field is expected to increase 40 per cent this year.

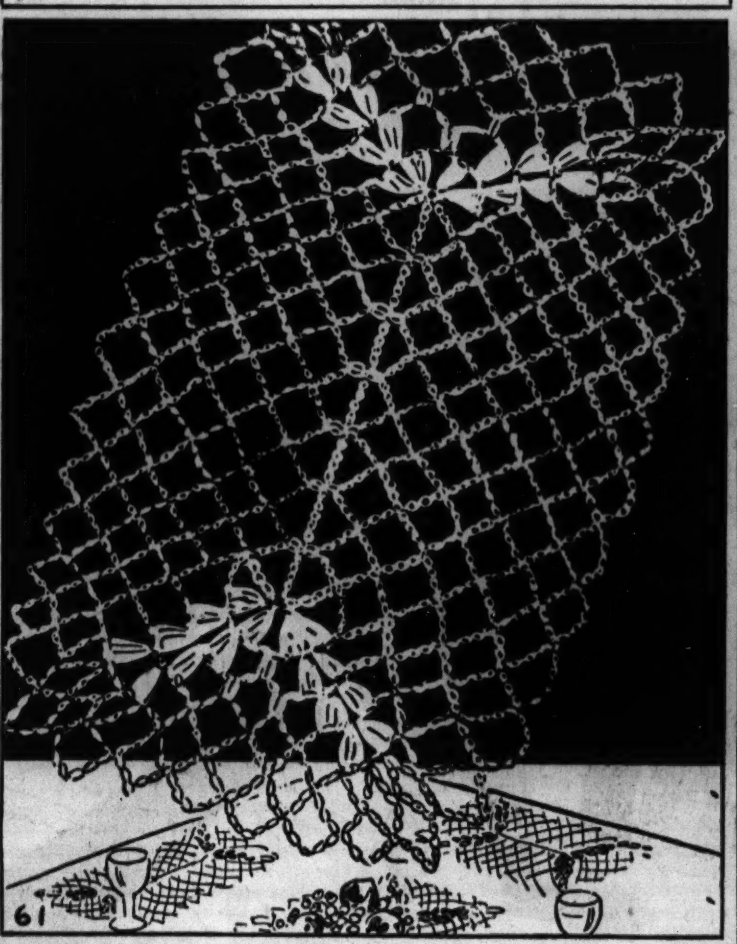
Mesh Luncheon Doily



BY ELLEN BRUCE.

Any colored dolly crocheted of string or carpet warp is a popular selection for informal luncheons. When such dollies are as easy to create as the mesh one illustrated, one may have a set or more for one's self and still make a set for a friend or member of the family. Two spools will make a set of eight dollies. When they are starched and stretched on a dolly stretcher, they are the quintessence of beauty on any table.

For instructions in crocheting the mesh luncheon dolly, No. 61, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth av., New York City.

This Is Sally's Party Day at White Sox Park

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

[Activities of the Sally Joy Brown department are sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.]

This will be a very exciting day for a number of children I know.

It's party day, and 50 boys and 50 girls will go to the baseball game with me this afternoon.

The place is Comiskey park and we're off to see what Jimmy Dykes and his White Sox can do to the Red Sox from Boston. All of the boys and girls who were listed in my column in last Sunday's Tribune have received personal invitations by mail, and I want you to bring them along with you when you start out from home. That's all you need—but don't forget it. You all know the time and place of meeting, and I hope we won't have any 10 o'clock scholars for whom we'll have to wait.

◆

Another group of winners, who will be invited to see Jack Benny in "Charley's Aunt" with me next week, will be chosen this morning. They have their good time next Thursday, one week from today, Aug. 28, so if you wrote in for an invitation to our next big party just hold everything until next Sunday's Tribune is delivered to you. The names of the lucky boys and girls will be printed in my column then.

ANTOINETTE DONNELLY REPLIES

If you have a beauty problem on which you need advice, write to Antoinette Donnelly in care of the Chicago Tribune, Tribune Tower, Chicago, Ill. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your question.

"Red Nose" Troubles.

Jimmy: A red nose may be the result of some disturbance of the digestion, or it may be attributed to poor circulation, or some trouble in the inside of the nose. If it is due to poor circulation, the cold shower habit, followed by a brisk rubdown, will quicken the circulation. If a disturbance of the digestion is the cause it can be corrected by correcting your diet. But if it is due to some trouble on the inside of the nose, consult your family physician for a reliable remedy.

which will fill Miss Galdzik's and Hart Perry's first apartment following their marriage on Aug. 30. The Galdziks departed for Washington yesterday. During their brief stay here they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Boyd in Highland Park, as Mrs. Galdzik has rented her home in that suburb.

The ceremony will take place at 8:30 o'clock in the evening in the Alexandria, Va., home of Harry H. Bentley, the architect, and his sister, Miss Berenice Bentley, the composer. Altho the ceremony first was planned for the Bond chapel at the University of Chicago and subsequently changed to Texas, Mexico, Berkeley, Cal., and finally Washington, in that order, the original bridal party is practically intact.

Couple Will Be at Home in Crystal Springs, Md.

If he is released in time from the Fort Sheridan hospital, Emmett Deadman will fly east to be Mr. Perry's best man. Otherwise Robert Merriam will attend the bridegroom. Mrs. Merriam will be Miss Galdzik's matron of honor, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Elizabeth Mueller of Milwaukee, Wis.; Miss Chloe Roth of Buffalo, N. Y.; and Miss Marjory Goodman of Shaker Heights, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry will be at home after Oct. 1 in Silver Springs, Md., in an apartment furnished in native Guatemala style. Mr. Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Perry of York, Neb., is with the Defense Housing Coordination unit in Washington, where his bride will continue her study of sculpture.

Mrs. David A. Crawford and her two sons, David Jr. and Edward, departed on Wednesday for the A Bar A ranch for a holiday.

Miss Patty Totman and her father, Arnold W. Totman, are on a two weeks' trip to California. They went west by way of Denver. In Pasadena Miss Totman will visit her Sarah Lawrence roommate, Miss Gayle Gibbs.

There are lots of Chicagoans in Del Monte, Cal., right now, among them Robert J. Dunham, whose traveling companion is his granddaughter, Joan Dunham. The Clarence B. Mitchells are there, and so are Clarence H. Ross, Charles D. Frewy, the John E. Carrolls, and the John P. Landreths.

Sunday, Sept. 7, is the date set for the Dunham Woods Riding club horse show, to be held in Wayne for the benefit of the Wayne fire department. Arthur Farwell is chairman, assisted by John L. Dole, treasurer; Charles R. Lindsay III., secretary, and Henry W. Meers, Edgerton Throckmorton, Stephen Harrington, Raymond O. Mitchell, and Jesse F. Burt.

DORIS BLAKE'S LETTER BOX

Have you a perplexing problem on which you need friendly counsel? Write to Doris Blake in care of the Chicago Tribune, Tribune Tower, Chicago, Ill. If you wish a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mother Is Right.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 16. I've been going with a fellow for nine months and love him. Mother thinks it best for me to break off with him because I am so young. What should I do? BLONDIE."

Mother is right. You're too young for serious love. Why don't you keep him for a friend but go with other boys, too?

Marry for Love Only.

"Dear Miss Blake: My parents think my coming marriage is to my advantage, but I don't love the man, altho I could be happy with him. Please advise. CHARLOTTE."

We'd advise you not to marry without love. After all, Charlotte, he would be YOUR husband.

Don't Embarrass Him.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am in love with a young man. Is it right for me to pay my own way when I go out with him? He hasn't a job. "TERRY."

Don't, whatever you do, make him feel discouraged by paying your own way. Best to keep up his self-respect by doing things together which involve no expenditure.

WILSON'S Weekly RECIPES

AUGUST OUR 25th ANNIVERSARY 1916-1941

This month, as Wilson, & Co. celebrates its 25th Anniversary, nutritionists are discussing the vital role meat plays in a nation's health. But homemakers know that there is just one way to get folks to eat the meat they need—make it so good to eat, it can't be resisted. Your job of feeding your family is easier today because in the past 25 years Wilson & Co. has improved one meat after another—making each one tastier, tenderer—in short, "the meat you love to eat."

DELICIOUS VITAMINS

Vitamins for health, yes! But one of Wilson & Co.'s contributions to better living for America has been to make vitamins delicious. Take Wilson & Co.'s MOR, that juicy, tender, tastier, cured pork shoulder meat—one can of MOR provides enough vitamin B_1 (Thiamin) for the average daily requirements of 2 to 3 people.

SAVE-A-WIFE DINNER

Since Wilson & Co.'s highest aim has been to bring you better food and simpler cooking, why not celebrate this, their 25th Anniversary, with one of the easiest dinners you ever prepared?

SPARKLING GELAFINISH GLAMORIZES COLD MEAT PLATTERS

After perfecting extra-delicious boneless cooked hams, Wilson & Co. developed "Gelafinish," a pure, transparent, edible gelatine coating which brings you these choice hams with all their rich flavor and juiciness sealed in. Ask your dealer for "Wilson's Certified Cooked Ham in Gelafinish," plain or caramel. You'll enjoy its unusual tastiness as well as the sparkle it adds to your cold meat platter.

Gelafinish is another Wilson & Co. accomplishment for which you and I can congratulate them on this, their Silver Anniversary. See you next week. G. R.

ALL-STARS PUT DEFENSE TO TEST IN NIGHT DRILL

3 Hour Workout Held at N. U.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

The All-Star football squad drilled nearly three hours under the lights last night in Dyche stadium in preparation for the game with the Chicago Bears, on Soldiers' field a week from tonight. While half the squad ran plays at one end of the field the others received instructions on defense against the Bears' famed T formation.

Abandon Plans for Review.

The All-Star coaches had intended to hold a regulation review of defense under game conditions, but when hundreds of spectators jammed the gates to the enclosed practice field, they abandoned that plan, permitting contact work toward the end of the practice period.

Snavely Introduces Players.

Last night's work was the second drill of the day for the collegians. In the morning, after a blackboard talk in the squad room in Dyche stadium, the boys worked on smoothing their passing attack. At 11 o'clock they left for the La Salle hotel where at noon they were the guests of the Chicago Interfraternity club at the annual luncheon which the club has held since inception of the All-Star game. More than 600 fraternity men greeted the 67 All-Stars and their coaches who were introduced individually.

Carl Snavely of Cornell, head coach of the All-Stars introduced the players. Elmer Layden, commissioner of professional football, was toastmaster and introduced the assistant coaches, Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern; Fritz Crisler, Michigan; Orin Hollingbery, Washington State; Homer Norton, Texas A. & M., and Arch Ward, sports editor of THE TRIBUNE. R. O. Kuehn was chairman of the banquet committee.

Coaches Meet on Rules.

The rival head coaches, Snavely and George Halas, of the Bears, and their assistants met yesterday afternoon to discuss the rules under which the game in Soldiers' field will be played. It was the third such meeting for Halas who helped formulate the original rules with the late Noble Kizer of Purdue, who directed the first All-Star squad. The meeting was held because of the difference in the intercollegiate and professional codes.

Despite other suggestions from Halas, it again was agreed that the basic rules for the All-Star game will come from the intercollegiate code. Chief exception is that the goal posts, as in the professional rules, will be located on the goal line. The college rule which restricts the forward passer's position to at least five yards behind the line of scrimmage was adopted.

Other points agreed upon included that no yardage penalty enforced in the field of play shall place the ball nearer than one-half the distance to the offending team's goal, as in the pro code. The new college rule which specifies that it is a touchback when the kicking team grounds the ball inside the receiving team's 10 yard line will be enforced. The ball then is put into play on the 20 yard line.

It Won't Be Long Now!

The supply of tickets for the All-Star football game between the College All-Americans and the Bears in Soldiers' field Aug. 28 is sinking rapidly toward the vanishing point. Those remaining are all reserved and all are priced at $1.10. You can get them at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street, and in Tribune Tower, but you'll have to hurry.

Stranahan to Meet Billows in Golf Final

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

Ray Billows of Dutchess, N. Y., the young man who has the best national amateur record of the last four years, and Frank Stranahan, a bemuscled youth from Toledo, O., who would excite the interest of any football coach in the country, today will play 36 holes at the Knollwood club for the Great Lakes amateur championship of the Chicago District Golf association.

Billows, who has been in the final of the big show twice and in last year's semi-finals, moved into the initial title match of the greatest amateur field ever to come to our town with two unique victories. Yesterday morning the former Racine, Wis., boy knocked out his greatest rival, Marvin [Bud] Ward of Spokane, Wash., by a 5 and 4 count. In the course of this debate, he was two under par for the 14 holes.

In the afternoon Billows ran into the surprise of the tournament, Art Sweet of Tam o' Shanter. This 45 year old veteran, who eliminated Medalist Jack Hoerner in Tuesday's second round, did not yield until the 15th green of his semi-final argument with Billows by a count of 4 and 3.

Beats Payseur, Wehrle.

Stranahan, the 19 year old whose dad was and still is a fine golfer, and who won the trans-Mississippi championship in June with a round of 64, gained the final with a 4 and 2 quarter-final decision over Ted Payseur, the Northwestern golf coach who joined with Sweet in making the tournament anything but exclusively junior, and an amazing 4 and 3 conquest over Wilford Wehrle of Tam O' Shanter, Billows' one-time high school pal. Husky Frank, whose other hobby is weight lifting, exploded a 32 in the face of the favored Wehrle off of a string of six consecutive holes in which he squared the

Whirlaway Sharp as Ever for His Test in American Derby

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Whirlaway, Calumet farm's brilliant 3 year old, will go into his American Derby engagement Saturday as sharp as he was in early May when he launched his drive toward the championship of his division.

"He doesn't need any serious workouts now," Jimmy Jones said yesterday. "He just races and travels."

Young Jones, who is in charge of the Calumet colt pending the arrival of his father, Ben, sent Whirlaway out on the Washington Park track yesterday morning for an easy gallop. As usual, the champion showed an eagerness to run, leaning into the bit under a snug hold by his regular exercise boy, Pinkey Brown. He showed that the trip from Saratoga hadn't bothered him a bit. Following the gallop Whirlaway was taken to the paddock to get acquainted with the surroundings, so that he'll feel fully at home on Saturday.

Kept In Toward Rail.

During the gallop Pinkey kept Whirlaway well in toward the rail around the rather sharp Washington Park turns. The champion's handlers find that the layout of the course varies in two ways from that of Arlington, where Whirlaway was beaten in the Classic stakes. They like one of these differences and they don't like the other.

The Washington Park stretch is much longer than that at Arlington and this will suit Whirlaway perfectly. On the other hand, the turns are considerably more abrupt, which may prompt the champion to revert to his habit of running out.

As recently as the Saranac at Saratoga this tendency almost led to disaster, for it took the camera to decide that Whirlaway had won after he had given away considerable ground by going far out on the swing into the stretch. Al Robertson, who rode him on that occasion and also in last Saturday's Travers, is scheduled to be aboard him again in the American Derby.

Many of the Calumet colt's followers think that it won't make much difference whether he runs out or not against the kind of opposition that he'll encounter Saturday. But there's always the possibility that a horse like R. W. McIlvain's Bushwhacker will come in and win if Whirlaway should make any mistake. As for the other possible starters, such as To a Tee, Daily Trouble, Kansas, and Delray, it would take more than a mistake to give them a victory over Whirlaway—it would take something close to a miracle.

Shot Put Munches One Out.

Six of Washington Park's route runners held a race among themselves yesterday while Shot Put, the national distance champion, munched hay in his barn just to let the youngsters have their chance in the $2,500 Lucien Lynn handicap. In the absence of the old master the novices did so well that Betty's Bob broke Shot Put's track record in winning this two and a quarter mile event.

Under an impost of 114 pounds he covered it in 3:54 1-5, which was a fifth of a second better than the mark which was originally set by Sidney Grant and which Shot Put equaled with 122 pounds aboard last year.

The winner, who is owned by Mrs. Inez Bryant of St. Louis, finished three and a half lengths ahead of Gen L. Bucking was third while Copper Tube, Regent, and Margo G. were getting home in that order of the field of six.

AROUSED CUBS TURN ON GIANTS, HUBBELL, 9 TO 4

Pile Up 16 Hits to Give Eaves 2d Victory.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Aug. 20.—Possibly because of the scare created by Manager Jim Wilson's blitzkrieg which eliminated Larry French and Augie Galan from the ranks, the Cubs skipped around in such lively fashion today that the usually tormenting Giants were lost in the shuffle. The Chicagoans chased the venerable Carl Hubbell out of the Polo Grounds with four runs in three innings and thereafter everything was easy for the recently imported Vallie Eaves. The 9 to 4 victory was the Cubs' seventh in 20 struggles with the New Yorkers.

Hubbell, ordinarily a bundle of left handed deception as far as the Cubs are concerned, gave up on his venture after being pounded for six hits. After Hubbell had gone various other fellows served as successors, but the Cubs kept on exploding hits, among them Stan Hack's sixth homer and Clyde McCullough's eighth. In all they piled up 16 safeties.

Eaves Performs Stylishly.

Eaves' performance, his second success against one defeat, was conducted so stylishly that for three innings the Giants' batswinging netted only one hit. Then they collected three in a bunch in the fourth, but this remained the total enemy yield until the eighth, when the gaunt Indian decided there was no danger involved in easing up a bit.

Hubbell wasn't exactly proud of what his pals did for him in the first inning. Hack opened with a clean single and Lou Stringer's pop-up fell between Mel Ott and Burgess Whitehead for a hit. Ott added to the confusion by making a wild throw-in, putting Hack on third and Stringer on second. Norm Young permitted Charley Gilbert's roller to seep thru his paws, two runs scoring on the blunder. The Cubs removed the taint from their previous scoring by getting one in the second on doubles by Bob Sturgeon and Stringer and another in the third on singles by Babe Dahlgren and Bill Nicholson.

Hack Wallops Sixth Homer.

Bob Carpenter had one out in the fourth before discovering the Cubs meant business. Hack banged his sixth homer against the right field coping. Next came a pass to Stringer and single by Gilbert. Hank Leiber fanned, but Dahlgren singled to score Stringer, and Gilbert drifted home on Whitehead's fumble of Nicholson's grounder. The Giants responded with two in their half on singles by Harry Danning, Joe Moore, and Bill Jurges.

Ace Adams was given his piece of the day's misery when Gilbert and Leiber singled in the sixth, the former scoring the eighth Chicago run on Dahlgren's fly.

After turning out three hitless innings Eaves walked Ott to open the eighth, and this was converted into a run on singles by Moore and Jurges. Then in the ninth McCullough hammered his homer into the left field seats, after which the Giants enjoyed a one run experience on a pinch single by Gabby Hartnett and a two bagger by Dick Bartell.

In the Wake of the News

BY ARCH WARD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DELAFIELD, Wis., Aug. 20.—A day on the campus at St. John's Military academy where the Chicago Bears are preparing for the game with the College All-Stars on Soldiers' field Aug. 28 is all the evidence you need that the All-Star series and the Bears have come a long way since 1934 when the enterprise was initiated. . . . The Bears that year had none of the training facilities they now enjoy. . . . They worked out on a field adjoining Lane High school. They didn't live together. . . . There was no team spirit such as pops out at you today. . . . Nobody knew what to expect in the way of a contest. . . . Many thought the Bears would overwhelm the collegians as easily as they did the Washington Redskins to win the 1940 championship of the National Football league. . . . THE TRIBUNE had no way to measure the fans' response. . . . We didn't know whether to prepare for a crowd of 20,000 or 80,000. . . . However, the promotion was tremendously successful both on the field and in the stands. . . . More than 80,000 saw the two teams battle to a scoreless tie in as hard fought competition as football ever has produced. . . . When the Bears come back to Soldiers' field a week from tomorrow night they'll find the stadium inadequate to accommodate the throng. . . . More than 8,000 temporary seats have been installed, but the additional capacity falls far short of meeting ticket demands. . . .

Gary Famiglietti, the Bears' 220 pound back, describes his biggest thrill in football thusly: "Playing 55 minutes against the New York Giants last year, and knocking hell out of them, too." . . . As you might suspect, his favorite food is ravioli. . . . Hunk Anderson, line coach, doesn't trust his stomach when game time nears. . . . He eats breakfast on the day of a contest, then stays away from food until the following morning. . . . He says that's a sure way to frustrate nervous indigestion. . . . Joe Stydahar is captain of police at the Weirton, W. Va., Steel company when he isn't busy with the Bears. . . . One of his rookie cops is Jack Torrance, late of the Bears. . . . Paddy Driscoll's capacity for food is one of the daily sensations in the Bears' camp. . . . The other day Luke Johnsos, end coach, striking a triumphant tone, exulted: "I have found something Driscoll can't eat—watermelon rind!" . . . The Bears' back field coach blushed and said modestly: "I must have a stomach like a goat." . . . George Halas spent more than $10,000 for his squad's 1941 football equipment, including uniforms and other paraphernalia. . . . It will cost $150 to put each Bear in war togs. . . . The new uniforms will be eye openers, too, but the professional champions are keeping the color scheme a secret until the All-Star game.

Jazbo's Journal.

A Chicago woman who recently celebrated her 102d birthday lays it all to the fact that she has worked long and hard all her life. If hard work is what prolongs life, a lot of us are dead now without knowing it.

And in case you think things couldn't be worse, just wait until the girls start imitating Veronica Lake's new hair undo.

One girl to another at 8th and Main: "If I'd ever o' known they was goin' to be gone for two years and a half, believe me I'd o' hooked Irwin before they went away."

War isn't the question that's splitting the country in half, according to Ernie Kretz. It's who's going to win the All-Star football game.

The Weakest Link.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link,
And no man better this his meanest deed,
Therefore, no matter what our friends may think,
If in our hearts we harbor hate or greed,
We never can appear in our own eyes
Real heroes worthy of the world's esteem;
But hypocrites parading in disguise—
Mere Pharisees who are not what we seem.

Unless we pluck out from our very soul
Whatever meannesses are hidden there,
And make love our ideal and our goal
How shall the friends who trust us be aware
They have not courted error and deceit
Only to find frustration and defeat?

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The Philadelphia Athletics didn't make a run during their three game series against the White Sox which ended yesterday with a 9 to 0, three hit shutout by Johnny Rigney, the comeback star who held the Indians to a 1 to 0 trimming last Saturday. The victory was the ninth straight for the Chicagoans and their 18th success in 21 decisions.

The A's, who supplanted the Sox in fourth place by beating them July 31, came to Chicago for Tuesday's double header with a record of 10 victories in 16 meetings with the Chicagoans. During the three games they not only were shut out, 4 to 0, by Thornton Lee, 1 to 0 by Johnny Humphries, and 9 to 0 by Rigney, but they got only two runners as far as third in the three games and only four others as far as second.

Moses in Explorer Rôle.

Wally Moses got to third in the first inning of the opener on a double and a sacrifice. Pete Suder and Hal Wagner, first up in the seventh, walked, and Suder became the second and last Philadelphian to reach third in the series when he moved there on a double play.

Rigney, in registering his 10th victory of the season, fanned eight. He yielded a single to Dick Siebert in the second inning, another to Wally Moses in the third, and the third to Benny McCoy in the eighth. Three hits aren't many, but the A's can get consolation from the fact that three were as many as the Indians made off Rigney Saturday.

C. Luman Harris, like Tuesday's victims, Lester McCrabb and Johnny Babich, went all the way for the loss. He was not as good as McCrabb and Babich. He yielded nine hits, walked six, and hit one batsman.

Tresh Walks Again.

The Sox went in for variety in their run production. For instance, they made one run in the first inning on a pass to Kuhel and singles by Hoag and Appling and produced four runs in the second inning on a total of one hit, Rigney's first single. Other factors in the cluster were the first of a string of passes given Tresh, a plunk in the back for Kolloway, a two base error by Johnson, and the first of Brancato's series of errors.

Kolloway, Kuhel, and Hoag knocked successive singles for one run at the start of the fourth inning and another went across as Hoag and Wright went down in a double play.

The Sox scored one run and had the bases full at the finish of the fifth inning. The run was fabricated on Tresh's third pass, Kolloway's second single and Rigney's second single, Harris' sixth pass, dealt to Wright, and a double by Solters in the eighth produced the final Chicago run.

DUCK HUNTERS ARE GIVEN 60 DAY SEASON BY ICKES

Forbids Use of Cattle or Horses as Blinds.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—A 60 day duck hunting season was proclaimed by Secretary of the Interior Ickes today, starting Oct. 1 in the northern states, Oct. 16 in intermediate states, and Nov. 2 in southern states.

In issuing 1941 regulations for hunting migratory game birds, Ickes left unchanged the 60 day season and the 10-a-day bag limit of last year, and retained the prohibition against use of bait or live decoys, but added a clause forbidding the taking of water fowl by using cattle, horses, or mules as blinds.

As in recent years, hunters must plug repeating and automatic shotguns to a limit of three shells, and must not use guns larger than 10-gauge. Shooting hours remain the same, sunrise to 4 p. m.

Cut Season on Mourning Doves.

A drastic reduction was ordered in the shooting season for mourning doves, because, Ickes said, the number of these birds was found to be decidedly unsatisfactory. Whereas the season in some areas ran as long as 77 days, this year's season was reduced to a maximum of 42 days. The Illinois season will last only 30 days. This limit is set by the state game code. The system of split seasons in many areas was eliminated.

Other major changes from last year included:

1. A closed season on Wilson snipe, commonly known as jacksnipe.
2. A 10-a-day limit on canvasback and ruddy ducks, formerly limited to three a day.
3. Transfer of Ohio to the northern zone and New Mexico to the southern.
4. Legalizing the shooting and possession of one wood duck per hunter in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Kentucky, Missouri, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas.
5. A closed season on snow geese in Idaho to extend additional protection to the rare trumpeter swan.
6. A three a day bag limit for geese in heavy concentration areas of certain counties in North Carolina, Illinois, and California.
7. An open season for Puerto Rico.

Set Limit on Geese.

The limit on geese and brant [except snow geese in Idaho, snow geese and brant in Atlantic coast states, and Ross' geese thru the country—which may not be hunted] was again set at three a day or six in possession.

The United States zones are made up as follows:

Success Came to Beckwith with a Punch

[This is the second of a series on Booker Beckwith, 1938 international and intercity Golden Gloves middleweight champion from Gary, Ind. He will seek his 17th straight victory in a 10 round bout against Red Burman in Chicago Stadium outdoor arena Wednesday.]

BY FRANK MASTRO.

Booker Beckwith, who had what is known in ring parlance as a powder puff punch when he started out as a lightweight in 1935, was taught the technique of hitting by Duke Calloway, former Negro flyweight, five years ago. Calloway, who became comanager with Harry Green of the Gary light heavyweight when the lad turned professional in 1939, spent hour on hour teaching his protégé the value of leverage and timing in the delivery of a blow.

As a result Beckwith has developed into one of the hardest punchers at his weight in the game today. He hits equally well, and with startling speed, with either hand. He also is a fine boxer. His record of 16 victories—10 knockouts and six decisions—in as many starts in the money ranks is mute testimony of how well Booker has mastered his lessons.

He's Son of Minister.

When Beckwith, who was born in Monroe, La., Dec. 23, 1919, first took up boxing he didn't believe he was any great shucks as a fighter, especially after being floored by Nate Bolden, welterweight, in the Savoy arena on the south side in 1936. Booker, whose father is a minister at the Friendship Baptist church in East Chicago, learned the trick of rolling away from punches thereafter, however, and has not suffered a knockdown since.

The young fellow, who starred in four sports while attending Roosevelt High school, Gary, three years ago, got his first big thrill when he won the Gary Post-Tribune's sectional Golden Gloves middleweight championship in 1937. The victory qualified him for a chance at a Chicagoland Golden Gloves title in the Tournament of Champions in Chicago Stadium.

Lost First Stadium Bout.

Beckwith didn't get past his first round bout in the Stadium competition, a lad from West Virginia named Harry Nichols eliminating him by a decision. This setback only caused the 6 foot Bible reading Indiana boxer to become more determined than ever to reach his goal—a Chicagoland Golden Gloves title. In 1938 the spindly legged youth again qualified for the Tournament of Champions.

MRS. NEWELL TO FACE MRS. MANN IN WESTERN GOLF

Misses Dudley, Williams Beaten at Exmoor.

The 41st annual Women's Western golf tournament moves into the quarter-finals at the Exmoor club today with all major contenders, excepting Eleanor Dudley and Ellamae Williams, still in the running and with the two sharpest shooters of the week thrown together for the third day's feature.

Mrs. Russell Mann of Omaha, Neb., the former Lucille Robinson, and Mrs. Frank Newell of Long Beach Cal., the former Elizabeth Hicks, draw top billing in the round of eight, scheduled for the afternoon.

Five under par for 42 holes in three days is the record of Mrs. Mann, 1933 champion and 1932 runnerup. She was 2 under for 13 holes in her 6 and 5 triumph yesterday over 17 year old Jeanne Cline of Bloomington, Ill. Mrs. Newell, Western medal play derby winner of 1939 and 1940, was one under for 13 holes while beating her fellow townswoman, Peggy Rutledge, 6 and 5. Miss Cline and Miss Rutledge won only one hole each.

Miss Miley Beats Ellamae.

In the same half of the draw Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., opposes Mrs. Lawrence Selz of Northmoor. Mrs. Selz went out in 39, two over par, to defeat Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., 4 and 2. Miss Miley, however, barely escaped elimination for the second straight day, requiring an extra hole to shake off the challenge of Ellamae Williams of Bryn Mawr.

Miss Williams, Illinois champion for the last three years, gaining strength after a recent illness, never trailed until she dropped two tee shots into the water at the short 13th, where Miss Miley took the lead. Miss Williams squared it at the 14th, dropped behind at the 16th, and then negotiated a partial stymie to win the 17th. They halved the 18th when Miss Miley was unable to do the same.

Miss Miley, who scored a 78, two over par, then won with a par five to Ellamae's six at the 505 yard nineteenth.

Mary Agnes Wall Wins.

Miss Dudley waged a valiant comeback before yielding, 1 down, after Miss Wall led 3 up with three holes to play. Eleanor was unable to execute a four foot jump shot over a stymie as the 18th was halved.

This afternoon Miss Wall opposes Rena Nelson of Exmoor. Rena won yesterday, 7 and 6, from Mrs. Fred Uihlein of Milwaukee, Wis.

Paired in the same half are Georgia Tainter of Fargo, N. D., and Mrs. J. Calvert Shorb of South Bend, Ind. Miss Tainter beat Mary Wilder of Skokie, 2 and 1, being only 3 over par for 17 holes. Mrs. Shorb won from Dot Kielty of Minneapolis, Minn., 5 and 3.

Foreman Gets 69 to Win in Traffic Club Golf

Harold Foreman shot a 33—36—69 to top a field of 223 yesterday in the final golf outing of the season held by the Junior Traffic club of Chicago at the Calumet Country club. Sandy Corwin was program chairman.

Nelson's His Teacher.

The more knowing critics in the galleries at Knollwood this week feel that while Frank hasn't the most elegant golf swing in the world, he will develop one with the teaching of his present home pro, a fellow named Byron Nelson, of whom you may have heard. Against the proven record of Billows, Stranahan will go out today with a competitive spirit that has helped him all the way around this week and a game that can be surprising.

Sweet gained the semi-finals with a 1 up decision over Mike Bencriscutto, a 19 year old Racine kid who bids fair to follow in the footsteps of Wehrle and Billows. Wehrle moved into the final foursome of the afternoon by eliminating the Mexican amateur champion of the last two years, John Barnum of Elmhurst.

QUARTER FINALS.

Ray Billows, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., beat Marvin Ward, Spokane, Wash., 5 and 4.

Chicago Yacht Moves Up to 2d in Star Boat Race

San Pedro, Cal., Aug. 20 (AP).—The 18th annual world championship Star boat series headed into a deadlock tonight as the defending Wench of Los Angeles scored a brilliant victory and earned a point tie with Myron Lehman's Scout III of Newport Beach, Cal. Scout took third today as Harry G. Nye Jr.'s Gale of Chicago slipped into second spot, 50 seconds behind the potent Wench.

FELLER MAY WIN EXEMPTION THRU FATHER'S ILLNESS

Cleveland, O., Aug. 20 (AP).—The disclosure that Pitcher Bob Feller has been spending about $7,500 a year to provide medical treatment and travel for his ailing father led to speculation tonight that the strike-out king might be deferred from army service.

Noting that the Philadelphia Athletics' Benny McCoy was deferred under a Presidential ruling that conscriptees should not be forced to use savings to support dependents, it was pointed out by a Cleveland newspaper that Feller has direct precedent for seeking deferment.

C. C. Slapnicka, Indian vice president, said: "If I have a correct interpretation of the McCoy ruling, then Bob Feller's status is more than a borderline case. However, before any action is taken, we will give it considerable more study."

YACHTSMEN OPEN SERIES TODAY FOR BARTHEL TROPHY

Three Crews to Compete in Six Races.

Three crews of yachtsmen will open competition today in a six race series for the Commodore Otto F. Barthel trophy in the Great Lakes Q and 8 meter class off Grant Park harbor. The sailing series is a three day event and will be held in Chicago for the first time.

A Lake Michigan crew headed by Edmund Jedrzykowski of the Jackson Park Yacht club defends the trophy for the fourth straight year. This crew, representing the Lake Michigan Yachting association, includes Carl Kallgren, Jackson Park, William Lepthien and George Tanger of the South Shore Yacht club, Buddy Bowers, Milwaukee Yacht club, and A. G. Peuquet, Chicago Yacht club.

Yachts to be used in the series include the Lively Lady, owned by Otto Dreher of Milwaukee, recent winner of the Mackinac race; Hornet, Dr. Hollis Potter's 50 foot sloop, and Scimitar, the Faurot-Wiman-Spencer syndicate's sloop.

Thomas Fisher of the Detroit Yacht club will be skipper of the Inter-Lake Yachting association's crew. Carl Meurer, Ernie Grates, and George E. Van, all of the Detroit Yacht club, and Ward Kemp of the Bayview Yacht club, make up the crew.

Cardinals Win 2 Games from Braves, 2-0, 3-2

Boston, Mass., Aug. 20 (AP).—The St. Louis Cardinals took a double header from the Braves today but added Terry Moore to their long hospital list when the center fielder was felled by a Boston pitch in the opening game.

Ernie White scored victory No. 15 in the opener when he shut out the Braves, 2 to 0, and Howard Pollet, just in from Houston, made his major league debut in the second with a four hit, 3 to 2 triumph.

One of Art Johnson's pitches hit Moore behind the left ear, causing a brain concussion. X-rays tomorrow will determine whether there is a fracture. He will be lost to the Cardinals for at least a week. Scores:

DODGERS, 7; PIRATES, 6.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 20 (AP).—The Dodgers scored a 7 to 6 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates on an error by Bob Elliott with the bases loaded in the ninth inning today.

In the last of the ninth, with one out, Billy Herman knocked an easy grounder to Frank Gustine, who booted the ball. Pete Reiser was walked and both runners moved up on a wild pitch. This forced an intentional pass for Dolph Camilli, to load the bases. Joe Medwick flied to short center and then Harry Lavagetto raised a swerving fly to right. Elliott flicked at his sun glasses, altho no sun was shining, ran in and caught the ball, then dropped it.

Cardinal Rookie Pitches No Hitter for Rochester

Jersey City, N. J., Aug. 20 (AP).—Max Surkont, 19 year old farmhand of the St. Louis Cardinals, pitched a no hit, no run seven inning game tonight to give the Rochester Red Wings a 1 to 0 victory over the Jersey City Giants in the International league.

Galan Follows French as Cub Boss Cleans Up

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Aug. 20.—Jim Wilson's sweeper, which went into action last midnight and brushed the veteran Lefty Larry French into the fold of the Brooklyn Dodgers at the waiver price, continued to clean up today. Outfielder Augie Galan was released outright to the Los Angeles club, the latter giving in return Pitcher Emil Kush of the Tulsa, Okla., Texas league team.

The Cubs will conduct their business tomorrow and for the two days following in Brooklyn. Jake Mooty will pitch the opener for the Chicagoans, probably drawing Whitlow Wyatt as an opponent.

Ed Smith Aims for No. 13 Today Against Red Sox

The third place Boston Red Sox are in Chicago for a three game series to be played today, tomorrow and Saturday. Eddie Smith will go after his 13th victory of the season this afternoon, and will be opposed by Heber Newsome, who defeated the White Sox five times before they got hot.

The last of the box seats for Sunday's Sox-Yanks double header were sold yesterday. However, 30,000 grandstand and bleacher seats will be placed on sale Sunday morning.

BEARS HAVE THAT PUNCH AND A DEFENSE, TOO!

BY EDWARD PRELL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Delafield, Wis., Aug. 20.—The best defense is a strong offense, a fact which the Chicago Bears proved conclusively last December by rolling up 73 points and blanking the Washington Redskins in professional football's world series game.

Much as their coaches would like it, the Bears haven't been allowed to forget this amazing score while going thru training chores for their third adventure in the College All-Star game on Soldiers' field a week from tomorrow night. Well wishers, including the citizenry of this area, steer conversation so that sooner or later the game is being replayed by the actual participants. Forgotten is the fact that the Bears rank at the top in defensive football, too.

Defense Can't Be Overlooked.

Those 73 magic points, perhaps, have given football fans a lopsided conception of the Bears. Joe DiMaggio won't hit in 56 consecutive games again and it's just as certain the Bears will not attain such box car figures again in a regulation game. So the matter of the champions' defense against the collegians cannot be overlooked.

The Bears have drilled entirely on offense to date, but in a day or two the players will be shown the defensive set up arranged for the collegians. The Bears are as painstaking and intricate in their defense as in their offense.

Three or four different defenses are about par in college football. The Bears used 14 separate defenses last year in one of their games against Green Bay.

Anderson, Driscoll in Charge.

The important man in the matter of keeping the other team from taking liberties with the Bears is Heartly [Hunk] Anderson, a hard-bitten coach whose contributions to defensive football are as revolutionary as the famous T formation man in motion offense of the champions. Anderson as line coach is the team's defensive genius.

Anderson and Paddy Driscoll, back field coach, were in charge today. Head Coach George Halas and End Coach Luke Johnsos were in Chicago participating in the rules meeting for the All-Star game. They will return tomorrow.

Bears Go Back to Work.

Morning drill was eliminated because of the Bears' game in Kenosha last night, which resulted in their 27 to 6 victory. At 2:30 o'clock, tho, the players, well rested, went to work. Mistakes made in the Kenosha game were pointed out and means taken to correct them.

Sid Luckman's left knee was swollen from being kicked and a few minor bruises were reported. The Bears, naturally, revealed no new plays in Kenosha.

HELDT GETS COACHING POST.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20 (AP).—Carl Heldt, former tackle at Purdue, has been appointed line coach at Washington university, it was announced today.

VANDER MEER AND RIDDLE SHUT OUT PHILLIES, 2-0, 3-0

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 30 (AP).—Johnny Vander Meer and Elmer Riddle turned in fine pitching performances today to lead the Cincinnati Reds to twin victories over the Phils. Vander Meer yielded three hits to win the first, 2 to 0, while Riddle, gaining his 14th triumph, scattered six hits for a 3 to 0 victory. Score:

Robt. Burns Coronas

10¢

"When I smoke, I want a cigar I know I'm smoking," says many a veteran patron of imported cigars. He means the pungent taste of Havana tobacco. To him our Robt. Burns Corona returns a hearty convincing answer. With its select All-Havana filler and shade-grown wrapper, it is made to his order—measured to his taste.

This extraordinary cigar was designed expressly for exacting gentlemen who relish full-bodied flavor. Better and better tobacco has been put into it to build up a richer mellow taste. Fashioned in the classical shape of luxury—looking like the patrician stock of clubs—it makes good its aristocratic presence in abundant flavor and fragrance.

There's no defeatism in a Robt. Burns Corona—and when we say it, we're looking right at you smokers of clear Havana cigars. Try one for deep-flavor smoking satisfaction.

CHARGE ILLEGAL PROFIT SCHEME IN HOME PROJECT

Chatham Park Accounting Asked by Stockholder.

A stockholder's suit filed in Superior court yesterday charged that Henry Crown, chairman of the board of Material Service corporation, two other individuals and two companies conspired to profit illegally from construction of the 2½ million dollar Chatham Park housing project at 83d street and Cottage Grove avenue.

The suit sought temporary and permanent injunctions to restrain directors of the development from issuing 1,780 shares of stock in Chatham Park, Inc., to the Regan Contracting corporation. The shares were to be issued as payment for additional costs incurred during construction of the 500 family project. Superior court Judge Peter A. Schwaba granted the temporary injunction.

Provides for Extra Costs.

According to the suit, the Regan corporation contracted to build the project for $2,411,298, plus 1,260 shares of preferred stock in the corporation. Increased costs were to be paid by issuing up to 1,780 shares. When the project was completed, the suit relates, a demand was made for the full number of shares and was refused.

The suit states that the construction company sublet part of the contract to the Robert G. Regan company. The companies were alleged to have the same officers and directors. The construction company is said to have borrowed $158,000 from the Robert G. Regan company, which in turn borrowed the funds from Material Service corporation, giving notes secured by the interest of the construction company in the 1,780 shares of stock.

Elected Chatham Directors.

Crown, acting for Material Service, took over the interest in the stock, the suit alleges. He recently was elected a director of Chatham Park, Inc., along with Regan, George H. Dovenmuehle, Preston Boyden and Gael Sullivan, state director of the Federal Housing administration. The suit alleges that Regan, Boyden [an attorney and said to be a director of the Regan company] and Crown met Monday as directors of Chatham Park and voted the issuance of the full number of shares.

The suit was filed by the law firm of Gallagher, Rinaker, Wilkinson & Hall on behalf of Emilio Jannotta, 2718 Lunt avenue, a Chatham Park stockholder. It states that Jannotta made a demand on the Regan corporation for an accounting to justify the alleged increased costs, which was refused. An accounting is demanded in the suit.

OUTPUT OF ELECTRIC POWER EXCEEDS YEAR AGO BY 16 PER CENT

Output of electric energy in the United States for the week ended Aug. 16 was 3,200,818,000 kilowatt hours, an increase of 16 per cent over the 2,745,697,000 kilowatt hours in the corresponding 1940 week, the Edison Electric institute reported yesterday. Output in the week ended Aug. 9 was 3,196,009,000 kilowatt hours.

The Commonwealth Edison group of companies in the Chicago area reported an output of 146,428,000 kilowatt hours in the week ended Aug. 16, an increase of 7.7 per cent over the 135,965,000 kilowatt hours in the corresponding 1940 week.

Day by Day on the Farm by BOB BECKER

Two Unusual Farm Jobs.

AUGUST 20, 1941.

THE men on the Du Page county farm had two rather unusual jobs on their schedule this week. One was along the line of a hunt and the other was a sort of roundup. The latter job [and the most important] called for a checkup of all the farm machinery to make sure that the implements which will not be used again this season are put in the barns instead of being left in the fields to rust. The hunt was of a more frivolous nature—the quarry being a pet skunk—named Violet.

As one of the men on the farm pointed out this week, some farmers are traditionally careless about protecting their machinery from the elements. Weather beaten tractors, binders, combines, plows, and other pieces of equipment naturally wear out faster than equipment which is well cared for under barn roofs, so the men on the Du Page county farm are taking steps to get under cover all the cultivating and harvesting machinery which will not be used again this season. During the winter months these implements will be checked for repairs so that when needed next season they will be ready for use.

Less Serious Problem.

Violet, the skunk, presented a less serious problem than the rounding up of the machinery. In fact—her escape from a pen has given all the farm residents a new and breezy topic of conversation and many laughs. But they would like to catch up with Violet so that she won't prowl into trouble in the poultry yard. Then, too, she is an amusing pet—another reason why the residents want her under control.

Violet was introduced to the farm as a pet and put in commodious quarters. But evidently she had her own ideas about how and where she wanted to live. She gnawed a hole in a small board which served as the door of her pen and when the farm residents went to feed her the next morning they found her AWOL.

The men have left a live trap near Violet's former home, and if she gets hungry in the woods and decides to come home she'll find a good meal waiting for her.

The flockmaster is confident that he has several crossbred mallard and Muscovy ducks in the barnyard. The farm has kept both kinds of ducks for many years, but this is the first season that they have interbred.

Most Muscovys White.

Most purebred Muscovys now are all white, but early in their development they had some black coloration. By selective breeding over many years the black has been eliminated and now virtually all Muscovys are pure white. Almost every season, however, a few ducklings show signs of reversion to early types and sport a few black spots on their heads or wings. This season there are several ducklings which have definite signs of a mallard cross, having pink bills, white necks and breasts, and mallard coloration on the back and wings.

Similarly some of the mallard hens have ducklings with dark bills and white necks and breasts, and the flockmaster is positive that they are first generation crosses of half Muscovy blood. In two individual families hatched by mallard hens the ducklings are mostly pure mallards with one to three Muscovy-mallard mixtures.

ALUMINUM FIRM REPORTS DROP IN PROFIT FOR YEAR

H. J. Taylor.

How the prior claims of the armament program on aluminum supplies have restricted severely the operations of aluminum utensil makers was illustrated yesterday in the annual report of the Club Aluminum Utensil company. A large soap maker, however, Colgate-Palmolive-Peet company, reported its profits running twice as large as last year.

H. J. Taylor, president of Club Aluminum, announced from the company's Chicago headquarters that efforts are being made to develop new merchandise lines to replace the aluminum utensils no longer obtainable.

"You are all aware of the importance of aluminum to the national defense program," he wrote stockholders. "Naturally this has seriously affected the normal operations of the distributor company as well as all other aluminum cooking utensil companies.

Says Patience Is Required.

"The Club Aluminum Products company [the distributing affiliate] is at the present time doing research work with other lines of merchandise and this, of course, takes time, money, and patience."

Taylor said profits of the distributing company will decline sharply but hoped that new merchandise items might permit it to maintain profitable operations in 1942.

The parent company's net income in the fiscal year ended June 30 dipped to $116,950, equal to 43 cents a share, against $124,068 or 45 cents a share in the preceding fiscal year. The company's revenues are derived from royalties on the sale of utensils and dividends on its 49 per cent stock interest in Club Aluminum Products company.

Plan Slash in Capital.

At the annual meeting of the parent company which will be held Sept. 4, stockholders will vote on the management's proposal to reduce the stated value of the common stock from $1 a share to 25 cents a share. The surplus of $203,430 thus created would be applied to write off a deficit of $123,791 in the earned surplus account.

Colgate-Palmolive-Peet company realized twice as much profit in the first half this year, despite heavy tax provisions. Net income was $2,635,051, equal to $1.21 a common share, against $1,278,230 or 45 cents a share in the first half of 1940. The company set aside $3,200,000 in the 1941 period for taxes and $500,000 for possible inventory losses. The tax provision in the 1940 period was $994,000.

Chemical Firm Earns More.

American Agricultural Chemical company, producer of fertilizer and other chemicals, realized net income of $1,121,873, equal to $1.79 a common share, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1941. This compared with $908,608 or $1.45 a common share in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1940.

Increased demand for cotton goods, as the result of improved consumer income and army and navy requisitioning, more than doubled the earnings of the Pepperell Manufacturing company, Boston. In the fiscal year ended June 30, net income was $2,360,543, against $1,121,505 in the preceding fiscal year.

A substantial profit gain was reported by Raybestos-Manhattan, Inc., maker of brake-linings, clutch facings and related asbestos and rubber products. For the first half this year, net profit rose to $1,142,973, equal to $1.82 a share, from $919,159 or $1.46 a share in the first half of 1940. The company's offices are in Stratford, Conn.

PUBLISHERS TELL RISING U. S. CURBS ON ADVERTISING

Voice Concern at Growth of Federal Control.

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—The American Newspaper Publishers' association asserted today that the last 10 years has shown "increasing evidence of antagonism to advertising with a desire by various agencies and officials of government to control, or regulate, or prohibit advertising."

In a membership bulletin the association listed a dozen examples of so-called government concern with advertising.

"Attacks on the accuracy and truth of advertising; taxes on advertising; attacks on the ground that advertising is an economic waste; elimination of advertising by groups which are under the control of some agencies; efforts to eliminate harmless 'puffery' in advertising language; the building up of consumer distrust of advertising, and legislation to prohibit certain forms of advertising or advertising by certain groups and professions."

Principal government agencies and individuals who consistently attack some aspects of advertising, the bulletin added, are the department of agriculture, Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold, the Federal Alcohol administration, and, to a limited degree, certain elements in the Federal Trade commission.

GRAINS ADVANCE ON F. D. R. PRICE POLICY REPORT

Expected to Hold Surplus Stocks Off Market.

Reports that while President Roosevelt would veto the bill freezing government owned stocks of wheat and cotton, he would announce a policy of holding them off the market unless prices exceed 110 per cent of parity brought in general buying of grain, soy bean and lard futures yesterday. The 110 per cent level is the minimum ceiling proposed for agricultural products in the pending price control bill.

Wheat prices soared about 2 cents and soy beans 3 cents at one time with the May delivery of the latter selling at a new seasonal high before profit-taking caused a moderate reaction.

Closing sales on wheat were 1¼ to 1⅝ cents higher, with September at $1.13¼, and soy beans were up 2⅝ to 2⅞ cents, with October at $1.48⅝ a bushel. Oats finished 1 to 1½ cents higher and corn gained ⅝ to ⅞ cent. Lard advanced 22½ to 27½ cents per hundred pounds.

The upturn in the markets was helped along by announcement that a government loan would be made on flaxseed at equal to $1.85 a bushel at major terminal markets. As a result of this action oats is the only major grain that is not being supported in some form or other by the government, brokers pointed out. Linseed oil, made from flaxseed, and soy bean oil are competitive in many industries.

The following is a brief outline of certain information contained in the offering prospectus and is subject to the more detailed statements in such prospectus and in the registration statement, which also include important information not outlined or indicated herein. The offering prospectus, which must be furnished to each purchaser, should be read prior to any purchase of these securities.

THE COMPANY: Standard Oil Company of California was organized on January 27, 1926, under the laws of Delaware. The Company is primarily an operating company engaged in the acquisition and development of prospective and proven oil and gas lands; the production, purchase, transportation and sale of crude oil and natural gasoline; the refining of crude oil; the production, purchase, processing and sale at wholesale of natural gas; and the manufacture, transportation and wholesale and retail marketing of petroleum products. The Company also holds securities of subsidiary and other companies, most of which are engaged principally in one or more phases of the petroleum industry, or in businesses related thereto, in the United States and in foreign countries. The principal properties of the Company and its subsidiaries include proven and unproven oil and gas properties, natural gasoline plants, transportation facilities (including pipe lines and tankships), marine terminals, refineries, and marketing facilities.
The Company and its subsidiaries intend to continue to carry on business of the general character described above.

EARNINGS: The following tabulation of profit and loss of the Company and consolidated subsidiaries has been condensed from the consolidated statement of earnings (in which certain substantial charges to earned surplus are referred to) included with the financial statements contained in the offering prospectus. Such financial statements, together with the notes appearing thereon or appended thereto, and the certificate of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., independent public accountants, all contained in the offering prospectus, should be read in conjunction with the following tabulation, to all of which such tabulation is subject:

CAPITALIZATION: Funded debt and capital stock of the Company as of June 30, 1941, adjusted to give effect to the issue and sale of the Debentures and Notes and to the prepayment of the Company's $25,000,000 of 2.15% Unsecured Installment Notes (the entire funded debt presently outstanding) referred to below under Purpose of Issue, are as follows:

2¾% Debentures, due August 1, 1966	$25,000,000
Serial Notes, due $1,500,000 on each August 1, 1946 to 1955, inclusive	$15,000,000
Capital Stock, no par, stated value $25 per share	13,003,953 shs.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The net proceeds to be received by the Company from the sale of the Debentures and Notes will amount to approximately $39,822,498, exclusive of accrued interest and after deducting underwriting discounts and $215,002 as the estimated amount of expenses payable by the Company in connection with the issues. Of the net proceeds, $25,000,000 is to be applied, simultaneously with the sale of the Debentures and Notes, to the prepayment of the Company's 2.15% Unsecured Installment Notes at the principal amount thereof (interest thereon to be paid out of other funds of the Company). The balance of such net proceeds will be added to the Company's general funds and no allocation of such balance to any particular purpose has been or is to be made. The general funds of the Company will be used from time to time for corporate purposes as the Board of Directors may determine. From such funds the Company expects from time to time to make substantial capital expenditures involving, among other things, installation of new refining equipment and processes, the expansion of transportation facilities and the financing of exploration and development work on domestic oil lands and on some of the foreign oil lands of subsidiaries of the Company, principally in South America.

DEBENTURES AND NOTES: The Debentures and Notes are to be issued under an Indenture, dated August 1, 1941, with The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, as Trustee. The Indenture is not to authorize the issuance of any additional securities thereunder, but is not to restrict the issuance of other securities by the Company, except as indicated below, or (with certain exceptions) by any subsidiary. Neither the Debentures nor the Notes are to be secured but the Company is to covenant in the Indenture not to create secured indebtedness (with certain exceptions) without effectively providing that the Debentures and Notes (together with, if the Company should so determine, any other indebtedness ranking equally with the Debentures and Notes, including guarantees of indebtedness of others) shall be secured by the security of such secured indebtedness equally and ratably therewith, all as more fully to be provided in the Indenture.

DEBENTURE SINKING FUND: The Company is to covenant in the Indenture that it will, on June 15, 1956, and on each June 15 thereafter, pay to the Trustee the sum of $1,500,000 in cash, less the principal amount of Debentures delivered by the Company for cancellation or previously redeemed, otherwise than through the Sinking Fund, and not theretofore applied as a credit with respect to the Sinking Fund. Any cash received by the Trustee as a Sinking Fund payment is to be applied to the redemption of Debentures, by lot, at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest, on August 1 next following the receipt of such cash by the Trustee.

UNDERWRITING: Subject to certain terms and conditions, the underwriters named in the offering prospectus (including the undersigned) have severally agreed to purchase the Debentures and Notes from the Company, not later than the eighth full business day after the registration statement becomes effective, at 100¼% and 99%, respectively, or a total of $40,037,500, plus accrued interest. The Debentures and Notes are to be offered at the prices set forth below, or a total of $40,587,500, plus accrued interest. The underwriting discounts with respect to the Debentures and Notes are 1¼% and ¾%, respectively, or a total of $550,000 (not including $25,000 to be paid by the Company to the underwriters in partial reimbursement of their expenses).

Prices:

102½% for the Debentures

99¾% for the Serial Notes (all maturities)

plus accrued interest from August 1, 1941 to the date of delivery

The offer of these securities is made only by the offering prospectus and is subject to the terms of offering set forth therein, and to approval of legal proceedings by Messrs. Wright, Gordon, Zachry, Parlin & Cahill, counsel for the underwriters, and by Messrs. Pillsbury, Madison & Sutro, counsel for the Company. It is expected that the Debentures and Notes in temporary form will be ready for delivery on or about August 22, 1941, at the office of Dillon, Read & Co., New York, against payment therefor in New York funds.

TO FACILITATE THE OFFERING, IT IS INTENDED TO STABILIZE THE RESPECTIVE PRICES OF THE DEBENTURES AND NOTES. THIS STATEMENT IS NOT AN ASSURANCE THAT SUCH RESPECTIVE PRICES WILL BE STABILIZED OR THAT THE STABILIZING, IF COMMENCED, MAY NOT BE DISCONTINUED AT ANY TIME.

Further information, particularly financial statements, is contained in the registration statement on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and in the offering prospectus which must be furnished to each purchaser and is obtainable from the undersigned, who, however, will not offer these securities to any persons located in this state except banks, trust companies or insurance companies or associations organized under the banking or insurance laws of this state or of the United States, or doing business in this state under the supervision of the Department of Insurance, or the Auditor of Public Accounts, building and loan associations organized and doing business under the laws of this state or of the United States, public sinking fund trustees, corporations, associations engaged as a part of their business in purchasing or holding securities, and dealers in securities in this state.

OIL SHORTAGE HAS ARRIVED, U. S. AID WARNS

Puts East's Gasoline Stock at 10 Days.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—Federal authorities reported today that the eastern oil shortage had finally reached the acute stage, that reserve stocks of gasoline had diminished to a 10 day supply and that the situation was "perilous."

Ralph K. Davies.

Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum coördinator, said gasoline stocks dropped 893,000 barrels last week, as the diversion of tankers to the British service made its consequences apparent.

Davies hinted that more drastic measures than the present limited rationing might be necessary. He also denounced as "near-sighted prophets" those who had called the shortage "phony."

Visions People Freezing.

"We must conserve gasoline stocks now to avoid a drastic shortage this winter when our tankers must be used to haul fuel oils unless our people are to be left to freeze and our defense industry shut down for lack of power," he said.

"This is the beginning of the sharp and serious drop in supplies that we forecast. Figures which have become available today show that reports that stocks on the east coast are in firm and safe condition are myths."

Gasoline in storage in the eastern area last week totaled 20,476,000 barrels, he said, of which about 14,000,000 was unavailable for use because at the bottom of tanks, filled with sludge, or in process of refining. The remainder, 6,476,000 barrels, constitutes only a 10 day supply, he said.

NO MORE OIL TO JAPS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 [Special].—Shipments of crude oil to Japan have ceased since President Roosevelt's executive order of July 26 freezing Japanese credits and assets in the United States and putting virtually all trade with Japan under strict licensing control. Officials said today that since then only one small shipment has gone to Japan and that only to enable a ship to return home.

Supply Drops in Week.

Continuing, he gave these statistics on the situation:

Gasoline inventories dropped 893,000 barrels last week.

Heavy industrial oils are some 2,500,000 barrels less than a year ago, with demand up 10 per cent.

"Last year the industry had a reserve of tankers available for the 10 to 12 per cent increase in shipments that occurs in winter months to supply fuel oil," Davies said. "Today it does not have that reserve. We are heading into a winter when fuel oil shipments should pick up in volume, but there are no reserve tankers to handle them."

Study Rationing Plans.

New York, Aug. 20 [Special].—The petroleum marketing committee for the 17 eastern coastal states met here today to work out suggestions for a definite plan of operation for the gasoline rationing program in the east.

TERM OIL SUPPLY AMPLE

The National Association of Petroleum Retailers, in session in Chicago, asserted yesterday that careful coördination of facilities would assure an adequate supply of oil for national defense and civilian use.

A resolution to that effect and advocating action along that line was adopted by delegates to the convention of the organization, representing approximately 11,000 filling station operators.

The statement said that information indicated that for the nation as a whole there was no shortage of petroleum products or refining, transportation or storage facilities, and expressed the desire that "no artificial shortage be built up, developed, or publicized in any section of the United States."

The association urged federal petroleum officials to "set to work, firmly and without discrimination between various branches of the petroleum industry, and without publicizing untrue or artificial shortages or bottlenecks, to coördinate the refining, transportation, and storage facilities that national defense and civilian supply be assured."

RFC Willing to Put Up 80% of Oil Pipe Line Financing

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 [Special].—The Reconstruction Finance corporation has offered to finance 80 per cent of the 80 million dollar estimated overall cost of the proposed oil pipeline from Texas to the Philadelphia area. Jesse Jones, federal loan administrator, announced today.

Fewer Cars at Higher Prices Called Certainty by Auto Men

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 20 (AP).—A shortage of new cars, rationing of those available to dealers, and an increase in retail prices of from $150 to $200 in the average car bracket are certainties, according to authoritive trade sources attempting to appraise the most uncertain future the automobile industry ever has faced.

Possibilities, a little remote at the moment, say these same sources, include a rationing of vehicles to users with priority to individuals engaged in occupations essential to the public well being. Consideration also has been given to the possible future need for a priorities plan for servicing of used cars.

May Ration Replacements.

Under this plan a car owned and used by a physician, for example, would be serviced with replacement parts ahead of the vechicle of less urgent necessity.

Out of a meeting in Washington tomorrow the motor car producers expect to come announcement of schedules for passenger car production for the initial three months of the industry's new model year.

The industry also expects the fixing of "deadlines" for effecting decisions already reached. Among these will be the curtailment or elimination of all so-called "brightwork" for passenger cars and of all things considered decorative and not entirely functoinal or necessary.

A couple of car manufacturers with aluminum pistons still on hand are using them in the initial production of 1942 models.

U. S. Has 71% of Autos.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 [Special].—A commerce department report today showed that 71.7 per cent of all the automobiles in the world are now in the United States. The total, registered as of Jan. 1, was 45,376,891 units for the world and 32,452,861 for the United States. Of the world total 36,343,260 were passenger cars, 444,028 were buses, 8,400,025 were trucks and 189,578 were Diesel units.

American makes of motor vehicles, including those produced in Canadian branches of American factories, accounted for about 83 per cent of the total world registrations, it was said.

Fix Car Quotas Today

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—William S. Knudsen, director of the Office of Production Management, said today that production quotas for automobile manufacturers for the next four months would be set tomorrow and that they likely would be about 20 per cent below the 1940 rate of output.

He said that about 100,000 cars would be made this month, which is more than were manufactured last August, but that the total output until the end of November would make the average below last year's total. Hereafter, Knudsen said, the auto quotas will be issued on a monthly basis three months in advance.

The apparent conflict between OPM and the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply over the method of restricting production seems to have been reconciled.

Knudsen said he does not believe the gasoline shortage in the east will affect the demand for automobiles.

Arms Plants Draining Farm Labor Supply

How new armament plants in the middle west have drained labor from the farms was disclosed yesterday by a survey made by a farm equipment manufacturer. The survey was made in the Louisville, Ky., area.

Louisville, with a population of approximately 319,000, ranks near the top among cities of this size as a recipient of armament plant projects. Contracts for the construction of plants and the building of war materials in the area aggregate more than $125,000,000.

It is estimated that the 15 or more plant projects in the area employ more than 50,000 workers, 30 per cent of which have come from surrounding farm areas. Union labor is employed exclusively on some construction jobs, but plant directors state that the operating forces will be drawn from nearby farms.

Prefer Local Labor.

"Thirty per cent of the construction workers at the Indiana Ordnance works have come from farms or from available farm worker supply in small towns," J. S. Queener, service superintendent at the works for E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., which is building and will operate the plant, reported. "Thirty-five per cent of operation workers come from farms or farm worker supply. We, much prefer to employ workers from farms and small towns."

The Indiana Ordnance works, the largest project in the area, employed as high as 27,000 men early in the summer and currently has approximately 21,000 workers. When this huge powder works, the world's largest, at Charlestown, Ind., near Louisville, is completed about the first of the year and put into full production, it will require an operating force of around 9,000.

Effects Widely Felt.

Personnel directors of the other projects, state employment bureau officers and state agricultural leaders confirmed Queener's estimate that more than 30 per cent of the workers come from the farm labor sources. Ben Kilgore, secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau federation, said the farm labor supply pinch is being felt as much as 200 miles south of Louisville.

As a result, county farm leaders questioned during the survey estimated that where a year ago each farm had an average of two men to do the farm work, this year there is an average of about one man to every one and a half or two farms.

Farmers Reap Wages.

It was found that many farmers temporarily have given up farming altogether to hold armament industry jobs. To keep their farms in production and still benefit from the higher paid armament project jobs in the area, many of the men are doing their farm work at night after they get off work.

"Daylight saving schedules at the armament projects and some night work in the fields make their part time farming possible," the company making the survey said.

Buckley, president of the company since 1939, was renamed to that post. John Ballantyne, treasurer, was named vice president; Thomas A. Kennally, general sales manager, was named vice president; W. R. Wilson, controler, was elected treasurer.

Raymond J. Kelly, regional director of the Office of Civilian Defense, will address the National Institute for Commercial and Trade Organization executives at Northwestern university today.

The 1940 convention of the National Retail Farm Equipment association will be held in the Hotel Sherman Sept. 29 to Oct. 2.

The Chicago chapter of the American Institute of Banking will have an expanded educational program for the fall semester which opens on Sept. 8, according to announcement by William M. Edens, second vice president of the Continental Illinois bank, National Bank and Trust company, who is chairman of the institute's board of regents.

OFFER STANDARD OF CALIFORNIA 40 MILLION LOAN

New York, Aug. 20 [Special].—A syndicate of 38 underwriting houses headed by Dillon, Read & Co., tomorrow will offer two new issues of securities of the Standard Oil Company of California, aggregating 40 million dollars. One, an issue of 25 millions of 2¾ per cent debentures, due Aug. 1, 1966, will be offered at 102½ and accrued interest. The other will consist of 15 millions in serial notes, due $1,500,000 each on Aug. 1, 1946 to 1955, and bearing interest at rates ranging from 1.05 to 2.20 per cent, priced at 99¾.

The company will use part of the funds to retire 25 million dollars of 2.15 per cent instalment notes, and will add the remainder of the proceeds to its general funds.

The debenture issue is callable as a whole or in part by lot at any time on 30 days' notice at 104½ in the first four years and at decreasing premiums thereafter. On completion of this financing the company will have no other funded debt.

Germany Pays Off Its 1931 Wheat Loan Given by U. S.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 [Special].—Jesse Jones, federal loan administrator, announced today collection of all except $46,782 of a wheat credit of $2,661,309 extended to the German government in 1931, and transferred to the Export-Import bank for collection. Funds for the balance of $46,782 are available in the federal reserve bank but transfer has not been received.

ILLINOIS GROUP HITS U. S. EDICT IN SHIP STRIKE

Charges Mediators Aid Closed Shop.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Illinois manufacturers handling millions of dollars of armament work joined yesterday in protesting the decision of the defense mediation board in the Kearney, N. J., shipyard labor dispute.

Belief that the enforcement of the board's decision calling for a "maintenance of membership" clause in the union's contract with the company would mean a rapid extension of the closed shop controversy thruout industry prompted the Illinois Manufacturers association to present its views to each member of the mediation board.

Stress Significance of Dispute.

The Kearny strike, which has tied up a half billion dollars of naval and merchant marine construction work since Aug. 7, is regarded by manufacturers here as one of the most important labor disputes that has arisen since the rearmament program got under way. It is considered to be the opening shot by the CIO to press for adoption of the closed shop principle thruout industry.

Under the so-called maintenance of membership clause, the present members of the CIO union at the Kearny plant would be required to maintain their memberships in good standing during the life of the contract or face dismissal from their jobs. The union favored the clause but the company rejected it.

Developments in Chicago indicated that the closed shop will become the principal issue in negotiations which farm equipment unions are conducting with the International Harvester company. With the wage increases already obtained, the unions are shifting the emphasis to the closed shop demand.

Strategy Is Changed.

The issue has been involved in virtually every important labor dispute that has arisen in recent years. It has been put forward mainly for trading purposes and usually forgotten when a wage increase was obtained. The present strategy of union leaders is to give precedence to the closed shop demand.

The Federal Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company at Kearny, which has steadfastly refused to accede to the mediation board's recommendation, is a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation.

Rather than accept the board's recommendation, the company offered to turn over its plant facilities to the navy department for operation by the government. The offer has not been acted upon by the government.

May Set Off Nation-wide Drive.

Manufacturers here are convinced that if the national administration forces acceptance of the mediation board's recommendation in the Kearny case on the grounds of emergency, it will give labor the go ahead signal for a nation-wide campaign.

"The board is in effect coöperating with and encouraging union labor leaders in their endeavor to use the present emergency as a club to further entrench and perpetuate their power and create an organized labor monopoly in the country," the Illinois group said in its message to board members.

"Moreover, the policy of encouraging the closed shop will eventually impede the defense program by stimulating strife and dislocation, and interfering with the efficient operation of defense industries."

CONFERENCE DEADLOCKED

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—Any settlement of the CIO shipyard strike at Kearny, N. J., which has tied up about $500,000,000 of naval and merchant ship construction for about two weeks, appeared tonight to rest with the White House.

A two-hour conference this afternoon between L. H. Korndorff, president of the Federal Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company, and John Green, president of CIO's industrial union of marine and shipbuilding workers, failed to produce a settlement. As he left the conference, Green said he would advise President Roosevelt that the union wanted him "to use his good offices."

Green indicated that all matters in negotiation for a new contract had been settled except the question of a so-called "maintenance of membership" clause.

Mutual Surety Firms Up Next for Tax Study

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—The senate finance committee agreed today that after disposing of the pending 3,236 million dollar tax bill it would consider proposals for taxing mutual casualty and surety companies on the same basis as capital stock companies.

The committee voted to consider treasury recommendations on the subject later, in connection with forthcoming legislation covering administrative changes in revenue laws. This decision was reached after several members said hearings on the present bill should not be lengthened by considering new insurance taxation.

Argument for the Proposal.

The committee acted after Ray Murphy of New York, assistant general manager of the Association of Casualty and Surety Executives, gave what Chairman Walter F. George [D., Ga.] described as a "very compelling" statement urging taxation of large commercial mutual casualty and surety companies on the same basis as capital stock companies.

Murphy said that capital stock casualty, fire and surety companies were required to pay the same tax rates as were applied to corporations in other fields of industry, whereas the mutual companies "almost completely escape the payment of federal income taxes."

Tax on Lloyds' Asked.

Senator Bennett Champ Clark [D., Mo.] said today he intended to offer an amendment which would impose federal taxation on such underwriters as Lloyd's of London, which he said operated thruout the nation without payment of federal income tax or in most cases state income taxes.

Two witnesses for business groups urged that nondefense expenditures be cut and asked extensive revision of the pending revenue bill as it passed the house. They were Laurence Arnold Tanzer, representing the Merchants' Association of New York, and Paul W. Adams, spokesman for the Manufacturers' Association of Connecticut.

HIRSCH, LILIENTHAL, BROKER, WILL OPEN OFFICE HERE SEPT. 15

Hirsch, Lilienthal & Co., a New York security and commodity house with European branches, will open an office in the Field building Sept. 15, it was announced yesterday. It will mark the firm's first expansion in this country in its 30 year history.

Louis J. Stirling.

The Chicago branch will be headed by Louis J. Stirling, who is resigning as manager of the bond department of Harris, Upham & Co. He has been in the securities business for 15 years.

Stirling said the Chicago office will be started on a modest scale and will conduct a general brokerage business, specializing in bond transactions for dealers and institutions.

Chemical Industry Given First Claim on Linters

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—E. R. Stettinius Jr., priorities director, issued an order today designed to give preference to the chemical industry and other arms needs in the processing and distribution of cotton linters. These are the fibers adhering to the cottonseed hull after cotton has passed thru a gin. They are used in the manufacture of smokeless powder, plastics, and acetate rayons.

U. S. Buys More Cheese and Eggs for Britain

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—The department of agriculture announced today the purchase of 1,329,000 pounds of American cheese, 5,580 cases of eggs, and 2,104,000 pounds of dried pears. It was assumed that the purchases were made for Britain.

Priorities Tie Up Civilian Steel Orders

Many civilian orders for steel cannot be filled for some time to come because of confusion resulting from the government's steel priority order, it was reported yesterday.

The confusion is resulting as steel makers await official word from the government for the mills to use their own discretion and experience in determining the proper sequence of steel orders so that rolling mill schedules will not be upset and production actually lost.

Countless industries served fairly promptly by steel producers in the past are scheduled for a period of low operations and some may be forced to close. Among them are such industries as washing machine makers, grave vault manufacturers, and makers of such items as bed springs, stoves, bird cages, and signs.

Railroads Are Worried.

Such large consumer groups as canners, railroads, the oil industry and jobbers are growing more apprehensive over their ability to obtain the necessary steel.

To point out effects of metal and other shortages, the publication Iron Age cited a report from Ohio that 200 to 250 plants in that state already have had to shut down or sharply curtail operations. Similar reports have come from other industrial sections of the country.

Railroads are expected to face a serious situation unless they obtain preferential ratings for materials such as rails and track accessories. Thousands of tons of badly-needed rails are on steel company order books.

Production Rate Gains.

Iron Age reported the steel industry production level rose from 99 per cent of capacity last week to 99.5 per cent this week. Among changes responsible were a 1½ point gain to 101½ per cent in Chicago and a 4 point advance at Cleveland to 97.

The Lake Superior Iron Ore association reported ore consumption in July set an all time peak of 6,497,442 gross tons, a gain of 268,000 tons over June. John D. Biggers, director of production for the Office of Production Management, has urged the Maritime commission to build 25 ore boats to accommodate increased steel capacity.

It was reported the OPM is studying a proposal to build a complete new 125 million dollar steel plant at Hammond, Ind., on land owned by Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation.

Lake Steamer Sets Ore Cargo Mark for 6th Time

Superior, Wis., Aug. 20 [Special].—The steamer Harry Coulby cleared Superior today with 16,335 tons of iron ore, the largest cargo ever loaded in a Great Lakes steamer. It was the sixth time this season and the tenth time in two years the Coulby has smashed its own previous record.

U. S. WILL BUILD NEW ALUMINUM UNITS; PRICE CUT

Expansion to Cost 100 Millions.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—The government obtained a cut of 2 cents a pound in aluminum prices today in connection with a $100,000,000 program to expand production of the metal for airplanes.

Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator, said that the cut had been promised to him by Arthur V. Davis, chairman of Aluminum Company of America. Aids of Jones estimated the price cut would save the government more than $15,000,000 a year. The price of ingot aluminum will be cut from 17 cents to 15 cents a pound after Sept. 30 and prices for other types of aluminum will be cut at least 2 cents.

Jones said the reduction was arranged when Defense Plant corporation signed a contract to pay for $52,000,000 of new aluminum plants to be built by and operated by ALCOA but owned by the government. Cost of sites will raise this figure to about $60,000,000. Contemplated contracts with other companies will raise the total to $100,000,000, Jones said.

Plan Three Smelting Plants.

The contract with ALCOA provided for building a 400 million pounds a year alumina plant in Arkansas and three aluminum smelting plants with a capacity of 340 million pounds a year. Alumina is the raw material for aluminum and is made out of bauxite ore.

Contracts with other manufacturers, Jones said, would provide an additional 260 million pounds of annual aluminum production capacity and would raise the total aluminum capacity of the country to 1,500 million pounds a year when the plants are completed in about 15 months.

The new aluminum smelting plants for ALCOA will include a 150 million pound capacity plant near Massena, N. Y., a 90 million pound plant near Bonneville dam in the northwest, and a 100 million pound capacity plant in Arkansas.

Management Fee to Be Paid.

ALCOA will operate these plants under a five year lease, paying the government 85 per cent of the net profits and keeping 15 per cent as a management fee. The government retained the right to cancel the lease if ALCOA sells aluminum from these plants at "unreasonable profits." The government will decide what are "unreasonable profits."

Jones said, "Figure it out for yourself," when asked if the government plants might end ALCOA's dominance of the aluminum industry.

Trust Facilities for Corporations

FOR efficiency, for economy, and for convenience, corporation officials in the Central West today look to Chicago when they need modern trust facilities not available in their home communities. Thousands of corporations find in this city the answer to their trust requirements. Many of these corporations employ The First National Bank of Chicago in one or more of the following capacities:

Trustee for Bond, Note, Equipment Trust and Other Corporate Issues: The Bank as Trustee, carries out the varying duties imposed upon it and pays maturing interest and principal. It also acts as Registrar, Depositary in reorganizations and Exchange Agent for new securities. Its service affords complete records available for proper inspection.

Stock Transfer Agent: Corporations reduce the risk of loss and save time and difficulty by appointing this bank to handle stock transfers. Stockholders lists, accurately maintained, are available for the mailing of proxies, notices or reports of the corporation. As Disbursing Agent, the bank prepares and mails to stockholders checks for dividends declared by the corporation. The Bank also acts as Stock Registrar, thus meeting the requirements of many stock exchanges.

Custodian or Agent for Securities: A Custodian account provides vault protection and assures prompt presentation for payment of reserve and pension fund securities. An Agency account provides a broader service and is flexible enough to permit delegating many of the tasks connected with investments. A Supervised Agency account receives from our trust investment organization recommendations for purchase and sale of securities.

Whether your corporation is large or small, you need go no further than Chicago for any kind of trust service. Our Trust Department maintains an organization experienced and completely equipped to serve corporations in fiduciary capacities, and invites your inquiry.

STOCKS PUT WAR WORRIES ASIDE FOR QUIET RALLY

Upsurge of Commodities Helps Market.

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—The stock market today put aside war tensions to enjoy a quiet rally which benefitted many leaders to the extent of fractions to around a point.

As in recent recovery efforts, the buying largely was attributed to technical considerations, altho inflation ideas were warmed again by a fresh burst of buying in commodities.

There were some optimistic bits in domestic business news, but international complications remained an obstacle to extensive commitments in the share division.

Stock Index Advances.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite closed .2 of a point higher at 43.2. Transfers totaled 486,580 shares, compared with 390,340 yesterday. Of 694 issues traded, 362 closed higher and only 137 declined.

A good performance by the steels helped to steer the list upward after much indecision in the early dealings. Rails, aircrafts, rubbers, motors, specialties, and the amusement shares were well represented in the plus column.

PARAMOUNT UP AGAIN.

Paramount Pictures, Inc., common stock climbed to a new peak of 15⅛ in active unlisted trading on the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday, but later profit taking cut the day's gain to ⅜ and the stock closed at 15. The rest of the list was mixed with advances predominating in a turnover of 23,000 shares.

Commonwealth Edison closed ⅛ lower at 25⅝ on sales of 1,450 shares. Pure Oil lost ¼ at 9½, Swift & Co. dropped ⅛ at 24¼ and Borg Warner gained ⅛ at 18⅝.

AM. TELEPHONE VOTES ITS USUAL $2.25 DIVIDEND

Directors of the American Telephone and Telegraph company yesterday declared the usual quarterly dividend of $2.25 a share on the capital stock. It will involve distribution on Oct. 15 of more than 42 million dollars to about 631,000 stockholders.

Directors of Johns-Manville corporation voted to retire by lot, on Oct. 1, 25,000 of the outstanding 50,000 shares of its 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock at a price of $120 each plus accrued dividends. Also they declared a dividend of 75 cents on common stock and the regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 on preferred.

Keystone Steel and Wire company of Peoria, Ill., declared a dividend of 25 cents, the first for the current fiscal year which began July 1. A total of $1 per share was paid last year.

Mesta Machine company, Pittsburgh, Pa., declared a dividend of 75 cents. Previous payments had been at the quarterly rate of 50 cents, the last one being made July 1.

Commodities

Cotton and world sugar yesterday led rising commodity futures prices in a broad buying movement spurred by reports of stiffening opposition in congress to price ceilings for farm products.

Cotton advanced $1.80 to $1.85 a bale as many traders expressed confidence that President Roosevelt would sign the loan stock freezing bill. Active buying came from both trade and speculative sources. Renewed reports of bad weather and insect damage in the cotton belt also supported the advance.

Persistent foreign demands boosted world sugar futures 0.03½ to 0.07 cent a pound above Tuesday's close. A price administration official was quoted in trade circles as having said that the present 3.50 cent ceiling on raw sugar would be raised if shipping costs increased.

Cottonseed oil moved higher as a result of the rise in cotton and strength in related staples. Closing prices on the oil showed gains of 0.15 to 0.23 cents a pound. Coffee futures ran contrary to the trend again and closed 0.05 to 0.08 cent a pound lower.

Wool futures gained 0.4 cent to 1.2 cents a pound on reports that no basis could be found for rumors that the government intended to take title to all unsold domestic wool stocks.

CAMERA SHOPS ARE HARD HIT BY PRIORITIES RULE

Many Small Dealers May Be Forced to Wall.

Asserting present priority regulations will drive thousands of small photographic supplies dealers out of business, the National Photographic Dealers, Inc., yesterday approved a resolution urging the government to make available for commercial production at least a part of the essential raw materials now virtually shut off.

The final draft of the resolution will be prepared later and mailed to congressmen and the Office of Production Management and the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply.

The action was taken at the joint convention of this organization and the Photographers Association of America, being held this week in the Stevens hotel.

Large photographic manufacturers who also are handling government orders have had little trouble in getting materials, officials of the organization said. But the little dealer is finding himself left out, they declared. The entire business of thousands of these dealers is selling to amateur camera enthusiasts and commercial photographers.

Members of the association said manufacturers of commercial photographic equipment and the small photography shop proprietor are confronted with priorities and shortages at every turn, with the situation becoming increasingly acute.

It is difficult for the photographic shop to obtain such chemicals as acetic acid, used in making prints, and hydrochine, used in developing.

Needed Metals Lacking.

The builder of commercial photographic equipment finds he can obtain either none or limited quantities of such needed raw materials as aluminum, plastics, copper, chromium and other metals.

More than a half million persons are dependent on the photographic industry for their support, one official of the organization asserted. Many of these are skilled workers who would experience difficulty fitting into other lines of employment.

The convention approved a resolution calling for a survey to learn what essential materials in its possession could be turned over to the government for rearmament uses.

LAMBS SOAR 25C TO AUGUST PEAK PRICE SINCE 1929

Lambs soared yesterday to new 12 year peaks for the month of August. Top loads jumped 25 cents to $12.50 a hundred pounds, the highest August sale since 1929. This price was $3.10 above the same day last year, and $4.35 higher than two years ago.

The largest buying orders of the year absorbed a huge supply of beef cattle on a steady to 25 cents lower basis. The tonnage was largest for a Wednesday since December, 1934.

Further advances of 50 cents to $1 a hundred pounds in fresh pork stimulated hog buying on a steady to 10 cents higher basis.

GRADY IN MANILA TO START STUDY OF ASIA'S GOODS

MANILA, Aug. 20 (AP).—Henry F. Grady, representing the federal loan agency, arrived by Clipper plane today for a two month survey of southwestern Asia to insure continued access by the United States to the raw materials of this area.

The United States armament program, Grady said in an interview, is dependent to a large extent on the continued supply of vital products from southwestern Asia. His task is twofold—to stimulate production and continued shipment of materials to the United States and to prevent the axis powers from obtaining these materials.

Grady plans to spend three weeks in Manila, then visit the Netherlands East Indies, Malaya Island, Burma, India, Ceylon, Singapore and Hongkong.

Grady will study production of chrome and manganese ores and hemp in the Philippines, and will attempt to remedy the shipping shortage.

N. Y. Exchange Seat Sold for $28,000, Down $7,000

New York, Aug. 20 (AP).—Prices of New York Stock Exchange memberships took a sharp plunge today when arrangements were completed for the transfer of one at $28,000, off $7,000 from the previous transaction which represented the 1941 high at $35,000. Since the first of May prices have been creeping up from the year's low of $20,000.

LLOYD'S FUND.

What guaranty is there that Lloyd's of London will meet all the claims under its American insurance policies? Might not excessive losses on English business as a result of the war jeopardize the underwriters' ability to pay off in this country?—R. K.

Answer: Two years ago the Underwriters at Lloyd's, London [as Lloyd's of London is known correctly] established an American trust fund with an initial deposit of about 40 million dollars with the City Bank Farmers Trust company of New York, the trustee.

The purpose of the fund is to protect policyholders in the United States with assets that would not be affected by the war. The trust was so created that it is beyond the control of the British government and cannot be dissolved while England is at war in Europe.

The fund now holds more than 55 million dollars in assets, of which approximately 86 per cent is in cash and the rest in United States government bonds and other domestic securities. The deposit is estimated to equal from four to five times the normal annual losses under Lloyd's policies in this country.

Aside from the trust fund, Lloyd's maintains statutory deposits of 3½ million dollars in Illinois and $350,000 in Kentucky.

BANK DEPOSITS.

I understand that the total deposits in the banks are at an unusually high level and constitute an inflationary danger. Won't the government sale of defense savings bonds reduce bank deposits because people withdraw money from the banks to buy the bonds?—E. C.

Answer: Altho it is true that the public withdraws money from savings and checking accounts to buy defense savings bonds, these withdrawals do not result in a net change in the aggregate of bank deposits for the whole banking system. Funds paid to the banks for the bonds are credited immediately to the government's account. Withdrawals thus are balanced by the deposits to the government account.

As the government spends the borrowed funds, the money flows back into private accounts and again there is no change in total deposits. Of course, individual banks may gain or lose deposits, but for the banking system as a whole, the transfer of deposits from one account to another does not result in any increase or decrease in the total.

However, a geographical shifting in bank deposits may occur as the government spends more heavily in some areas than in others. Banks in districts having large armament industries accumulate deposits more rapidly than those in areas where few arms contracts have been awarded.

TROOPS REMOVE PATTERNS FROM STRUCK FACTORY

Drive Thru Picket Lines at Benton Harbor.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

A detachment of troops from Fort Custer, Mich., yesterday drove trucks thru a CIO picket line to remove from the strikebound Benton Harbor, Mich., Malleable Industries plant a number of patterns needed for armament work in a plant at nearby Buchanan. The Malleable strike, involving demands for a closed shop and a blanket 10 cents an hour wage increase, began last week.

A CIO strike at the plant of New Haven Clock company, New Haven, Conn., delayed production of some timing devices for bombers. Striking workers claimed that the company had refused to bargain or to consent to the election of a bargaining agent. About 1,300 workers were idle.

Two Mine Workers Shot.

Two employés of the International Harvester company mine at Benham, Ky., were shot and wounded when their automobile was fired on. The company has been involved in a jurisdictional dispute since April between the Progressive Miners of America [AFL] and the U. M. W. A. [CIO].

In Washington, D. C., the defense mediation board set a hearing for Aug. 28 on a dispute between the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company, Chicago; the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers [AFL], and the International Association of Machinists [AFL].

The board also called on the American Car and Foundry company and a CIO union in Chicago to resume production pending a board hearing on a strike which started July 10. The board suggested that any wage adjustments which might be agreed upon be retroactive to the date when production is resumed. The company manufactures box cars at its Chicago plant.

Strike at Rockford Plant.

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 20 [Special].—CIO unionists at the Mechanics' Universal Joint company, a subsidiary of the Borg-Warner corporation, walked out on strike this afternoon. Production was halted on a number of war department orders. The strike was called by the Automobile Aircraft and Agricultural Workers' local No. 225. Between 900 and 1,000 workers employed in three shifts are affected by the strike. A company official said the closed shop was the principal issue.

J. P. MORGAN COMPANY VOTES $1.50 DIVIDEND, THE SECOND THIS YEAR

New York, Aug. 20 [Special].—Directors of J. P. Morgan & Co., Inc., at their regular meeting today declared a dividend of $1.50 a share on the 200,000 shares of capital stock, payable Sept. 15 to stock of record Sept. 2.

This is the second dividend to be paid by the Morgan bank since it took out a state charter and ceased operating as a private banking firm April 1, 1940. The previous dividend, paid in June, was $1 a share. The stock is held entirely by officers and directors of the bank and by members of their families.

Nearest Firm to Get U. S. Jobs When Bids Are Same

Washington, D. C., Aug. 20 (AP).—The interior department announced today the bidder nearest the site would receive future department contracts in the case of identical bids to ease transportation difficulties. This was a reversal of a policy adopted several years ago, as a part of a campaign against "the practice of identical bidding." Then Secretary Harold Ickes ordered the award of contracts, when similar bids were received, to the shipper farthest removed from the delivery point.

Defendant.
NOTICE OF RECEIVERS' SALE

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, receivers of the Rider Furniture Company, Inc. under appointment by the White Circuit Court in the above entitled cause of action, that all of the assets of said corporation in the hands of the receivers, except cash, accounts receivable, surrender value of life insurance and prepaid assets will be offered for sale in the Court Room of the White Circuit Court at Monticello, Indiana, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., September 5, 1941. Such property consists in general of land and buildings comprising two factories for the manufacture of radio cabinets and furniture, such factories being located in Monticello, Indiana, and Peru, Indiana. The factory buildings are fully equipped with all necessary machinery for such manufacturing purposes in good operating condition and are now in operation. Also to be sold are the orders for manufacturing now on hand exceeding $300,000, together with large inventories of raw materials and supplies necessary for such manufacturing operations. The book value of the assets in the hands of your receivers amounts to $558,450.57, and the appraised value of the same, according to inventory and appraisement filed in the White Circuit Court amounts as of February 4, 1941, to $691,555.15. A minimum bid price has been fixed by the court at $350,000. Such sale will be for cash and 10% of the bid price must be deposited at the time of making the bid, which amount shall be forfeited if the successful bidder fails to pay the balance of the purchase price within thirty days from the date of sale. Detailed inventories and appraisements will be on file and open for inspection at the Monticello plant, in the office of the Clerk of the White Circuit Court and in the office of the attorneys for the receivers, Royse and Travis, located at Room 1003, 108 East Washington street, Indianapolis, Indiana, continuously until the date of sale. The sale is being made as of the 20th day of August, on which date the books will be closed, and thereafter the book value of the inventories and the amount of orders on hand may be obtained from either of the undersigned receivers.

Any changes in book values of the assets occurring after August 20, 1941, will be adjusted to the purchase price of the property.

Any additional detailed information may be obtained at any time by any prospective bidder from either of the receivers or their attorneys.

Physical inspection of the properties to be sold will be allowed, at any reasonable time and such inspection is earnestly invited.

The order of the court authorizing the sale and this notice are given as of the 15th day of August, 1941.
